bounde Iefus, and led him away, and deliuered him to Pilate.

3 Then Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Lewes? And he answered, and faid vnto him, Thou faieft it.

3 And the hie Priests accufed him of ma- nie things.

4 * Wherefore Pilate asked him againe, faying, Answereft thou nothing? beholde how manie things thei witnes agaift thee.

5 But Iefus answered b no more at all, fo that Pilate marueiled.

6 Now at the feaft Pilate did deliuer a pri- foner vnto them, whomefseuer thei wol- de defire.

7 Then there was one named Barabbas, w was boude with his fellowes, that had ma- de insurrection, who in the insurrection had committed murther.

8 And the people cryed a loude, & began to defire that he wode do as he had e euer done vnto them.

9 Then Pilate answered them, and said, Wil ye that I let lofe vnto you the King of the Lewes?

10 For he knewe that the hie Priests had deliuered him of enuie.

11 But the hie Priests had moued the peo- ple to defire that he wode rather deliuer Barabbas vnto them.

12 And Pilate answered, and said againe vnto the, What wil ye then that I do with him, whome ye call the King of the Lewes?

13 And thei cryed againe, Crucifie him.

14 Then Pilate said vnto them, But what euil hathe he done? And they cryed the more feruently, Crucifie him.

15 So Pilate d willing to contet the people, lofed them Barabbas, and deliuered Iefus when he had fcouiged him, that he might be crucified.

16 Then the fouldiers led him awaye into the hall, which is the * commune hall, and called together the whole band,

17 And clad him with purple, and platted a crowne of thornes, & put it about his head,

18 And began to falute him, faying, Haile, King of the Lewes.

19 And they fmote him on the head with a 'reede, and spat vpon him, and bowed the knees, or did him reuerence.

20 And when they had mocked him, they toke the purple of him, and put his owne clothes on him, and led him out to cruci- ifie him.

21 * And they * compelled one that passed by, called Simon of Cyrene (which came out of the country, and was father of Alexander and Rufus) to bear his cross.

22 * And they brought him to a place named Golgotha, which is by interpretation, the place of a dead man's skull.

23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrror: but he received it not.

crucified with him, reuiled him.

33 Now when y sixh houre was come, dar- kenes arose ouer all the land vntil the ninth houre.

34 And at the ninth houre Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, saying, *Eloi, Eloi, lam- ma-sabachthani which is by interpreta- cion, My God, my God, why hast thou for- saken me?

35 And some of them that stode by, when they heard it, said, Beholde, he calleth Elias.

36 And one ran, and filled a sponge sul of vineger, and put it on a reede, and gaue him to drinke, saying, Let him alone: let vs se if Elias wil come and take him downe.

37 And Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, and gaue vp the goft.

38 And the vaile of the Temple was rent in twaine, from the top to the bottome.

39 Now when the Centurion, which sto- de ouer against him, sawe that he thus cry- ing gaue vp the goft, he said, Truely this man was the Sonne of God.

40 There were also women, which behelde a farreof, among whom was Marie Magda- lene, and Marie (the mother of James the lesse, and of Ioses) and Salome.

41 Which also when he was in Galile, followed him and ministred vnto him, and many other women which came vp with him vnto Ierusalem.

42 And now whe night was come (beca- se it was the day of the preparacion that is before the Sabbath)

43 Ioseph of Arimathea, an honorable Counsellour, which also looked for king- dome of God, came, & went in boldly vnto Pilate, and asked the bodie of Iesus.

44 And Pilate marueiled, if he were alrea- die dead, and called vnto him the Cen- turion, and asked of him whether he had bene any while dead.

45 And whe he knew the truth of the Cen- turion, he gaue the bodie to Ioseph,

That thou mighreft acknowledge the cer teintie of thofe things, whereof thou haft bene instructed.

IN the time of Herode King of Judea, there was a certeine Priest named Za- charias, of the courfe of Abia: & his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elifabet.

Bothe were i uift before God, and walked in all the commandements and s ordinan- ces of the Lord, without reprofe.

And thei had no childe, becaufe that Eli- fabet was barren: & bothe were wel stricke in age.

And it came to paffe, as he executed the Priests office before God, as his courfe ca- me in order,

According to the custome of the Priests office, his lot was to burne incense, when he went into the Temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were without in prayer, while the incen- fe was burning.

11 Then appeared vnto him an Angel of the Lord standing at the right fide of the al- var of incense.

12 And when Zacharias fawe him, he was troubled, and feare fel vponhim.

13 But the Angel faid vnto him, Feare not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elifabet fhall beare thee a fonne, and thou shalt call his name s John.

14 And thou fhalt haue ioye and gladnes, & many fhall reioyce at his birth.

15 For he fhall be great in the fight of the Lord, & fhall neither drinke wine, nor ftróng drinke: and he fhall be filled with the holie Goft, euen from his mothers wombe.

16 And many of the children of Israel fhall he turne to their Lord God.

17 For he fhall go before him in the fpi- rit & power of Elias, to turne the hearts of the fathers to y children, & the difobediét to the wifome of the luft men, to make readie a people prepared for the Lord.

18 Then, Zacharias faid vnto the Angel, Whereby fhall I knowe this for I am an olde man, and my wife is of a great age.

19 And the Angel answered, and faid vnto him, I am Gabriel that ftand in the pre- fence of God, and am fent to fpeake vnto thee, & to fhewe thee thefe good tidings.

20 And beholde, thou fhalt be donne, and not be able to fpeake, vntil the day that thefe things be done, becaufe thou bele- uedft not my wordes, which fhall be fulfilled in their feafon.

21 Now the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he taried fo long in the Temple.

Thus bathe the Lord dealt with me, in the dayes wherein he looked on me, to take from me my rebuke among men.

And in the fixt moneth, the Angel Ga- briel was fent frô God vnto a citie of Ga- lile, named Nazaret,

To a virgine affianced to a man whose name was Ioseph, of the houfe of Dauid, & the virgins name was Marie.

And the Angel went in vnto her, & faid, 'Haile thou that art' freely beloued: y Lord is with thee: bleffed art thou amôg wome.

And when she fiwe him, she was troubled at his faying, & thought what maner of fa- lutacion that fshulde be.

And the Angel answered, and faid vnto her, The holie Goſt fhall cal- led barren.

For with God fhall nothing be vnpoſſi- ble.

Then Marie faid, Beholde, the ſeruant of the Lord: be it vnto me according to thy worde. So the Angel departed from her.

And Marie aroſe in thoſe dayes, and went into the hill country

And Marie abode with her about thre moneths: after, she returned to her owne houfe.

Now Elifabets time was fulfilled, that she fshulde be deliuered, and she broght forth a fonne.

And her neighbours, & coufins heard tel how the Lord had shewed his great mer- cie vpon her, and they reioyced with her.

And it was fo that on the eight day they came to circumcife the babe, & called him Zacharias, after the Name of his father.

But his mother answered, and said, Not so, but he shall be called John.

And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred, y is named with this Name.

Then they made signes to his father, how he wolde haue him called.

So he asked for writing tables, & wrote, saying, His name is John, and they marvelled all.

And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue laboured, and he spake & praised God.

Then feare came on all them that dwelt nere unto them, and all these wordes were noised abroad throughout all the hill country

7 And she broght for the her first begorten fonne, & wrapped him in fwading clothes and laid him in a cratche, because there was no rowme for them in the ynn.

8 And there were in the fame coftrey shepherds, abiding in the field, and keping watch by night because of their flecke.

9 And lo, the Angel of the Lord came vp-on them, and the glorie of the Lord fnone about them, and they were fore afraid.

10 Then the Angel laid vnto them, Be not afraid: for oeholde, I bring you tidings of great ioye, that fhaibe to all the people:

11 That is, that vnto you is borne this way in the citie of Dauid, a Sauour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this fhaibe a figne to you, Ye fhai finde y childe twaded, & laid in a cratch.

13 And straight was there was with the Angel a multitude of hca-ence fouldiers, praying God, and saying,

14 Glorie be to God in the high heanens, and peace in earth, & towards men good wil.

15 And it came to paffe when the Angels were gone away from them into heauen, that y shepherds faid one to another, Let vs go the vnto Beth-lehe n, and fe this thig that is come to paffe, which the Lord hathe shewed vnto vs.

16 So they came with hafte, & founde bothe Marie and Iofeph, and the babe laid in the cratch.

17 And whin they had fene it, they published abroue the thing, which was tolde them of mat childe.

18 And all that heard it, wofred at y things which were tolde them of the shepherds.

19 But Marie kept all thofe sayings & pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God, for all that they had heard & fene, as it was fpoken vnto them.

21 And whe the eight daies were accomplished, that they fshulde circumcife the childe, his name was then called * I B S V 2, which was named of the Angel, before he was conciued in the wombe.

22 *And when the dayes of her purificatio after the Law of Mofes were acfoplihed, they broght him to Ierufalem, to prefont him to the Lord.

beholde, there was a man ful of leprofe, and when he fawe

Iesus, he fel on his face, and befoght him, faying, Lord if thou wilt, thou canst make me cleane.

13 So he fretched forth his hand, & rouched him, faying, I wil, be thou cleane. And immediately the leprofe departed from him.

14 And he commanded him that he shulde tell it no man: but Go, faith he, and shewe thy self to the s Priest, and offer for thy clenfing, as Moses hath commanded, for a witnes vnto them.

15 But fo much more went there a fame abroad of him, and great multitudes came together to heare, and to be healed of him of their infirmities.

16 But he kept him self aparte in the wilderness, and prayed.

17 ¶ And it came to passe, on a certaine daye, as he was teaching, that the Pharisees & doctours of the Law came by, which were come out of euery towne of Galilee, and Iudea, and Ierusalem, & the power of the Lord was in him to heale them.

18 Then beholde, men brought a man lying in a bed, which was taken with a palfie, and they fought meanes to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they colde not finde by what way they might bring him in, becaufe of the preaffe, they went vp on the houfe, & let him downe through the tiling, bed & all, in the mddes before Iefus.

20 And when he fawe their faith, he faid vnto him, Man, thy 6 finnes are forgiuen thee.

21 Then the Scribes and the Pharifes begâ to thinke, faying, Who is this that fpea- keeth blafphemies: who can forgiue finnes, but God onelie?

22 But when Iefus perceiued their thoughts, he answered, and faid vnto them, What thinke ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is eafier to fay, Thy 1 finnes are forgiuen thee, or to fay, Rife and walke?

24 But that ye may knowe that the Sonne of man hathe autoritie to forgiue finnes in earth, (he faid vnto the ficke of the pal- fie) I fay to thee, Arife: take vp thy bed, & go to thine houfe.

25 And immediately he rofe vp before them, and toke vp he bed whereon he laie, and departed to his owne houfe, praifing God.

26 And they were all amafed, and praifed God, and were filled with feare, faying, Douteles we haue fene 'ftrange things to daye.

27 ¶ 9 And after that, he went forthe and fawe a Publicane named 'Leui, fitting at the receite of custome, & faid vnto him, Followe me.

1 And it came to paffe on the feconde Sabbath, a for the firft, that he went through the corne fields, and his disciples plucked the eares of corne, and did eate, and rubbe them in fhoie hands.

2 And certeine of the Pharises laid vnto them, Why do ye that which is not law- ful to do on the Sabbath dayes?

3 Then Iesus answered them, & laid, "Ha- ue ye not red this, that Daud did when he him felf was an hungred, & they which were with him,

4 How he went into the houle of God, and toke, and ate the fhewe bread, & gaue also to them which were with him, which was not lawful to eate, but for the Prifeftes onely?

5 And he laid vnto them, The Sonne of man is Lord also of the Sabbath day.

6 ¶ It came to passe also on another Sabbath, that he entred into the Synagogue & taught, and there was a man, whose right hand was dried vp.

7 And the Scribes and Pharises watched him, whether he wolde heale on the Sabbath day, that they might finde an accusation against him.

8 But he knewe their thoughts, and laid to the man which had the withered hand, Arise, & stand vp in the middes. And he arose, and stood vp.

9 Then laid Iesus vnto thes, I wil aske you a question, Whether is it lawful on the Sabbath dayes to do good, or to do euill to saue life, or to destroye it?

10 And he behelde them all in compassion, & laid vnto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he did so, and his hand was restored againe, as whole as the other.

11 Then they were filled full of madnes, & commued one with another, what they might do to Iesus.

12 ¶ And it came to passe in those dayes, ¶ he went into a mountaine to pray, & spent the night in prayer to God.

10 For he commanded the foule fpirit to come out of the ma:
(for oft times he had caught him: therefore he was bound with chaines, and kept in fetters: but he brake the bandes, and was l caryed of the deuil into wildetneffes.)

11 Then Iefus allied him, faying, What is thy name? And he faid, m Legion, becaufe many deuils were entred into him.

12 And they befoght him, that he wolde not commande them to go out into the n diepe.

13 And there was there by, an herd of many fwine, feding on an hil, and the deuil be- foght him, that he wolde fuffre the to 14 Then went the deuils out of the man, and entred into the fwine: and the herd was caryed with violence from a ftepe downe place into the lake, and was choked.

15 When the herdmen fawe what was do- ne, they fled: and when they were depar- ted, they tolde it in the citie and in the countrey.

16 Then they came out to fe what was done, and came to Iefus, & founde the man, out of whome the deuils were departed, fcting at the fete of Iefus, clothed, & in his tight minde: and they were afraid.

17 They also which fawed it, tolde them by what meanes he that was possessed with the deuill, was healed.

18 Then the whole multitude of the countrey about the Gadarenes, befoght him, y he wolde departe from them: for they were taken with a great feare: and he went into the ship, and returned.

19 Then the man, out of whome the deuils were departed, befoght him that he might be with him: but Iesus sent him away, saying,

20 *Returne into thine owne house, and shewe what great things God hath done to thee. So he went his way, and preached through out all y^e citie, what great things Iesus had done vnto him.

21 And it came to passe when Iesus was come againe, that y^e people receiued him: for they all waited for him.

22 And beholde, there came a man named Iairus, and he was the ruler of the Synagogue, who fel downe at Iesus feete, and befoght him that he wolde come into his house.

23 For he had but a daughter onely, about twelve yeres of age, & she laye a dying (& as he went, the people thronged him.

substance vpon physicians, and coulde not be healed of any:

25 When he came behinde him, he touched the t hem of his garment, and immediatly her yssue of blood stanchd.

26 Then Iesus said, Who is it that hath touched me? When euery man denyed, Peter said & they that were with him, Master, the multitude thrust thee, & tread on thee, and sayest y, Who hath touched me?

27 And Iesus said, Some one hath touched me: for I perceiue that vertue is gone out of me.

28 When the woman sawe that he was not hid, he came trembling, & fel downe before him, & tolde him before all y people, for what cause he had touched him, and how he was healed immediatly.

29 And he said vnto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole: go in peace.)

30 While he yet spake, there came one from the ruler of the Synagogues house, which said to him, Thy daughter is dead: dilaie- ye not the Master.

31 When Iesus heard it, he answered t him, saying, Feare not: beleue onely, & she shall be made whole.

32 And when he went into the house, he found no man to go in with him, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father & mo- ther of the maide.

33 And all wept, and forowd for her: but he faid, Wepe not:

¶*Now Herode the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he doubted, because that it was faid of fome, that John was rifen againe from the dead:

8 And of fome, that Elias had appeared: & of fome, that one of the olde Prophetes was rifen againe.

9 Then Herode faid, John haue I behea- ded: who then is this of whome I heare fuche things and he defired to fe him.

10 ¶*And whê the Apoftles returned, they tolde him what great things they had do- ne. Then he toke them, & went afide into a folitarie place, here to the citie called Bethfaida.

11 But when the people knewe it, they fol- lowed him; and he receiued them, & fpa- ke vnto them of the kingdome of God, & healed them that had nede to be healed.

12 *And whê the day began to weare away, the twelue came, and faid vnto him, Send the people away, that they may go into the townes and villages rounde about, & lodge, and get meat: for we are here in a defert place.

13 But he faid vnto them, 4 Giue ye them to eat. And they faid, We haue no mo but fiue loaues & two fifhes, except we fhulde go and bye meat for all this people.

14 For they were about fiue thoufand men. Then he faid to his disciples, Caufe them to fit downe by fifties in a companie.

15 And they did fo, and caufed all to fit downe.

16 Then he toke the fiue loaues, and the two fifhes, and looked vp to heauen, and blef- fed them, and brake, and gaue to the difci- ples, to fet before the people.

17 So they did all eat, and were fatiffied: & there was také vp of that remained to the, twelue baskets ful of broken meat.

18 ¶*And it came to paffe as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him, and he afked the, faying, Whome fay the peo- ple that I am?

19 They answered, and faid, John Baprift: and others fay, Elias: & fome fay, that one of the olde Prophetes is rifen againe.

20 And he faid vnto them, But whome fay ye that I am? Peter answered, & faid, The Chrif of God.

21 And he warned, and commanded them, that they fhulde tell that to no man,

22 Saying, The Sonne of man muft fuffre

many things, and be reproued of the Elders, & of the hie Priests and Scribes, and be flaine, and the thirde day rife againe.

23 ¶*And he faid to them all, If any man wil come after me, let him denye him felf, and take vp his croffe t daily, and followe me.

24 For whofoeuer wil faue his life, fhall lofe it: and whofoeuer fhall lofe his life for my fake, the fame fhall faue it.

25 For whatauafrageth it a man, if he winne the whole worlde, and deftioye him felf, or lofe him felf?

26 *For whofoeuer fhall be afhamed of me, and of my wordes, of him fhall the Sonne of man be afhamed, when he fhall come in his glorie, and in the glorie of the Father, and of the holie Angels.

27 *And I tell you of a furetie, there be fo- me ftanding here, which fhall not tafte of death, til they haue fene the kingdome of God.

28 *And it came to paffe about an eight dayes after thofe wordes, that he toke Peter, & John, and James, and went vp into a mountaine to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the facion of his countenance was changed, & his garment was white and glifted.

30 And beholde, two men talked with him, which were Mofes and Elias,

31 Which appeared in glorie, and tolde of his departing, which he fhulde accöplift at Ierufalem.

32 But Peter and they that were with him, were heauie with flepe, and when they awooke, they fawe his glorie, and the two men ftanding with him.

33 And it came to paffe, as they departed from him, Peter faid vnto Iefus, Mafter, it is good for vs to be here: let vs therefore make thre tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Mofes, and one for Elias, and wift not what he faid.

34 While he thus fpake, there came a clou- de & ouerfhadowed them, & they feared when thefe were entring into the cloude.

35 *And there came a voyce out of the cloude, faying, This is my beloued Sone, heare him.

36 And when the voyce was paft, Iefus was founde alone: and they kept it clofe, and folde no man in thofe dayes any of thofe things which they had fene.

37 ¶And it came to paffe on the next day, as they came downe from the mountaine, muche people met him.

29 But he willing to "niffifie him felf, faid vnto Iefus, Who is then my neighbour?

30 And Iefus answered, and faid, A certeine man went downe from Ierufalem to Iericho, and fell among theues, and they robbed him of his rayment, and wounded him, & departed, leauing him halfe dead.

31 And by chance there came downe a certeine Priest that fame way, and when he fawe him, he paffed by on the other fide.

32 And likewife alfo a Leuite, when he was come nere to the place, went and loked to him, and paffed by on the other fide.

33 Then a certeine Samaritan, as he iourneyed, came nere vnto him, and when he fawe him, he had compafion on him,

34 And went to him, & bounde vp his woundes, and powred in oyle and wine, and put him on his owne beaft, and brought him to an ynne, and made prouifion for him.

35 And on the morowe when he departed, he toke out two pence, and gaue them to the hofte, and faid vnto him, Take care of him, and whaffoeuer thou fpendedt more, when I come againe, I wil recompens thee.

36 Which now of thefe thre, thinkeft thou, was neighbour vnto him that fell among the theues?

37 And he faid, He that fhewed mercie on him. Then faid Iefus vnto him, Go, and do thou likewife.

38 Now it came to paffe as they wêt, that he entred into a certeine towne, and a certeine woman named Martha, it ceiued him into her houfe.

39 And fhe had a fifter called Marie, which alfo fate at Iefus fete, and heard his preaching.

40 But Martha was combied about muche feruing, and came to him, & faid, Mafter, doeft thou not care that my fifter hath left me to ferue alone? bid her therefore, that fhe helpe me.

41 And Iefus answered, and faid vnto her, Martha, Martha, thou careft, & art troubled about manie things.

42 But one thing is nedeful, Marie hath chofen the good parte, which shal not be taken away from her.

1 Now the meane time, there gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, so that they trode one another: & he began to say vnto his disciples first, Take heed to your selues of the leauen of the Pharises, which is hypocrisie.

2 "For there is nothing couered, that shall not be reueiled: neither hid, that shall not be knowen.

3 Wherefore whatsoever ye haue spoken in darkenes, it shalbe heard in the light: and that which ye haue spoken in the eare, in secret places, shalbe preached on the houses.

4 "And I say vnto you, my friends, be not afraid of them that kill the bodie, and after that are not able to do any more.

5 But I wil forewarne you, whome ye shall feare: feare him which after he hath killed, hath power to cast vnto he: yea, I say vnto you, him feare.

6 Are not sue sparowes bought for two far-things, & yet not one of them is forgotne before God?

7 Yea, and all the heeres of your head are nombred: feare not therefore: ye are more of value then many sparowes.

8 "Also I say vnto you, Whosoeuer shall confesse me before men, him shall the Sonne of man confesse also before the Angels of God.

9 But he that shall deny me before men, shalbe denied before the Angels of God.

10 And whosoeuer shall speake a worde against the Sonne of man, it shalbe for-guen him: but vnto him that shall blaspheme the holie Goet, it shall not be for-guen.

21 So is he that garhereth riches to him self, and is not tiche in God.

22 And he spake vnto his disciples, There- fore I say vnto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shal eat: nether for your bodie, what ye shal put on.

23 The life is more then meat: and the bo- die more then the raiment.

24 a Consider the rauens: for they nether sowe nor reape: which nether haue store house nor barne, & yet God fedeth them: how muche more are ye better the foules?

25 And which of you with taking thought, can adde to his stature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do the least thing, why take ye thought for the rem- nant?

27 b Consider the lilies how they grow: they labour not, nether spin they: yet I say vnto you, y Solomon him self in all his royaltie was not clothed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the graffe which is to day in the field, & to morow is cast into the oué, how muche more wil be clothe you, & ye of little faith?

29 Therefore aske not what ye shal eat, or what ye shal drinke, nether stand in doute.

30 For all suche things the people of the worlde seke for: and your Father knoweth that ye haue nede of these things.

31 But rather seke ye after the kingdom of God, & all these things shaibe minstred vnto you.

32 Feare not, little flocke: for it is your Fa- thers pleasure, to giue you the kingdome.

33 ¶ Sel that ye haue, and giue almes:ma- ke you bagges, which waxe not olde, a treasure that can neuer faile in heauen, where no these commeth, nether moth corrupreth.

37 Blessed are those seruants, whome the Lord when he cometh shal finde waking: verely I say vnto you, he wil a girde him self about, and make them to sit downe at table, and wil come forth, & serue them.

38 And if he come in the seconde watche, or come in the thirde watche, & shal finde them so, blessed are those seruants.

39 Now vnderstande this, that if the good man of y house had known at what houre the these wolde haue come, he wolde haue watched, and wolde not haue suffered his house to be digged through.

40 Be ye also prepared therefore: for the Sonne of man wil come at an houre when ye thinke not.

41 Then Peter said vnto him, Master, tell us this parable vnto vs, or euen to all?

42 And the Lord said, Who is a faithful stewarde, & wise, whome the master shal make ruler ouer his housholde, to giue them their portion of meat in season?

43 Blessed what seruant, whome his master when he cometh, shal finde so doing.

44 Of a trueth I say vnto you, that he wil make him ruler ouer all that he hathe.

45 But if that seruant say in his heart, My master doeth deferne his comming, and shal beginne to smite the seruants, and maidens, and to eat, and drinke, and to be drunken,

46 The master of that seruant wil come in a day whse he thinketh not, & at an houre whse he is not ware of, and wil cut him of, & gi- ue him his portion with the vnbeleuers.

47 ¶ And that seruant that knewe his ma- sters wil, and prepared not him self, nether did according to his wil, shaibe beate with manne stripes.

48 But he that knewe it not, and yet did co- mit things worthie of stripes, shaibe bea- ten with sewe stripes: for vnto whome

CHAP. XIII.

1 The cruelties of Pilate. 2 We ogle not to condemn all to be wicked men which suffire. 3 Christ exhorteth to repentance. 4 He healeth the crooked woman. 5 Answereth to the master of the Synagogue. 6 By divers similitudes he declareth what the kingdoms of God is. 7 Also that the number of them which shall be famed, is small. 8 Finally he sheweth that no worldless policies or forces can let the works and counsel of God.

1 There were certeine men present at the same season, that shewed him of Galileas, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their owne sacrifices.

2 And Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Suppose ye, y these Galileans were greater sinners then all the other Galileans, because they have suffered suche things?

3 I tell you, nay: but except ye amende your liues, ye shal all likewise perish.

4 Or think you that those eighteine, vpon whome the towre in Siloam fel, & slewe them, were sinners aboue all men that dwell in Ierusalem?

5 I tell you, nay: but except ye amede your liues, ye all shal likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable, A certeine ma had a figge tre planted in his vineyarde: and he came and foght frute thereon, and founde none.

7 Then said he to the dresser of his vineyarde, Beholde, this three yeres haue I come and foght frute of this figge tre, and finde none: cut it downe: why kepeth it a also the ground baren?

8 And he answered, & said vnto him, Lord, let it alone this yere also, til I digge round about it, and dongue it.

9 And if it bears frute, wel: if not, the after thou shalt cut it downe.

10 ¶ And he taught in one of the Synagogues on the Sabbath day.

11 And beholde, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmite eighteine yeres, h Whome Satan had broken with a disease, as the spirit of that spirit, that maketh a man conceive.

& was bowed together, and colde not lift vp herself in anie wise.

12 When Iesus sawe her, he called her to him, and said to her, Woman, thou art lofed from thy disease.

13 And he laid his hands on her, and immediately she was made straight againe, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the Synagogue answered with indignation because that Iesus had healed on the Sabbath day, & said vnto the people, There are six dayes in which men oght to worke: in the therefore come and he healed, and not on the Sabbath day.

15 Then answered him the Lord, and said, Hypocrite, doeth not eithe one of you on the Sabbath day lose his oxe or his asse if o the shall, & lead him away to y water?

16 And oght not this daughter of Abraha, whome Sata had bounde, lo, eighteine yeres, he lofed from this bonde on the Sabbath day?

17 And when he said these things, all his aduersaries were ashamed: but all the people rejoyed at all the excellent things, that were done by him.

18 ¶ Then said he, What is the kingdoms of God like? or whereto shal I compare it?

19 It is like a graine of mustarde feed, which a man toke and sowed in his garden, and it grewe, and waxed a great tre, and the foules of the heauen made nestes in the branches thereof.

20 ¶ And againe he said, Whereunto shal I liken the kingdoms of God?

21 It is like leauen, which a woma toke, and hid in the peckes of floute, til all was leauened.

22 ¶ And he went through all cities and townes, teaching, & journeying towards Ierusalem.

23 Then said one vnto him, Lord, are there sewe y shalbe saue:
And he said vnto the,

24 Striue to entre in at the straite gate: for manie, I say vnto you, wil seke to enter in, and shal not be able.

1 And it came to passe that whé he was entred into the house of one of the chief Pharises on the Sabbath day, to "eat bread, they watched him.

2 And beholde, there was a certeine ma be- fore him, which had the dropsie.

3 Then Iesus answering, spake vnto the ex- poulders of the Law, and Pharises, saying, Is it lawful to heale on the Sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. Then he toke him, and healed him, and let him go,

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shal haue an asse, or an oxe fallen into a pit, and wil not straightway pull him out on the Sabbath day?

6 And they colde not answer him againe to those things.

7 He spake also a parable to the ghests, when he marked how they chose out the chief rouses, and said vnto them,

8 "When thou shalt be bidden of anie ma to a weddig, set not thy self downe in the chiefest place, lest a more honorable man then thou, be bidden of him,

9 And he that bade bothe him and thee, co- me, and say to thee, Giue this man rounge, and thou then beginne with shame to take the lowest rounge.

10 "But whe y art bidden, go & sit downe in the lowest rounge, that when he that bade thee, cometh, he may say vnto thee, Friend, sit vp hier: the shalt thou haue worship in the presence of them that sit at table with thee.

11 "For whosoeuer exalteth him self, shal- be broght low, and he that humbleth him self, shalbe exalted.

12 The said he also to him that had bid den him, "When thou makest a dyner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, nether thy kinsemen, nor the riche neighbours, lest they also bid thee againe, and a recompense be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poore, the maimed, the lame, & the blind,

14 And thou shalt be blessed, because they ca not recompense thee: for thou shalt be re- compened at the resurrection of the iuste.

15 Now whe one of them that fate at ta- ble, heard these things, he said vnto him, Blessed is he that eateth bread in the king- dome of God.

16 Then said he to him, "A certeine man made a great supper, and bade manie,

17 And sent his seruant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come: for all things are now ready.

18 But they all with one minde begs to ma- ke excuse: The first said vnto him, I haue boght a ferme, and I must nedes go out & se it: I pray thee haue me excused.

19 And another said, I haue boght siue yo- ke of oxen, and I go to proue them: I pray thee, haue me excused.

20 And another said, I haue married a wife, and therefore I can not come.

21 So y seruant returned, & shewed his ma- ster these things.
The was the good ma of the house angrie, & said to his seruat,
"Go out quickly into y places & streets of the citie, and bring in hither the poore, & the maimed, and the halt, and the blinde.

22 And the seruant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast comaded, & yet there is roume.

23 Then the master said to the seruant, Go out into the "hie wayes, and hedges, and "compel them to come in, that mine house may be filled.

24 For I say vnto you, that none of those men which were bidden, shal taste of my supper.

25 Now there went great multitudes with him, and he turned and said vnto them,

26 If anie man come to me, and a hate not his father, and mother, & wife, & children, and brethren, and sisters: yea, and his owne life also, he can not be my disciple.

10 Likewise I say vnto you, there is ioye in the presence of the Angels of God, for one sinner that conuertereth.

11 ¶ He said moreover, A certain man had two sonnes.

12 And the yonger of the said to his father, Father, giue me the c portion of the goods that falleth to me. So he deuised vnto them he should.

13 So not long after, when the yonger sonne had gathered all together, he took his iourney into a faire country, and there he wasted his goods with idle fellows.

14 Now when he had spent all, there arose a great dearth throughout that land, and he began to be in necessity.

15 Then he went and came to a citizen of that country, and he lent him to his fellowes, to feede swine.

16 And he wolde faine haue filled his belly with y husks, that the swine are: but no man gaue them him.

17 Then he came to him self, and said, How manie hired seruants at my fathers haue bread ynough, and I dye for hunger?

18 I wil rife and go to my father, and say vnto him, Father, I haue finned against f heauen, and before thee,

19 And am no more worthie to be called thy sone: make me as one of thy hired seruats.

20 So he arofe and came to his father, and whe he was yet a great way of, his father sawe him, and had compaffion, and ran & fel on his necke, and killed him.

21 And the sonne said vnto him, b Father, I haue finned against heauen, and before thee, and am no more worthie to be called thy sonne.

22 Then the father said to his seruants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feete, 23 And bring the fat calf, and kil him, and let vseat, and be merie.

24 For this my sonne was dead, and is aliue again: and he was lost, but he is founde. And they began to be merie.

25 Now the Elder brother was in the field, and when he came and drewne nere to the houle, he heard melodie, and dancing,

26 And called one of his seruants, & asked what those things ment.

27 And he said vnto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fattened calfe, because he hath receiued him faine and founde.

28 Then he was angrie, & wolde not go in therefore came his father out and entreated him.

29 But he answered & said to his father, Lo these many yeres haue I done thee seruice, nether brake I at any time thy commandement, & yet thou neuer gauest me a kid that I might make merie with my friends.

17 Verely I say vnto you, whofocuer recei- ueth not the kingdome of God as i a ba- be, he shal not enter therein.

18 *The a certeine ruler asked him, saying, Good master, what oght I to do, to inheri- te eternal life?

19 And Iesus said vnto him, Why calleft thou me good none is good, saue one, euen God.

20 Thou knowest the commandements, *Thou shalt not commit adulterie: Thou shalt not kil: Thou shalt not steale: Thou shalt not beare false witness: Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these haue I kept from my youth.

22 Now whe Iesus heard that, he said vnto him, Yet lackeft thou one thing. Sel all y euer thou hast, & distribute vnto the poo- re, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come, folowe me.

23 But when he heard those things, he was verie heaueie: for he was marucilous riche.

24 And when Iesus sawe him forowful, he said, With what difficultie shal they that haue riches, entre into the kingdome of God?

25 Surely it is easier for a "camel to go through a nedies eye, then for a riche man to entre into the kingdome of God.

26 Then said they that heard it, And who then can be saued?

3 * And Pilate afted him, saying, Art thou the King of the Iewes? And he answered him, and faid, Thou faift it.

4 Then faid Pilate to the hie Priests, and to the people, I finde no faute in this man.

5 But they were the more fierce, saying, He moueth the people, teaching through out all Iudea, beginning at Galile, euen to this place.

6 Now when Pilate heard of Galile, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And when he knewe that he was of Herodes iurisdiction, he sent him to Herode, which was also at Ierusalem in those daies.

8 And when Herode sawe Iesus, he was exceedingly glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him, and trusted to have seen some signe done by him.

9 Then questioned he with him of many things: but he answered him nothing.

10 The high Priests also and Scribes stood forth and accused him vehemently.

11 And Herode with his men of warre, despised him, and mocked him, and arrayed him in white, and sent him againe to Pilate.

12 * And the same daye Pilate and Herode were made friends together: for before they were enemies one to another.

13 ¶ Then Pilate called together the hie Priefts, and the rulers, to him, becau- fe he is the fa- uour that is promised.

13 ¶ And beholde, two of them went that fame day to a towne which was from Ieru- falem about e the score fuzions, called Emmaus.

14 And they d talked together of all these things that were done.

15 And it came to paffe, as they communed together, and reasoned, that Iefus him self drewe nere, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were holden, that they colde not knowe him.

17 And he said vnto them, What maner of communications are these that ye haue one to another as ye walke, and are sad?

18 And the one (named Cleopas) answered and said vnto him, Art thou onely a fstranger in Ierufalem, & hast not known the things which are come to paffe therein in these dayes?

19 And he said vnto them, What things? And they said vnto him, Of Iefus of Nazaret, which was a Prophet, mightie in dede and in worde before God, and all the people,

20 And how the hie Priests, and our rulers deliuered him to be condemned to death, and haue crucified him.

21 But we scruided that it had bene he that fholde haue deliuered Israel, and as touching all these things, to day is the third day, that they were done.

22 Yea, and certeine women among vs made vs aftonied, which came early vnto the sepulchre.

23 And whc they founde not his bodie, they came, saying, that they had also fene a vffio of Angels, which said that he was aliue.

24 Therefore certeine of them which were with vs, went to the sepulchre, and founde it euen fo as the women had said, but him they faw not.

25 Then he said vnto them, b O fooles and flowe of heart to beleue all that the Prophetes haue spoken, 26 Oght not Christ to haue fuffred these things, and to enter into his glorie?

27 And he began at Mofes, & at all the Prophetes, and interpreted vnto them in all the Scriptures the things which were writ- tes of him.

28 And they drewe nere vnto the towne, which they went to,
but he b made as thogh he wolde haue gone further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with vs. for it is towards night, and the day is farre spent. So he went in to tarie with them.

30 And it came to paffe, as he fate at table with them, he toke the bread, and gaue thanks, and brake it, and gaue it to them.

31 The their eyes were opened, & they knewe him; but he was taken out of their fight.

32 And they said betwene them felues, Did not our hearts burne within vs, while he talked with vs by the way, and when he opened to vs the Scriptures?

33 And they rose vp the fame houre, and returned to Ierufalem, and founde the Eleuen gathered together, and them that were
with them,

34 Which said, The Lord is risen in dede, and hathe appeared to Simon.

35 Then they tolde what things were done in the way, and how he was known of the in b breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they spake these things, Iefus him self stode in the middles of them, and said vnto them, Peace be to you.

37 But they were abafhed & afraid, suppo- sing that they had fene a spirit.

38 Then he said vnto them, Why are ye troubled? and wherefore do doutes arise in your hearts?

39 Beholde mine hands and my fete: for it is I my self: handle me, and se: for a spirit hathe not flesh & bones, as ye se me haue.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and fete.

41 And while they yet beleued not for ioye, and wondered, he said vnto them, Haue ye here any meat?

42 And they gaue him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honie combe, 43 And he toke it, & did eat before them.

44 And he said vnto them, These are the wordes, which I spake vnto you while I was yet with you, that all must be fulfilled which are written of me in the Law of Moses, and in the Prophetes, and in the Psalmes.

45 Then opened he their vnderfanding, that they might vnderfand the Scriptures,

46 And said vnto them, Thus is it written, and thus it behoued Christ to suffre, & to rise againe from the dead the thirde day, 47 And that repentance, and remission of sinnes fholde be preached in his Name a- mong all nacions, beginning at Ierufalem.

48 Now ye are witnesses of these things.

49 And beholde, I will send the 'promes of my Father vpo you;

The fame was b in the beginning & God.

All things were made by it, & without it was made nothing that was made.

In it was d life, and the life was the e light of men.

And the light shyneth in f y darkenes, & the darkenes comprehended it not.

¶ There was a man fent frô God, whofe name was Iohn.

The fame came for a witnes, to beare wit- nes of the light, that all mê through him might beleue.

He was not that light, but was fent to bea- re witnes of the light.

That was the true light, which lighteth euerie man that 'cometh into the worlde.

He was in the worlde, and the worlde was * made by him: &
the worlde s knewe him not.

He came vnto h his owne, and his owne receiued him not.

But as many as receiued him, to them he gaue power to be the fonnes of God, enen to them that beleue in his Name,

Which are borne not of blood, nor of the wil of the flefh, nor ¶ Iohn bare witnes of him, & cryed, fay- ing, This was he of whome I faid, He that cometh after me, is preferred before me:

for he was before me.

And of his fulnes haue all we receiued, and grace for grace.

For the Lawe was giuen by Moses, but grace and trueth came by Iefus Chrif.

18 *No man hath fene God at any time: the onely begotten Sonne, which is in the = bofome of the Father, he hath * decla- red him.

19 ¶ Then this is the recorde of Iohn, whe the Iewes fent Priests and Leuites from Ierufalem, to afke him, Who art thou?

20 And he confeffed and denyed not, and faid plainely, I * am not the Chrif.

21 And they afked him, What thê? Art thou Elias? And he faid, I am not. Art thou the Prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then faid they vnto him, Who art thou that we may giue an answer to them that fent vs? what faift thou of thy felf?

23 He faid, I * am the voyce of him that cryeth in the wilderness, Make ftraight the way of y Lord, as faid the Prophet Efaias.

24 Now they which were fent, were of the Pharifes.

25 And they afked him, and faid vnto him, Why baptizeft thou then, if thou be not the Chrif, nether Elias, nor the Prophet?

26 Iohn answered them, faying, I baptize with water: but there is one among you, whome ye knowe not.

27 *He it is that commeth after me, which is preferred before me, whose fhoe latchet I am not worthie to vnloose.

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyonde Iordan, where Iohn did baptize.

29 ¶ The next day Iohn feeth Iesus coming vnto him, and faith, Beholde the lambe of God, which taketh away the p sinne of the worlde.

37 And the two difciples heard him fpeake, and followed Iefus.

38 Then Iefus turned about, and fawe them follow, & faid vnto them, What feke ye? And they faid vnto him, Rabbi (which is to fay by interpretation, Mafter) where dwelleft thou?

39 He faid vnto them, Come, and fe. They came and fawe where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth houre.

40 Andrewe, Simô Peters brother, was one of the two which had heard it of Iohn, & that followed him.

43 ¶ The day following, Iefus wolde go into Galile, and founde Philippe, and laid vnto him, Follow me.

44 Now Philippe was of Bethfaida, the citie of Andrewe and Peter.

45 Philippe founde Nathanael, and laid vnto him, We haue founde him, of whome Mofes did write in the Law, and the Prophet, Iefus of Nazaret the sonne of Ioseph.

46 Then Nathanael laid vnto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazaret? Philippe laid to him, Come, and se.

47 Iefus sawe Nathanael coming to him, & laid of him, Beholde, in dede an Ifaelite, in whome is no guile.

48 Nathanael laid vnto him, Whêce knewft thou me: Iefus answered, & laid vnto him, Before that Philippe called thee, whê thou wast vnder the higge tre, I sawe thee.

49 Nathanael answered, & laid vnto him, Rabbi, thou art the Sonne of God: thou art the King of Ifrael.

50 Iefus answered, and laid vnto him, Because I laid vnto thee, I sawe thee vnder the higge tre, beleueft thou thou shalt fe greater things then thefe.

51 And he laid vnto him, Verely, verely, I fay vnto you, hereafter shal ye fe heauen open, & the Angels of God afcending, and descending vpon the Sonne of man.

1 And the thirde day, was there a mariage in Cana a towne of Galile, & the mother of Iefus was there.

2 And Iefus was called alfo, and his difciples vnto the mariage.

3 Now when the wine failed, the mother of Iefus laid vnto him,
They haue no wine.

4 Iefus laid vnto her, Woman, what haue I to do with thee?
mine houre is not yet come.

5 His mother laid vnto the feruants, Whatfoeur he faith vnto you, do it.

6 And there were fet there, fix waterpottes of ftone, after the maner of the purifying of the Iewes, containing two or three firkins a piece.

7 And Iefus laid vnto them, Fil the waterpottes with water.
Then they filled them vp to the beim.

8 Then he laid vnto them, Drawe out now & beare vnto the gouernour of the feaft. So they bare it.

9 Now whe the gouernour of the feaft had tafted the water that was made wine, (for he knew not whence it was: but feruats, which drewe the water, knew) the gouernour of the feaft called the bridegrome,

10 And laid vnto him, All men at the beginning fet for the good wine, and when men haue wel drunke, then that which is worfe: but thou haft kept backe the good wine vntil now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Iefus in Cana a towne of Galile, and fhewed for the his glorie: & his difciples beleued on him.

12 After fhe went downe into Capernafi, he and his mother, and his brethren, and his difciples: but they continued not manie dayes there.

13 For the Iewes Paffeouer was at hand. Therefore Iefus went vp to Ierufalem.

14 * And he founde in the Temple thofe that folde oxen, and fhepe, and doues, and changes of money, fitting there.

15 The he made a fcourage of fmale cordes, & draue them all out of the Temple with the fhepe, and oxen & powred out the chāgers money, and ouerthrewe the tables,

16 And laid vnto them that folde doues, Take thefe things hence: make not my Fathers houle, an houle of marchandife.

17 And his difciples remembred, that it was written, The zeale

18 Then answered the Iewes, and laid vnto him, What figne fheweft thou vnto vs, that thou doeft thefe things?

19 Iefus answered and laid vnto them, Destroye this temple, and in thre dayes I wil raife it vp againe.

CHAP. III.

Christ in fruiteth Nicodemus in the regeneration 1:10f faith 1st Of the loss of God towards the worlds. 2) The doilrene and baptisme of John, 2d And the muses that he heareth of Christ.

1 There was now a ma of y Pharises na- med Nicodemus, a ruler of y Iewes. 2 He came to Iefus by night, and said vnto him, Rabbi, we knowe that thou art a tea- cher come from God: for no man colde do these miracles that thou doest, except God were with him.

3 Iefus answered, and said vnto him, Vere- ly, verely I say vnto thee, except a man be borne againe, he can not a fe the b king- dome of God.

4 Nicodemus said vnto him, How can a man be borne which is olde? can he enter into his mothers wombe againe, and be borne?

5 Iefus answered, Verely, verely I say vnto thee, except that a man be borne of c wa- ter and 2d the Spirit, he can not enter into the kingdome of God.

6 That which is borne of the flesh, is flesh: & that that is borne of the Spirit, is spirit. 7 Marueile not that I said to thee, Ye must be borne againe.

8 The winde bloweth where it llisteth, & thou hearest the founde thereof, but canst not tel whence it cometh, and whether it goeth: so is euerie man that is borne of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered, and said vnto him, How can these things be?

10 Iefus answered, and said vnto him, Art thou a teacher of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 Verely, verely I say vnto thee, we spea- ke that we knowe, & testifie, that we haue fene: but ye reeceiue not our wines.

12 If when I tel you hearthlie things, ye be- leue not, how shulde ye beleue, if I shal tell you of heauenlie things?

13 For no man ascendeth vp to heauen, but he that hathe descended from heauen, the Sonne of man which is in heauen.

14 And as Moses list vp the serpent in the wildernes, so must the Sonne of man be list vp,

15 That whosoeuer beleueth in him, shulde not perish, but haue eternal life.

16 For God so loued the worlde, that he hathe giuen his onely begotten Sone, that whosoeuer beleueth in him, shulde not perish, but haue euerlasting life.

17 For God sent not his Sonne into the worlde, that he shulde condemne the worlde, but that the worlde through him might be faued.

18 He that beleueth in him, shal not be co- demned: but he that beleueth not, is condé ned already, because be beleueth not in y Name of the onely begotré Sone of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the worlde, & me loued darkens rather then light, because their dedes were euil.

20 For euerie man that euil doeth, hateth the light, nether commeth to light, lest his dedes shulde be reproued.

21 But he that doeth trueth, commeth to the light, that his dedes might be made manifest, that they are wrogle according to God.

22 After these things, came Iesus and his disciples into the land of Iudea, and there taried with them, and baptized.

23 And John also baptized in Enon besides Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 For John was not yet cast into prison.

25 There arose a question between Johns disciples & the Iewes, about purifying. 26 And they came vnto John, and said vnto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyonde Iordan, to whome thou barest witness, behold, he baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 John answered; & said, A man can receiue nothing, except it be giue him from heauē.

28 Ye your selues are my witnesses, that I said, I am not the Christ, but y I am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride, is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom which standeth and heareth him, reioyeth greatly, because of his bridegrooms voice. This my ioye therefore is fulfilled.

30 He must increase, but I must decrease. 31 He that is come from on high, is above all: he that is of the earth, is of the earth, and speaketh of the earth: he that is come from heauen, is aboue all.

32 And what he hathe sent and heard, that he restiseth: but no man receiueth his te- stimonie.

33 He that hathe receiued his testimonie, hathe sealed that God

A Fter that, there was a feaft of the Lewes, & Iefus wét vp to Ierufalem. And there is at Ierufalem by the place of the fiepe, a poole called in Ebrewe b Bethesda, hauing fue porches:

Which fignifieth the houfe of powring out, becaufe the wa- ter stone out by conduits.

In the which fay a great multitude of fic- ke folke, of blunde, halte, & withered, wai- ting for the mouing of the water.

For an Angel went downe at a certeine feafon into the poole, and troubled the water: whofoeuer then firft, after the ftir- ring of the water, ftepped in, was made whole of whatfueuer difeaf he had.

And a certeine man was there, which had bene difeafed eight and thirtie yeres.

When Iefus fawe him lie, and knewe that he now lôg time had bene difeafed, he faid vnto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

The ficke man answered him, Sir, I haue no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into fo poole: but while I am cóming, another fteppeth downe before me.

Iefus faid vnto him, Rife: take vp thy bed, and walke.

And immediatly the má was made who- le, and toke vp his bed, and walked: & the fame day was the Sabbath.

The Lewes therefore faid to him that was made whole, It is the Sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carie thy bed.

He answered them, He that made me whole, he faid vnto me, Take vp thy bed, and walke.

Then asked they him, What man is that which faid vnto thee, Take vp thy bed, & walke?

And he that was healed, knewe not who it was: for Iefus had conueyed him felf away from the multitude that was in that place.

And after that, Iefus founde him in the Temple, and faid vnto him, Beholde, thou art made whole: finne no more, left a worde thing come vnto thee.

The man departed, and tolde the Le- wes that it was Iefus, which had made him whole.

And therefore the Lewes did perfecute Iefus, & foght to flay him, becaufe he had done thefe things on the Sabbath day.

But Iefus answered the, My Father wor- keth hitherto, and I worke.

Therefore the Lewes foght the more to kil him: not onely becaufe he had broken the Sabbath: but faid alfo that God was this Father, and made him felf equal with God.

Then answered Iefus, & faid vnto them, Verely, verely I fay vnto you, The Sonne can do nothing of him felf, faue that he feeth Father do: for whatfueuer things he doeth, the fame things doeth f Sône alfo. 66 From that time, manie of his disciples went backe, and walked no more with him.

67 The faid Iefus to the twelue, Wil ye al- fo go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Ma- fter to whome shal we go? Thou haft the wordes of eternal life:

69 And we beleue and knowe that thou art the Christ the Sonne of the liuing God.

70 Iefus answered the, Haue not I chofen you twelue and one of you is a deuil?

d Iefus reproueth the ambition of his cousins. 12 There are diuers opinions of him among the people. 13 He fherweth how to knewe the truth. 14 The sniura they do vnto him. 15 The Pharife: rebuk the officers be- cause they haue not taken him. 16 And chide with Nicodemus for taking his parte.

A Fter thefe things, Iefus walked in Galile, and wolde not walke in Iu- dea: for the Iewes foght to kil him.

2 Now the Iewes a feaft of the Taberna- cles was at hand.

3 His brethren therefore faid vnto him, Depart hence, and go into Iudea, that thy disciples may fe thy workes that thou doeft.

4 For there is no ma that doeth anie thing fecretly, & the him felf feketh to be famous. If thou doeft thefe things, fhewe thy felf to the worlde.

5 For as yet his brethren beleued not in him.

6 Then Iefus faid vnto the, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway readie.

7 The worlde can not hate you: but me it hateth, b becaufe I teftifie of it, that the workes thereof are euil.

8 Go ye vp vnto this feaft: I wil not go vp yet vnto this feaft: for my time is not yet fulfilled.

9 Thefe things he faid vnto them, and a- bode ftill in Galile.

10 But affone as his brethren were gone vp, then we the alfo vp vnto the feaft, not openly, but as it were priuely.

11 Then the Iewes foght him at the feaft, & faid, Where is he?

12 And much murmuring was there of him among the people.
Some said, He is a good man: other said, Naye: but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for feare of the Iewes.

14 Now when half the feast was done, Iesus went up into the Temple and taught.

15 And the Iewes marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man the Scriptures, seeing that he never learned.

16 Iesus answered them, & said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man will do his will, he shall knowe of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I spake of my self.

19 Did not Moses give you a Law, and yet none of you keepeth the Law? Why go ye about to kill me?

20 The people answered, and said, Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Iefus answered, and said to them, I haue done one worke, and ye all marueile.

22 Mofes therefore gaue vnto you circu- cision, (not becaufe it is of Mofes, but of the fathers) and ye on the Sabbath day cir-

13 The Pharises therefore said vnto him, Thou bearest recorde of thy self: thy re- corde is not true.

14 Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Thogh I beare recorde of my self, yes my recorde is true: for I knowe whence I came & whether I go: but ye can not tell when- ce I come, and whether I go.

15 Ye iudge after the flesh: I iudge no man.

17 And it is also written in your Law, that the restimonie of two men is true.

18 I am one that beare witness of my self, & the Father that sent me, beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they vnto him, Where is thy Father? Iesus answered, Ye nether knowe me, not my Father. If ye had knowen me, ye shulde haue knowen my Father also.

20 These wordes spake Iesus in the tresorie, as he taught in the Temple, and no man laid hands on him: for his houre was not yet come.

21 Then said Iesus againe vnto them, I go my way, and ye shal seke me, and shal dye in your sinnes. Whether I go, can ye not come.

22 Then said the Iewes, Wil he kil him self because he saith, Whether I go, can ye not come?

23 And he said vnto them, Ye are from beneath: I am from above: ye are of this worlde: I am not of this worlde.

24 I said therefore vnto you, That ye shal dye in your sinnes: for except ye beleue, that I am he, ye shal dye in your sinnes.

25 Then said they vnto him, Who art thou? And Iesus said vnto them, Suen the same thing that I said vnto you from the beginning.

26 I haue manie things to say, and to iudge of you: but he that sent me, is true, and the things that I haue heard of him, those speake I to the worlde.

27 They vnderstode not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Iesus vnto them, Whye ye ha- ue lift vp the Sonne of man, then shal ye m knowe that I am he, and that I do no- thing of my self, but as my Father hathe taught me, so I speake these things.

29 For he that sent me, is with me: the Fa- ther hathe not left me alone, because I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these things, many bele- ued in him.

31 Then said Iesus to the Iewes which be- leued in him, If ye continue in my worde, ye are verely my disciples, 32 And shal knowe the trueth, & the trueth shal make you fre.

33 They answered him, We be Abrahams sede, and were neuer bonde to any man: why saift thou then, Ye shal be made fre?

34 Iesus answered them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that who souer committeth sinne, is the seruant of sinne.

35 And the seruant abideth not in the hou- se for euer: but the Sonne abideth for euer.

36 If the Sone therefore shal make you fre, ye shal be fre in dede.

37 I knowe that ye are Abrahams sede, but ye seke to kill me, because my worde hathe no place in you.

38 I speake that which I haue sene with my Father: and ye do that which ye haue sene with your father.

39 They answered, and said vnto him, A- braham is our father. Iesus said vnto the, If ye were Abrahams children, ye wolde do the works of Abraham.

40 But now ye go about to kill me, a man that haue tolde you the trueth, which I ha- ue heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye do the works of your father. Then said they to him, We are not borne of for- nicatio: we haue one Father, which is God.

42 Therefore Iesus said vnto them, If God were your Father, then wolde ye loue me: for I proceded for the, & came from God, nether came I of my self, but he sent me.

43 Why do ye not vnderstand my talke? be- cause ye can not heare my worde.

44 Ye are of your father the deuil, and the lustes of your father ye wil do: he hathe bene a murtherer from the beginning, & whode not in the trueth, because there is no trueth in him. When he speaketh a lie, then speaketh he of his owne: for he is a liar, and the father thereof.

45 And because I tell you the trueth, ye be leue me not.

46 Which of you can rebuke me of sinne? and if I say the trueth, why do ye not be- leue me?

47 He that is of God, heareth Gods wor- des: ye therefore heare them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Iewes, and said vnto him, Say we not wel that thou art a Sama- ritan, and hast a deuil?

1 Of him that was borne blinde. 11 The confession of him that was borne blinde. 12 To what blinde men Christ gmeth fight.

1 And as Iesus passed by, he sawe a ma which was blinde from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Ma- ster, who did sinne, this man, or his parents, that he was borne blinde?

3 Iesus answered, 4 Nether hathe this man sinned, nor his parents, but that the works of God shulde be shewed on him.

4 I must worke the works of him that sent me, while it is 5 day the night cometh whe no man can worke.

5 As long as I am in the worlde, 6 I am the light of the worlde.

6 Assone as he had thus spoken, 7 he spate on the ground, & made claye of the spect- tle, and anointed the eyes of the blinde with the clay,

7 And said vnto him, Go wash in the poole of Siloam (which is by interpretatio, 8 Set) He went his way therefore, and washed, & came againe seing.

8 Now the neighbours and they that had sene him before, when he was blinde, said, Is not this he that fate and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: & others said, He is like him: but he him self said, I am he.

10 Therefore they said vnto him, How we- re thine eyes opened?

11 He answered, and said, The man that is called Iesus, made claye, and anointed mi- ne eyes, and said vnto me, Go to the poole of Siloam and wash. So I went and washed and receiued sight.

12 Then they said vnto him, Where is he? He said, I can not tell.

13 ¶ They brought to the Pharises him that was once blinde.

14 And it was the Sabbath day, when Iesus made the claye, and opened his eyes.

15 The againe the Pharises also asked him, how he had receiued fight. And he said vn- to them, He laid claye vpon mine eyes, & I washed, and do se.

16 Then said some of the Pharises, This man is not of God, because he kept not the Sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner, do suche miracles and there was a dissension among them.

17 Then spake they vnto the blinde agai- ne, What fast thou of him, because he ha- the opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a Prophet.

18 Then the Iewes did not beleue him (that he had bene blinde, and receiued his fight) vntil they had called the parents of him that had receiued fight.

19 And they asked the, saying, Is this your sonne, whome ye say was borne blinde? How doeth he now se then?

20 His parents answered them, & said, We knowe that this is our sonne, and that he was borne blinde:

21 But by what meanes he now seeth, we knowe not: or who hathe opened his eyes, can we not tell: he is olde enough: aske him: the shal answer for him self.

22 The se wordes spake his parents, because they feared the Iewes: for the Iewes had ordeined alreadie, that if any ma did con- fesse that he was the Christ, he shulde be excommunicate out of the Synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is olde ynough: aske him.

24 Then againe called they the man that had bene blinde, and said vnto him, 5 Giue glorie vnto God: we knowe that this man is a sinner.

25 Then he answered, and said, Whither he be a sinner or no, it I cannot tell: one thing I knowe, that I was blinde, and now I se.

26 The said they to him againe, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I haue tolde you al- readie, and ye haue not heard it: wherefore wolde ye heare it againe: 28 wil ye also be his disciples?

28 Then checked they him, & said, Be thou his disciple: we be Moses disciples.

theft and a robber.

27 But he that goeth in by the dore, is the fhepherd of the fhepe.

28 To him the porter openeth, and the fhepe heare his voyce, and he calleth his owne fhepe by name, and leadeth them out.

29 And when he hathe fent for the his owne fhepe, he goeth before them, and the fhepe followe him: for they knowe his voyce.

30 And they wil not followe a stranger, but they flee from him:
for they knowe not the voyce of strangers.

31 This parable fpake Iefus vnto them: but they vnderftode not what things they we- re which he fpake vnto them.

32 Then said Iesus vnto them againe, Vere- ly, verely I say vnto you, I am the dore of the shepe.

33 All, that euer came before me, are the- ues & robbers: but the shepe did not hea- re them.

34 I am the dore: by me if any man enter in, he shalbe faued, and shal go in and go out, and finde pasture.

35 The thefe commeth not, but for to stea- le, and to kill, and to deftroie: I am come that they might haue life, and haue it in abundance.

36 I am the good shepherd: the good shep- herd giueth his life for his shepe.

37 But an hireling, and he which is not the shepherd, nether the shepe are his owne, seeth the wolfe cōming, & he leaueth the shepe, and steeth, and the wolfe catcheth them, and scattereth the shepe.

38 So the hireling steeth, because he is an hi- reling, and careth not for the shepe.

39 I am the good shepherd, and knowe mine, and am known of mine.

40 As the Father knoweth me, so knowe I the Father: and I lay downe my life for my shepe.

41 Other shepe I haue also, which are not of this folde: them also must I bring, and they shal heare my voyce: and there shal be one shepefolde, one shepherd.

42 Therefore doeth my Father loue me, because I lay downe my life, if I might take it againe.

43 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it downe of my self: I haue power to lay it downe, and haue power to take it againe: this commandement haue I received of my Father.

44 Then there was a diffention againe among the Iewes for these sayings.

45 And many of them said, He hathe a deuill, and is madde: why heare ye him?

46 Others said, These are not the wordes of him that hathe a deuill: can the deuill open the eyes of the blinde?

47 And it was at Ierusalem the last of the Dedication, and it was winter.

3 Therefore his fifters fent vnto him, fay- ing, Lord, beholde, he whome thou loueft, is ficke.

4 When Iefus heard it, he faid, This ficke- nes is not vnto death, but for the glorie of God, that the Sonne of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Iefus loued Martha and her fifter and Lazarus.

6 And after he had heard that he was ficke, yet abode he two dayes ftill in fame pla- ce where he was.

7 Then after that, faid he to his difciples, Let vs go into Iudea againe.

8 The difciples faid vnto him, Mafter, the Iewes lately foght to 'ftone thee, & dueft thou go thither againe.

9 Iesus answered, Are there not 'twelve houres in the day? If a man walke in the day, he stumblēth not, because he seeth the light of this worlde.

10 But if a man walke in the night, he stumblēth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things spake he, and after he said vnto the, Our friend Lazarus slepeth: but I go to wake him vp.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he slepe, he shal be safe.

13 Howbeit, Iesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of the 'natural slepe.

14 Then said Iesus vnto them plainely, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, that ye may beleue: but let vs go vnto him.

16 Then said Thomas (which is called 'Didymus) vnto his fellowe disciples, Let vs also go, that we may dye with him.

17 ¶ The came Iesus, & founde that he had bene in the graue foure dayes already.

18 (Now Bethania was nere vnto Ierusalē, about 'fiftene furlongs of.)

19 And many of the Iewes were come to Martha and Marie to comfort them for their brother.

20 Then Martha, when she heard that Ie-

21 Then said Martha unto Iesus, Lord, if thou haddest bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

22 But now I knowe also, that whatsoeuer thou askest of God, God will giue it thee.

23 Iesus said unto her, Thy brother shall rise againe.

24 Martha said unto him, I knowe that he shall rise againe in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Iesus said unto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that beleeueth in me, though he were dead, yet shall be liue.

26 And whosoever liueth, and beleeueth in me, shall neuer dye.
Beleeuest thou this?

27 She said unto him, Yea, Lord, I beleue that thou art the 38 Iesus therefore againe groned in him self, and came to the graue. And it was a cane, and a stone was laid vpon it.

39 Iesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha the sister of him that was dead, said vnto him, Lord, he thinketh alreadie: for he hath bene dead foure daies.

40 Iesus said vnto her, Said I not vnto thee, that if thou diddest beleue; thou shuldest see the 'glorie of God?

41 Then they toke away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Iesus lift vp his eyes, and said, Father, I thanke thee, because thou hast heard me.

42 I knowe that thou hearest me alwayes, but because of the people that stand by, I said it, that they maye beleue, that thou hast sent me.

43 As he had spoken these things, he cry- ed w a loude voyce, Lazarus, come forth.

44 Then he that was dead, came forth, bounde hand and foot with bandes, & his face was bounde with a napkin. Iesus said vnto them, Loe him, and let him go.

45 Then manie of the Iewes, which came to Marie, and had fene the things, which Iefus did, beleued in him.

46 But fome of them went their way to the Pharifes, and tolde them what things Iefus had done.

47 Then gathered the hie Priefts, and the Pharifes a council, and faid, What fhall we do? For this man doeth manie miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men wil beleue in him, and the Romaines wil come and take away bothe our place, and the nacion.

49 Then one of them named Caiaphas, which was the hie Prieft that fame yere, faid vnto the, Ye perceue nothing at all,

51 This fpake he not of him self: but being hie Prieft that fame yere, he o prophecied that Iefus fhulde dye for the nacion:

52 And not for the nacion oncly, but that he fhulde gather together in one & children of God, which were fcattered.

53 Then from that day forth they confulted together, to put him to death.

54 Iefus therefore walked no more open- ly among the Iewes, but went thence vn- to a countrey nere to the wilderness, into a citre called Ephraim, and there cotinued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And the Iewes Paffeouer was at hand, and manie went out of the countrey vp to Ierufalem before the Paffeouer, to purifie them felues.

2 And when fupper was done (and that the deuil had now put in the heart of Iudas Ifcarlot, Simons fonne, to betraye him)

3 Iefus knowing that the Father had giuen all things into his hands, & that he was come from God, and went to God,

4 He rifeth from fupper, and layeth afide his fupper garments, and toke a towel, and girde him felf.

5 After that, he powred water into a bafin, and began to wafh the difciples fete, and to wipe them with the towel, wherewith he was girde.

6 Then came he to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?

7 Iesus answered and said unto him, What I do, thou knowest not now: but thou shalt knowe it hereafter.

8 Peter said unto him, Thou shalt neuer wash my feet. Iesus answered him, 'If I wash thee not, thou shalt haue no parte with me.

9 Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, not my feet onely, but also the hands & the head.

10 Iesus said to him, He that is washed, needeth not, save to wash his feet, but is cleane euerie whit: and ye are cleane, but not all.

11 For he knewe who should betraye him: therefore said he, Ye are not all cleane.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set downe againe, he said unto them, Knowe ye what I haue done to you?

13 Ye call me Master, and Lord, and ye say wel: for so am I.

14 If I then your Lord, and Master, haue washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one anothers feet.

21 When Iesus had said these things, he was troubled in the Spirit, & testified, and said, Verely, verely I say unto you, that one of you shall betraye me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whome he spake.

23 Now there was one of his disciples, & leaned on Iesus bosome, whome Iesus loued.

24 To him beckened therefore Simon Peter, y he should aske who it was of whome he spake.

25 He then, as he leaned on Iefus breft, faid vnto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Iefus answered, He it is, to whome I fhall giue a foppe, when I haue dipte it: and he wet a foppe, and gaue it to Iudas Ifcarlot, Simons fonne.

27 And after the foppe, 'Satan entred vnto him. The faid Iefus vnto him, That thou doeft, do quickly.

should pray. 6 The promise unto them that I, yea his words.

1 A Nd he said to his disciples, Let not your heart be troubled: ye beleue in God, a beleue also in me.

a For in fa be- leuig no trou- bles shal out- come them. b To that the- be is not only place for him, but for all his. c At the latter day, A.D., 1.11.

In my Fathers house are b many dwelling places: if it were not so, I wode haue tolde you: I go to prepare a place for you.

And thogh I go to prepare a place for you, I wil c come againe, and receiue you vnto my self, that where I am, there may ye be also.

4 And whither I go, ye knowe, and the way ye knowe.

Thomas said vnto him, Lord, we knowe not whither thou goest: how can we then knowe the way?

6 Iesus said vnto him, I am the c Way, and the Trueth, & the Life. No man cometh vnto the Father, but by me.

7 If ye had known me, ye shulde haue knowen my Father also: and from hence forthe ye knowe him, and haue sene him.

8 Philippe said vnto him, Lord, shewe vs thy Father, and it suffiseeth vs.

9 Iesus said vnto him, I haue bene so long time with you, and hast thou not knowen me, Philippe he that hathe sene me, hathe sene my Father: how the faist thou, Shewe vs thy Father?

10 Beleuest thou not, that I am in the Father, and the Father is in me! The wordes that I speake vnto you, I speake not of my self: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he h doeth the works.

11 Beleue me, that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: at the least, beleue me for the very works fake.

12 Verely, verely I say vnto you, he that beleueth in me, the works that I do, he shal do also, & greater then these shal he do: for I go vnto my Father.

13 And whatsoever ye aske in my Name, that wil I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Sonne.

14 If ye shal aske any thing in my Name, I wil do it.

15 If ye loue me, kepe my comandements, 16 And I wil pray the Father, and he shal giue you another h Coforter, that he may abide with you for euer.

17 Even the Spirit of trueth, whome the worlde can not receiue, becaufe it seeth him not, nether knoweth hi: but ye knowe him: for he dwelleth with you, and shalbe in you.

18 I wil not leaue you comfortes: but I wil m come to you.

S. John. Christ is the vine.

19 Yet a little while, and the worlde shal se me no more, but ye shal se me: becaufe I liue, ye shal liue also.

20 At that day shal ye knowe that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.

21 He that hathe my commandements, and kepeth them, is he that loueth me: and he that loueth me, a shalbe loued of my Father: and I wil loue him, and wil shewe mine owne self to him.

22 Iudas said vnto him (not c Iscario) Lord, what is the caufe that thou wilt shewe thy Self vnto vs, and not vnto the worlde?

23 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, If any man loue me, he wil rkepe my worde, & my Father wil loue him, and we wil come vnto him, and wil dwell with him.

24 He that loueth me not, kepeth not my wordes, and the worde which ye heare, is not a mine, but the Fathers which sent me.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you, being present with you.

26 But the Comforter, which is the holie Goft, whome the Father wil send in my Name, he shal teache you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, which I haue tolde you.

27 Peace I leaue with you: my peace I giue vnto you: not as the worlde giueth, giue I vnto you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor feare.

28 Ye haue heard how I said vnto you, I go away, and wil come vnto you. If ye loued me, ye wode verely reioyce, becaufe I said, I go vnto the Father: for my Father is greater then I.

29 And now haue I spoken vnto you, before it come, that when it is come to paffe, ye might beleue.

30 Hereafter wil I not speake many things vnto you: for the c prince of this worlde commeth, and hathe a noght in me.

31 But it is that the worlde may knowe that I loue my Father: & as the Father hathe commanded me, so I do. Arife, let vs go hence.

10 If ye shal kepe my commandements, ye shal abide in my loue, as I haue kept my Fathers commandements, and abide in his loue.

11 These things haue I spoke vnto you, that my ioye might remaine in you, and that your ioye might be c ful.

12 This is my commandement, that ye lo- ue one another, as I haue loued you.

13 Greater loue then this hathe no man, when any man beftoweth his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatfoeuer I commande you.

15 Hence forthe, call I you not feruants: for the feruant knoweth not what his master doeth: but I haue called you friends: for call things that I haue heard of my Fa- ther, haue I made knowen to you.

16 Ye haue not chofen me, but I haue cho- fen you, and ordeined you, that ye go & bring for the frute, and that your frute re- maine, that whatfoeuer ye shal aske of the Father in my Name, he may giue it you.

17 These things commande I you, that ye loue one another.

18 If the worlde hate you, ye knowe that it hated me before you.

19 If ye were of the worlde, the worlde wol- de loue his owne: but becaufe ye are not of the worlde, but I haue chofen you out of the worlde, therefore the worlde ha- teth you.

20 Remember the worde that I faid vnto you, The feruant is not greater then his master. If they haue per fecuted me, they wil perfecute you also: if they haue kept my worde, they wil also kepe h yours.

21 But all these things wil they do vnto you for my Names sike, becaufe they haue not knowen him that fent me.

Did not I se thee in the garden with him? 27 Peter then denied againe, and immediately the cocks crewe.

28 ¶ Then led they Iesus from Caiaphas into the commune hall. Now it was morning & thei them selues went not into the comune hall, lest they shulde be defiled, but that they might eat the Passeouer.

29 Pilate then went out vnto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said vnto him, If he were not an euil doer, we wolde not haue deliuered him vnto thee.

31 Then said Pilate vnto them, Take ye him, and iudge him after your owne Law. Then the Iewes said vnto him, It is not lawful for vs to put anue man to death.

32 It was that the worde of Iesus might be fulfilled which he spake, signify ig what death he shulde dye.

33 So Pilate entered into the commune hall againe, and called Iesus, & said vnto him, Art thou the King of the Iewes?

34 Iesus answered him, Sasist thou that of thy self, or did other tel it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Iewe? Thine owne nation, and the high Priests haue deliuered thee vnto me. What hast thou done?

36 Iesus answered, My kingdome is not of this worlde: if my kingdome were of this worlde, my seruants wolde surely fight, that I shulde not be deliuered to I Iewes: but now is my kingdome not from hence.

37 Pilate then said vnto him, Art thou a King the Iesus answered, Thou saisit that I am a King: for this cause am I borne, & for this cause came I into the worlde, that I shulde beare witnes vnto the truetheue-nie one that is of the truethe, heareth my voyce.

38 Pilate said vnto him, What is truethe? And when he had said that, he went out againe vnto the Iewes, & said vnto them, I finde in him no cause at all.

39 But you haue a cultome, that I shulde deliuer you one lose at the Passeouer: wil ye then that I lose vnto you the King of the Iewes?

40 The cryed they all againe, saying, Not him, but Barabbas: now this Barabbas was a murtherer.

CHAP. XIX.

1 When Pilate coulde not a image the rage of the Iewes against Christ, he deliuereth him up with his supercription to be hanged betwixt two thrones. 2 They cast letters for his garments. 3 He commandeth his mother vnto John. 4 Calfeth for dronke. 5 Dyeth, and his side is perced, and taken down from the cross. 6 He is hurged.

7 Then Pilate toke Iesus & scourged him.

8 Then Pilate toke Iesus & scourged him.

2 And the souldiers platted a crowne of thrones, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple garment,

3 And said, Hail, King of the Iewes. And they smote him with their roddes.

4 Then Pilate went for the againe, and said vnto them, Beholde, I bring him for the to you, that ye may knowe, I finde no faute in him at all.

5 The came Iesus for the wearing a crowne of thrones, and a purple garment. And Pilate said vnto them, Beholde the man.

6 Then when the high Priests and officers sawe him, they cryed, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Take ye him and crucifie him: for I finde no faute in him.

7 The Iewes answered him, We haue a Law, and by our Law he oght to dye, because he made him self the Sone of God.

8 ¶ What Pilate then heard that worde, he was the more afraid,

9 And went againe into the commune hall and said vnto Iesus, Whence art thou? But Iesus gaue him none anfwese.

10 The said Pilate vnto him, Speakest thou not vnto me? Knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to lose thee?

11 Iesus answered, Thou couldest haue no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that deliuered me vnto thee, has the greater sinne.

12 From thence for the Pilate foght to lose him, but the Iewes cryed, saying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Celsars friend: for whosoeuer maketh him self a King, speaketh against Celsar.

13 ¶ When Pilate heard that worde, he brought Iesus for the, and fate downe in the iudgement seat in a place called the Paument, and in Hebrewe, Gabbatha.

14 And it was the Preparation of the Passeouer, and about the first houre: and he said vnto the Iewes, Beholde your King.

20 This title then red manie of the Iewes: for the place where Iesus was crucified, was nere to 21 Then said the hie Priests of the Iewes to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Iewes, but that he said, I am King of the Iewes.

22 Pilate answered, What I haue written, I haue written.

23 ¶ Then the * souldiers, when they had crucified Iesus, toke his garments & made foure partes, to euerie souldier a parte, & his coate: and the coate was without seame, wouen from the top throughout.

24 Therefore thei said one to another, Let vs not deuide it, but cast lots for it, whose it shalbe.
Tho was that ¶ Scripture might be fulfilled, which faith, * They departed my garmets among them, & on my coate did cast lottes. So the souldiers did these things in dede.

25 ¶ Then stode by the croffe of Iesus his mother, and his mothers sister, Marie the wife of Cleopas, and Marie Magdalene.

26 And when Iesus sawe his mother, & the disciple standing by whome he loued, he said vnto his mother, Womā, beholde thy sonne.

27 Then said he to the disciple, Beholde thy mother: and from that houre, the disci- ple toke her home vnto him.

28 ¶ After, when Iesus knewe that all things were performed, that ¶ * Scripture might be fulfilled, he said, I thirst.

29 And there was set a vessel full of vine- gre: & they filled a sponge with vinegre, and put it about an hyflope stalk, and put it to his mouth.

30 Now when Iesus had receiued of the vi- negre, he said, " It is finished, and bowed his head, and gaue vp the goft.

31 The Iewes then (because it was the Pre- paracion, that the bodies shulde not re- maine vpo the croffe on the Sabbath day: for that Sabbath was an hie day) befoght Pilate that their legges might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.

32 Then came the souldiers and brake the legges of the first, and of the other, which was crucified with Iesus.

33 But when they came to Iesus, and sawe that he was dead alreadie, they brake not his legges.

34 But one of the souldiers with a speare perced his side, & forthewith came there out blood and water.

And he that sawe it, bare recorde, & his recorde is true: and he knoweth that he faith true, that ye might be leue it.

35 For these things were done, if the Scrip- ture shulde be fulfilled, Not a bone of him shalbe broken.

37 And againe another Scripture faith, * Thei shal se him whome thei haue thrust through.

38 * And after these things, Joseph of Ari- matha (who was a discipule of Iesus, but p secretiy for feate of the Iewes) befoght Pilate that he might take downe the bo- die of Iesus. And Pilate gaue him liccee. He came then and toke Iesus bodie.

39 And there came also Nicodemus (which first came to Iesus by night) and broght of myrrhe & aloes mingled together about an hundieth pounce.

40 ¶ Then toke thei § botie of Iesus, and wrapped it in linnen clothes with the o- dours, as the maner of § Iewes is to burie.

41 And in that place where Iesus was cru- cified, was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was neuer man yet laid.

42 There then laid they Iesus, because of the Iewes Preparacion day, for the sepul- chre was nere.

1 Now the first day of the weke came Marie Magdalene, earely when it was yet a darke, vnto the sepulchre, and sawe the stone taken away from the tobe.

2 Then the ranne, and came to Simon Pe- ter, and to the other disciple who me Iesus loued, and said vnto them, They haue ta- ken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we knowe not where they haue laid him.

3 Peter therefore went forth, & the other disciple, & they came vnto the sepulchre.

4 So they ranne bothe together, but the o- ther disciple did out runne Peter, and ca- me first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stouped downe, and sawe the lin- nen clothes lying; yet went he not in.

6 Then came Simon Peter folowing him, and went into the sepulchre, and sawe the linnen clothes lye,

7 And the kercheffe that was vpo his head, not lying & the linnen clothes, but wrap- ped together in a place by it self.

8 Then went in also the other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he sawe it, and beleued.

9 For as yet they knewe not the Scripture, That he must rise againe from the dead. 10 And the disciples went away againe vn- to their owne home.

11 ¶ * But Marie stode without at the se- pulchre weping: & as she wept, she bowed her self

14 When the had thus faid, the turned her self backe and fawe Iefus standing, and knewe not that it was Iefus.

15 Iefus faith vnto her, Womá, why wepeft thou? whome fekeft thou? She fupposing that he had bene the gardener, faid vnto him, Syr, if thou haft borne him hence, tell me where thou haft laid him, and I wil take him away.

16 Iefus faith vnto her, Marie. She turned her self, & faid vnto him, Rabboni, which is to fay, Master.

17 Iefus faith vnto her, Touche me not: for I am not yet afcended to my Father, but go to my brethren, and fay vnto them, I afcend vnto my Father, & to your Father, and to my God, and your God.

18 Marie Magdalene came and tolde the disciples that the had fene the Lord, and that he had spoken these things vnto her.

19 ¶ The fame daye then at night, which was the first day of the weeke, and when the s dores were shut where the disciples were assembled for feare of the Iewes, came Iefus and stode in the middes, & faid to them, ¶ Peace be vnto you.

20 And when he had so faid, he shewed vnto them he hands, and his fide. Then were the disciples glad when they had fene the Lord.

21 Then faid Iefus to them againe, Peace be vnto you: as my Father fent me, so fend I you.

22 And whé he had faid that, he breathed on them, and faid vnto them, Receiue the holie Goft.

23 ¶ Whofoeuers finnes ye remit, they are remitted vnto them: whofoeuers finnes ye reteine, they are reteined.

24 ¶ But Thomas one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Iefus came.

25 The other disciples therefore faid vnto him, We haue fene the Lord: but he faid vnto them, Except I fe in his hands the print of the nailes, and put my finger into the print of the nailes, and put mine hand into his fide, I wil not beleue it.

26 ¶ And eight daies after againe his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Iefus, whé the dores were shut, and stode in the middes, and faid, Peace be vnto you.

27 After, faid he to Thomas, Put thy finger here, and fe mine hands, and put forthe thinghand, and put it into my fide, and be not faithles, but faithful.

28 Then Thomas answered, and faid vnto him, Thou art my Lord, and my God.

29 Iefus faid vnto him, Thomas, becaufe thou haft fene me, thou beleueft: bleffeif are they that haue not fene, and haue beleued.

30 ¶ And manie other fignes also did Iefus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this booke.

31 But these things are written, ye might beleue, that Iefus is the Christ the Sonne of God, and that in beleuing ye might haue life through his Name.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Chrif appeareth to his disciples againe. 11 He commdeth Peter earnestly to fide his fhape. 12 He foremarneth him of his death, 13 And of Chrifts manifeft miracles.

1 A Fter the fe things, Iefus shewed him self againe to his disciples at ye fea of Tiberias: and thus shewed he him self.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas, which is called Didymus, & Nathanael of Cana in Galile, and the finnes of Zebedeus, & two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter faid vnto them, I go a fishing. They faid vnto him, We also wil go with thee. They went their way and entred into a ship straight way, & that night caught they nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Iefus stode on the shore: nevertheless the disciples knewe not that it was Iefus.

5 Iefus then faid vnto them, "Sirs, haue ye anie meam? They answered him, No.

6 Then he faid vnto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the ship, & ye fhall finde. So they cast out, and they were not able at all to drawe it, for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore faid the disciple whome Iefus loued, vnto Peter, It is the Lord. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girde his coate to him (for he was naked) and cast him self into the fea.

8 But the other disciples came by fhippe (for they were not farre from land, but about two hundred cubites) & they drew the net with fishes.

9 Allone then as they were come to land, they fawe hotte coles, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Iefus faid vnto the, Bring of the fishes, which ye haue now caught.

11 Simon Peter stepped forth and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, an hundred, ifrie and thee: and albeit there were so manie, yet was not the net broken.

12 Iesus said vnto them, Come, dyne. And none of the disciples durft afke him, Who art thou, feing they knewe that he was the Lord.

19 And this spake he, signifying by what death he shulde glorifie God. And whē he had said this, he said to him, Followe me.

20 Then Peter turned about, and sawe the disciple whome I R S V S loued, following, which had also & leaned on his brest at sup pet, and had said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 When Peter therefore sawe him, he said to Iesus, Lord, what shall this man do?

22 Iesus said vnto him, If I wil that he tarry til I come, what is it to thee? followe thou me.

23 Then went this worde abroad among the brethren, that this disciple shulde not dye. Yet Iesus said not to him, He shall not dye: but if I wil that he tarry til I come, what is it to thee?

24 This is that disciple, which testifieth of these things, & wrote these things, and we knowe that his testimonie is true.

THE ACTES OF THE

holie Apoftles written by Luke the Euangelife.

THE ARGUMENT

Christ, after his acenſion, performed his promes to his Apoftles, and ſent them the holie Goſt, de- claring thereby, that he was not oneſy minded of his Church, but wolde be the head & mainte- ner thereof for euer. Wherein alſo his mightie power appeareth, who notwithstanding that Satan & the worlde refiſted neuer ſo much againſt this noble worke, yet by a fewe ſimple men of no repu- tation, replenifhed all the worlde with the ſounds of his Goſpel. And here, in the beginning of the Church, and in the increaſe thereof, we may plainly perceive the praiſe and malice which Satan continually vſeth to ſuppreſſe, and ouerthrowe the Goſpel: he raiſeth conſpiracies, tumultes, commotions, perfecutions, ſcandlers and all kinds of crueltie. Again we ſhal here beholde the providence of God, who ouerthroweth his enemies enterprifs, deliuereth his Church from the rage of tyrants, strength- meth, and incourage: his moft valiantly and constantly to followe their captaine Christ, leauing as it were by this hiftorie a perpetual memoir to the Church, that the creffe is fo foyned with the Go- fpel, that they are followe infeparable, and that the end of one affliction, is but the beginning of an- other. Yet nevertheless God turneth the troubles, perfecutions, imprisonings and tentations of his, to a good yffue, gining them as it were, in ferowe, ieye: in bandes, fredome in prifon, deliuerance: in trou- ble, quetnes: in death, life. Finally, this bofe cofeineth manie excellent fermons of the Apoftles & difci- ples, as touching the death, refunrection, and acenfion of Christ. The mercie of God. Of the grace, and remiffion of finne through Iefus Christ. Of the bleffed immortalitie. An exhortation to the minifters of Christ's flocke. Of repentance, & feare of God, with other principal points of our faith fo that this onelie hiftorie in a maner may be fufficient to instruct a man in all true doctrine and religion.

The lame is restored to his fate. 28 Peter preacheth Christ vne the people.

N Ow Peter and Iohn went vp toge- ther into the Temple, at the n in the houre of prayer.

And a cerceine man which was a creple fro his mothers wombe, was caryed, who- me they laid daily at the gate of the Tem- ple called Beautiful, to aske b almes of the that entered into the Temple.

3 Who feing Peter and Iohn, that they wolde entre into the Teple, defired to re- ceiue an almes.

4 And Peter earnestly beholding him with Iohn, said, Loke on vs.

5 And he gave hede vnto them, crusting to receiue some thing of them.

6 Then said Peter, Siluer and golde haue Inone, but fische as I chau, that giue I thee: In the a Name of Iefus Christ of Na zaret rise vp and walke.

7 And he toke him by the right hand, and lift him vp, and immediatly his fete and ancle bones receiued strength.

8 And he leaped vp, stode, and walked, and entred with them into the Teple, walking and leaping, and praising God.

9 And all the people sawe him walke, and praising God,

10 And thei knewe him, that it was he which fate for the almes at the Beautiful gate of the Temple: & they were amazed, and fo- re astonied at that, which was come vnto him.

11 And as the creple which was healed, helde Peter and Iohn, all the people ran amazed vnto them in the porche which is called Solomons.

12 So whe Peter sawe it, he answered vnto the people, Ye men of Israel, why maruei- le ye at this 20: why loke ye so stedfastly on vs, as thogh by our owne e power or godlines, we had made this man go?

13 The o o d of Abraham, and Isaac, and Iacob, the o o d of our fathers hathe glo rified his Sonne Iefus, whome ye betrayed, and denied in the presence of Pilate, whe he had judged him to be deliuered.

14 But ye denied the holie one & the iust, and defired a f murtheres to be giuen you,

15 And killed the Lord of life, whome God hathe raised from the dead, whereof we are witnesses.

16 And his a Name hathe made this man founde, whome ye fe, and knowe, through faith in his Name: & the faith which is by him, hathe giue to him this disposition of his whole bodie in y presce of you all.

17 And now brethre, I knowe that through h ignorance ye did it, as did also your go- uerners.

18 But thofe things which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his Prophe- tes, that Christ shulde fufre, he hathe thus fulfilled.

19 Amend your liues therefore, and turne, that your finnes may be put away, whe the time of refreshing b shal come from the presence of the Lord.

20 And he shal send Iefus Christ, which be- fore was preached vnto you.

21 Whome the heauen must l containe vn- til the time that all things m be restored, which God had spoken by the mouth of all his holie Prophetes fince the worlde began.

22 For Moses said vnto the Fathers, The Lord your God shal raise vp vnto you a Prophet, quen of you s brethren like vnto me: ye shal heare him in all things, what- foeuer he shal fay vnto you.

23 For it shalbe that euerie persone which shal not heare that Prophet, shalbe de- stroyed out of the people.

24 Also all the Prophetes from Samuel, and thence forthe as many as haue spoken, ha- ue likewise foretolde of these dayes.

25 Ye are the children of the Prophetes, & of the covenant, which God hathe made vnto our fathers, faying to Abraham, E- uen in thy fede shal all the rkinreds of the earth be s blessed.

26 First vnto you hathe God raised vp his Sonne Iefus, & him he hathe sent to bless you, in turning euerie one of you from your iniquities.

their rulers, and Elders, and Scribes, were gathered together at Ierufalem, 6 And Annas the chief Priest, & Caiaphas, and Iohn, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kinred of the hie Priestes. 7 And when they had set the before them, they asked, By what power, or in what Name haue ye done this? 8 Then Peter ful of the holie Goft, faid vnto them, Ye rulers of the people, & Elders of Ifrael, 9 For asmuche as we this day are examined of the good dede done to the impotent man, to wit, by what meanes he is made whole, 10 Be it knowen vnto you all, and to all the people of Ifrael, that by the Name of Iefus Christ of Nazaret, whome ye haue cru cified, whome God raised againe fro the dead, euen by him doeth this man stand here before you, whole. 11 This is the stone cast a fide, of you a buylders, which is become the head of the corner. 12 Nether is there faluation in any other: for among men there is giuen none other name vnder heauen, whereby we must be faued. 13 Now when they fawe the boldnes of Peter and Iohn, & vnderstode that they were vulcarned men and without knowledge, they marueiled, & knewe them, that they had bene with Iefus: 14 And beholding also the man which was healed standing with them, they had nothing to say against it. 15 Then they commanded them to go aside out of the Council, and conferred among them felues, 16 Saying, What shal we do to these men? for surely a manifest signe is done by the, & it is openly knowen to all the that dwell in Ierufalem: and we can not deny it. 17 But that it be noised no farther among the people, let vs threaten and charge the, that they speake henceforthe to no man in this Name. 18 So they called them, and commanded them, that in no wise they shulde speake or teache in the Name of Iefus. 19 But Peter and Iohn answered vnto the, and faid, Whether it be right in the fight of God, to obey you rather then God, iudge ye. 20 For we can not but speake the things which we haue sene and heard. 21 So they threatened them, and let them go, and founde nothing how to punish them, because of the people: for all men praised God for that which was done. 22 For the man was about fourtie yere olde, on whome this miracle of healing was shewed. 23 Then assone as they were let go, they came to their fellows, & shewed all that the hie Priests & Elders had faid vnto them. 24 And when they heard it, they list vs their voyces to God with one accorde, & faid, O Lord, thou art the God which hast made the heauen and the earth, the sea, & all things that are in them. 25 Which vby the mouth of thy seruats Da uid hast faid, Why did the Getties rage, and the people imagine vaine things? 26 The Kings of the earth assembled, and the rulers came together against Lord and against his Christ. 27 For vdouteles, against thine holie Sonne Iefus, whome thou haddeft anointed, bothe Herode & Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Ifrael gathered them felues together, 28 To do whatsoever thine hand, and thy counsel had determined before to be done. 29 And now, o Lord, beholde their threatnings, & vgrance vnto thy seruants with all boldenes to speake thy worde, 30 So that thou stretche forthe thine hand, that healing, and signes, and wonders may be done by the Name of thine holie Sonne Iefus. 31 And when as they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together, and they were all filled with the holie Goft, and they spake the worde of God boldely. 32 And the multitude of them that beleued, were of one heart, and of one foule: nether any of them faid, that any thing of that which he possessed, was his owne, but they had all things commune. 33 And with great power gaue the Apoftles wines of the resurrection of the Lord Iefus: and great grace was vpon them all. 34 Nether was there any among them, that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses, solde them, and broght the price of the things that were solde, 35 And laid it downe at the Apoftles fete, and it was distributed vnto euerie man, according as he had nede. 36 Also Iofes which was called of the Apoftles, Barnabas (that is by interpretation the sonne of consolation) being a Leuite, and of the countrey of Cyprus, 37 Where as he had land, solde it, & broght the money, and laid it downe at the Apoftles fete. b Which then were the chief among them.

1 D Vta certeine man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, folde a pof- feffion,

2 And a kept away parte of the price, his wife alfo being of counfel, & broght a cer- teine parte, and laid it downe at the Apo- ftles fete.

3 Then said Peter, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart, that thou shouldst lie unto the holy Ghost, and keep away part of the price of the possession?

4 While it remained, appertained it not unto thee; and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? how is it that thou hast conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto me, but unto God.

5 Now when Ananias heard these words, he fell down, and gave up the ghost. Then great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men rose up, and took him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it came to pass about the space of three hours after, that his wife came in, ignorant of that which was done.

8 And Peter said unto her, Tell me, soldst thou for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said unto her, Why have ye agreed together, to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the fete of them which have buried thine husband, are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then she fell down straight way at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and caryed her out, and buryed her by her hous band.

11 And great feare came on all the Church, and on as many as heard these things.

12 Thus by the hands of the Apostles were many signes and wonders shewed among the people (and they were all with one accord in Solomons porch).

13 And of the other he durst no man ioine him self to them: neuertheles the people magnified them,

14 Also the nombre of them that beleued in the Lord, boche of men & wome, grewe more and more)

15 In such sorte that they brought the sicke in- to the stretes, and laid them on beddes and couches, that at the least way the shadowe of Peter, when he came by, might shadowe some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities rounde about vnto Ierusalem, bringing sicke folkes, & them which were vexed with vncleane spirits, who were all healed.

17 ¶ Then the chief Priests rose vp, & all they that were with him (which was the scribe of the Sadducees) and were full of indignation,

18 And laid hands on the Apostles, and put them in the commune prison.

19 But the Angel of the Lord, by night opened the prison doors, & brought them forth, and said, 20 Go your way, and stand in the Temple, & speak to the people all the words of this life.

21 So when they heard it, they entered into the Temple early in the morning & taught. And the chief Priest came, and they that were with him, and called the Council together, and all the Elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison, to cause them to be brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned and told it,

23 Saying, Certainly we found every prison shut as sure as was possible, & the keepers standing without, before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Then when the chief Priest, and the captain of the Temple, and the high Priest heard these things, they doubted of them, whereunto this would growe.

25 Then came one and shewed them, saying, Beholde, the men that ye put in prison, are standing in the Temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captaine with the officers, and broght them without violence (for they feared the people, lest they should have benefite?)

27 And when they had broght them, they set them before the Council, and the chief Priests asked them,

28 Saying, Did not we straitly commande you, that ye should not teach in this Nation and behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, & ye would bring this man's blood upon us.

29 Then Peter and the Apostles answered, and said, We ought rather to obey God than men.

30 The Father of our fathers hath raised up Jesus, whom ye slew, & hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God raised up with his right hand, to be a Prince and a Saviour, to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

32 And we are his witnesses concerning these things which we say: yea, and the holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 Now when they heard it, they were filled with anger, and consulted to slay them.

34 Then stode there vp in the Cofcil a cer- teine Pharife named Gamaliel, a doctour of the Law, honored of all the people, and commâded to put the Apostles forthe

*Patriarkes.

And the Patriarkes moued with enuie folde * Ioseph into Egypt : but God was f with him,

And deliuered him out of all his afflic- tions, and * gaue him fauour and wifdome in the fight of Pharao King of Egypt, who made him gouetnour ouer Egypt, & ouer his whole houfe.

¶ Then came there a famine ouer all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great af- fliction, that our fathers founde no fuite- nance.

But when * Iacob heard that there was come in Egypt, he fent our fathers fuit.

¶ And at the feconde time, Ioseph was known of his brethren, and Iosephs kin- red was made known vnto Pharao.

Then fent Ioseph and caufed his father to be broght, & all his kinred, euen s thte fcore and fifteen foules.

So * Iacob went downe into Egypt, and he * dyed, and our fathers,

And were remoued into * Sychem, and were put in the fepulchre, that * Abraham had bight * for money of the fennes of Emor, fonne of Sychem.

But when the time of the ptomes di ewe nere, which God had fwone to Abraham, the people * greve & multiplied in Egypt,

Til another King arofe, which knewe not Ioseph.

The fame dealt i fubtely with our kin- red, and euil intreated our fathers, & ma- de them to caft out their yong children, that they fluilde not remaine aliue.

The fame time was Mofes borne, and was acceptable vnto
God, which was nou- rished vp in his fathers houfe thre mo-neths.

And whe he was caft out, Pharaos daugh ter toke him vp, & nourished him for her owne fonne.

And Mofes was learned in all the wif- dome of the Egyptians, and was mightie in wordes and in dedes.

Now when he was ful fortie yere olde, it came into his heart to vifit his brethren, the children of Ifrael.

And when he fawe one of them fuffer wrong, he defended him, and auenged his quarel that had the harme done to him, & fmote the Egyptian.

For he fupposed his brethren wolde ha- ue vnderfland, that God by his hand fluil- de giue them deliuerance: but thei vnder- ftode it not.

And the next day, he fhewed him felf vnto them as they ftroue, and wolde haue fet them at one againe, faying, Syts, ye are brethre: why do ye wrong one to another?

But he that did his neighbour wrong, thruft him away, faying,
Who made thee

aprince, and a iudge ouer vs?

Wilt thou kil roe, as thou diddeft the Egyptian ye fterday?

Then fled Mofes at that faying, & was a ftranger in the land of Madian, where he begare two fennes.

And when fourtie yeres were expired, there appeared to him in the * wildernes Exod 3,2. of mount Sina, an Angel of the Lord in a flame b of fyre, in a buft.

And when Mofes fawe it, he wondred at f fight: & as he drewe nere to confider it, the voyce of the Lord came vnto him, faying,

I am the i God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Ifaac, & the God of Iacob. Then Mofes trembled, & durft not beholde it.

Then the Lord faid to him, m Put of thy fhooes from thy fete :
for the place where thou ftandeft, is holie grounde.

I haue fene, I haue fene the affliction of my people, wuich is in Egypt, and I haue heard their groning, and am come downe to deliuer them: and now come, and I wil fend the e into Egypt.

This Mofes whome thei forfoke, faying, Who made thee a prince and a iudge: the fame God fent for a prince, and a deliue- rer by the hands of the Angel, which ap- peared to him in the buft.

He * br ght them out, doing wonders, and miracles in the land of Egypt, and in the red fea, and in the wildernes * four- tie yeres.

This is that Mofes, which faid vnto the childre of Ifrael, * A o Prophet fhall f Lord your God ra:fe vp vnto you, euen of your brethren, like vnto me: him fhall ye heare.

- This is he that was in the Congrega- tion, in the wildernes with the o Angel, which fpake to him in mount Sina, & with our fathers, who receiued thee liuehe o- racles to giue vnto vs.

To whome our fathers wolde not obey, but refused, & in their hearts turned backe againe into Egypt,

Saying vnto Aaron, * Make a vs gods that may go before vs: for * we knowe not what is become of this Mofes that brought vs out of the land of Egypt.

And they made a calfe in thofe daies, and offred facrifice vnto the idole, and re ioyced in the workes of their owne i:ad.

Then God turned himself away, & * ga- ue them vp to ferue the i hofte of heauen, as it is written in the boke of the Prophetes, * O houfe of Ifaac, haue ye offred to me flayne beafts & facrifices by the fpace of fourtie yeres in the wildernes?

13 Then Ananias anfwered, Lord, I haue heard by many of this ma, how muche euil he hathe done to thy faunces at Ierufale.

14 Moreouer here he hathe autoritie of the hie Priefts, to binde

15 Then the Lord laid vnto Prieft, Go thy way: for he is a h chofen veffel vnto me, to beare my Name before the Gentiles, & Kings, and the children of Ifrael.

16 For I wil fhewe him, how many things he muft fuffre for my

17 Then Ananias went his way, and entred into the houle, and put his hands on him, and laid, Brother Saul, the Lord hathe sent me (own Iesus y appeared vnto thee in the way as thou camest) that thou mightest receiue thy sight, and be filled with the ho- lie Gost.

18 And immediately there fel from his eyes as is had bene scales, & suddenly he recei- ued sight, and arose, and was baptized,

19 And receiued meat, & was stregthened. So was Saul certeine dayes with the disci- ples which were at Damascus.

20 And fraght way he preached Chrift in the Synagogues, that he was the Sonne of God,

21 So that all that heard him, were amafed, and laid, Is not this he, that destroyed the which called on this Name in Ierusalem, & came hither for that intent, y he shulde bring them bounde vnto the hie Priests)

22 But Saul encreafed the more in stregth, and confounded the Iewes which dwelt at Damascus, confirming, that this was the Chrift.

23 And after that many dayes were fulfil- led, the Iewes toke counfel together, to kill him.

24 But their laying await was known of Saul: now they watched the gates day and night, that they might kill him.

25 Then the disciples toke him by night, and put him through the wall, and let him downe in a baskete.

26 And when Saul was come to Ierusalem, he affaide to joyne him self with the disci- ples: but they were all afraid of him, and beleued not that he was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas toke him, and broght him to the Apostles, and declared to them, how he had sene the Lord in the way, & that he had spoken vnto him, & how he had spoke boldely at Damascus in y Name of Iesus.

28 And he was conuersant with them at Ierusalem,

29 And spake boldely in the Name of the Lord Iesus, & spake and disputed with the Greciâs: but they went about to slay him.

30 But when the brethren knewe it, they broght him to Cefarea, & sent him forthe to a Tarsus.

31 Then had the Churches reft through all Iudea, and Galile, and Samaria, and were edified, & walked in the feare of the Lord, and were multiplied by the comfort of the holie Gost.

32 And it came to passe, as Peter walked through out all quarters, he came also to the fainctes which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he founde a certeine man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight yeres, and was sicke of the palfie.

34 The said Peter vnto him, Aeneas, Iesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise and make vp thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron, sawe him, and turned to the Lord.

36 There was also at Ioppa a certeine woman a disciple named Tabitha (which by interpretation is called Dorcas) she was full of good workes & almes which she did.

37 And it came to passe in those dayes, that she was sicke and dyed: and when they had washed her, they laid her in an upper chamber.

38 Now forasmuche as Lydda was nere to Ioppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent vnto him two men, desiring that he wolde not delaye to come vnto them.

39 Then Peter arose and came with them: and when he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber, where all the wid dowes stood by him weeping, and shewing the coates and garments, which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forthe, and knelled downe, and prayed, and turned him to the bodie, and said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes, and when she sawe Peter, she vp.

41 Then he gaue her the hand & lift her vp, and called the faunces & widdowes, and reftored her aliue.

42 And it was known throughout all Iop- pa, and manie beleued in the Lord.

43 And it came to paffe that he taryed ma- nie dayes in Ioppa

7 And when the Angel which spake vnto Cornelius, was 10 Then waxed he an hungred, and wolde haue eate: but while they made some thing readie, he fel into a trance.

11 And he sawe heauen opened, and a cer- teine vessel come downe vnto him, as it had bene a great shete, knit at the foure cor- ners, and was let downe to the earth.

12 Wherein were all maner of foure fored beastes of the earth, and wilde beastes and creping things, and foules of the heauen.

13 And there came a voyce to him, Arise, Pe- ter: kill, and eat.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord: for I haue neuer eaten any thing that is polluted, or vncleane.

15 And the voyce spake vnto him againe the seconde time, The things that God hathe e purified, pollute thou not.

16 This was so done thrife: and the vessel was drawen vp againe into heauen.

17 Now while Peter doutd in his self what this visio which he had sene, meant, behol- de, the men which were sent from Corne- lius, had inquired for Simons house, and stode at the gate, 18 And called, & asked, whether Simó, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 And while Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said vnto him, Beholde, thre me seke thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee downe, & go with them, and s doute nothing: for I haue sent them.

21 Then Peter wee downe to y men, which were sent vnto him fro Cornelius, & said, Beholde, I am he whome ye seke: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the captaine, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and of good reporte among all the nacion of the Iewes, was warned from heauen by an holie Angel, to send for thee into his houfe, and to heare thy wordes.

23 Then called he them in, & lodged them, and the next day, Peter went for the with them, and certeine brethren from Ioppa accompanied him.

24 ¶ And the day after, thei entred into Ce farea. Now Cornelius waited for them, & had called together his kunfmen, and spe- cial friends, 25 And it came to passe as Peter came in, that Cornelius met him, and fel downe at his fete and worshipped him.

26 But Peter toke him vp, saying, Stand vp: for euen I my self am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he came in, & founde manie that were come together.

28 And he said vnto them, Ye knowe that it is an vnlawful thing for a man that is a lewe, to companie or come vnto one of another nation: but God hathe shewed me, that I shulde not call anie man 'pollu- ted, or vncleane.

29 Therefore came I vnto you without say- ing naye, when I was sent for. I aske there- fore, for what intent haue ye sent for me.

30 Then Cornelius said, Foure dayes ago, about this houre, I fasted, and at the nin- the houre I praid in mine house, and be- holde, a man stode before me in bright clothing,

31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine almes are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Ioppa, and call for Si- mon, whose surname is Peter (he is lodged in the house of Simon a tanner by the sea side) who when he cometh, shal speake vn- to thee.

33 Then sent I for thee immediately, and thou hast wel done to come. Now there- fore are we all here present before God, to heare all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a trueth I perceiue, that God is no ac- cepter of persones.

Chap. 2, 19.

a Read Marks 6, 9.

Now about that time, Herode the King stretched for the his hands to vete certeine of the Church.

And he killed James the brother of John with the swords.

And when he sawe that it pleased the Iewes, he proceeded further, to take Peter also (then were daies of unleavened bread)

And when he had caught him, he put him in prison, and deliuered him to foure quaternions of souldiers to be kept, inten- ding after the Pafseouer to bring him for- the to the people.

So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer was made of the Church vnto God for him.

And when Herode wolde haue broght him out vnto the people, the same night slept Peter betwene two souldiers, bounde with two chaines, and the keepers before the dore kept the prison.

And beholde, the Angel of the Lord ca- me vpon them, and a light shined in the houfe, and he smote Peter on the fide, and raised him vp, saying, Arise quickly. And his chaines fel of from his hands.

And the Angel said vnto him, Girde thy self, and binde on thy sandales. And so he did. Then he said vnto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and followe me.

So Peter came out and followed him, & knowe not that it was true, which was do- ne by the Angel, but thought he had sene a vision.

Now when they were past the first and the secode watche, they came vnto the yro- gate, that leadeth vnto the citie, which opened to them by it owne accorde, and they went out, and passed through one strete, and by and by the Angel departed from him.

And when Peter was come to him self, he said, Now I know for a trueth, that the Lord hathe sent his Angel, and hathe deli- uered me out of the hand of Herode, and from all the waiting for of the people of the Iewes.

And as he considered the thing, he came to the houfe of Marie, the mother of John, whofe surname was Marke, where manie were gathered together and played.

And when Peter knocked at the entrie dore, a maide came for the to hearken, na- med Rhode.

But when she knew Peters voyce, she o- pened not the entrie dore for gladnes, but ran in, and tolde how Peter stode before the entrie.

But they said vnto her, Thou art mad. Yet she affirmed it constantly, that it was so. Then said they, It is his s Angel.

But Peter continued knocking, and whe thei had opened it, and sawe him, they we- te astonied.

And he beckened vnto them with the hand, to holde their peace, and tolde them how the Lord had broght him out of the prison. And he said, Go shewe these things vnto James and to the brethren: and he de- parted and went into another place.

Now aflone as it was day, there was no finale trouble among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.

And when Herode had foght for him, & founde him not, he examined the kepers, and commanded them to be led to be punished. And he went downe from Iudea to Cefarea, and there abode.

Then Herode intended to make warte against them of Tyrus and Sido, but they came all with one accorde vnto him, and persuaded Blastus the Kings chamber- laine, and they desired peace, because their coitrey was nourished by the Kings land.

And vpon a day appointed, Herode a- rayed him self in royal apparel, and fate on the iudgement seat, and made an ora- tion vnto them.

And the people gaue a shoute, saying, The voyce of God, and not of man.

But immediatly the Angel of the Lord smote him, because he gaue not glorie vnto God, so that he was eate of wormes, and gaue vp the goft.

And the worde of God = grewe, and multiplied.

So Barnabas and Saul returned from Ie- rusalem, when they had fulfilled their of- fice, and toke with them John, whome sur- name was Marke.

And when they were come out of the Synagogue of the Iewes, the Gentiles be- foght, that they wolde preache thefe wor- des to them the next Sabbath dey.

Now when the Congregation was dif- folued, manie of the Iewes, and profelytes that feared God, followed Paul & Barnabas, which fpake to them; and exhorted them to continue in the grace of God.

And the next Sabbath dey came almoft the whole citie together, to heare y worde of God.

But whe the Iewes fawe the people, thei were ful of r enuie, & fpake againft tho- fe things, which were fpoken of Paul, con-trarying them, and railing on them.

Then Paul and Barnabas fpake bol- dely, and faid, "It was 1 Then came downe a certeine from Iudea, and taught the brethren, saying, "Except ye be circumcised after the maner of Moses, ye can not be saved.

2 And when there was great dissention, and disputation by Paul & Barnabas against them, they ordeined that Paul and Barnabas, and certeine other of them, shulde go vp to Ierusalem vnto the Apostles & Elders about this question.

3 Thus being sent forth by the Church, they passed through Pharise, and Samarita, declaring the conuersion of the Gentiles: and they brought great love vnto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Ierusalem, they were receiued of the Church, and of the Apostles and Elders, and they declared what things God had done by them.

5 But said they, certeine of the secte of the b Pharises, which did beleue, rose vp, say- ing, that it was nedeful to circumcise the and to commande them to kepe the Law of Moses.

6 Then the Apostles & Elders came toge- ther to loke to this matter.

1 Now as they paffed through Amphi- polis, and Apollonia, they came to Theffalonica, where was a Synagogue of the Jewes.

2 And Paul, as his maner was, went in vnto them, & thre Sabbath dayes difputed with them by the Scriptures,

5 But the Jewes which beleued not, moued with enuie, toke vnto them certeine vaga- bondes or wicked felowes, and when they had affembled the multitude, they made a tumulte in the citie, & made affaut againft the houfe of Iafon, & foght to bring them out to the people.

9 Then they troubled the people, and the heads of the citre, when they heard these things.

9 Notwithstanding when they had recei- ued sufficient affliction of Iafon and of the other, they let them go.

10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul & Silas by night vnto Berea, which when they were come thither, entred into the Synagogue of the Iewes.

11 These were also more noble men then they which were at Theffalonica, which received the worde with all readings, and searched the Scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore manie of them beleued, & of honeste women, which were Grecians, and men not a fewe.

13 But when the Iewes of Theffalonica knewe, that the worde of God was also preached of Paul at Berea, they came th- ther also, and moued the people.

15 And they that did conduit Paul, broght him vnto Athenes: and when they had re- ceived a commandement vnto Silas and Timotheus that they flulde come to him at once, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at A- thenes, his spirit was stirred in him, when he sawe the citre subject to idolatrie.

17 Therefore he disputed in the Synago- gue with the Iewes, and with them that were religious, and in the market daily with whomof souer he met.

18 Then certeine philosophers of the Epicures, and of the Stoickes, disputed with him, and some faid, What wil this 'babler fay? Others faid, He femeth to be a fetter forthe of strange gods (because he prea- ched vnto them Iefus, & the refurrectio.)

And he disputed in the Synagogue eue- rie Sabbath day, and exhorted the lewes, & the Grecians.

Now when Silas & Timotheus were co- me from Macedonia, Paul 4 burned in spirit, testifying to the Lewes that Iefus was the Christ.

And when they resisted and blasphemed, he shouke his raiment, & said vnto them, 4 Your blood be vpon your owne head: I am cleane: fro hence forthe wil I go vnto the Gentiles.

So he departed thence, and entred into a certeine mans house, named Iustus, a wor- shipper of God, whose house ioyned hard to the Synagogue,

And 5 Crispus the chief ruler of the Sy- nagogue, beleued in the Lord with all his housholde:
and many of the Corin- thias hearing it, beleued & were baptized.

Then said the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Feare not, but speake, & holde not thy peace.

For 6 I am with thee, and no man shall lay hands on thee to hurt thee: for I haue mu- che people in this citie.

So he continued there a yere and six mo- neths, and taught the worde of God among them.

Now when Gallio was Deputie of 7 A- chaia, the lewes arose with one accorde against Paul, and broght him to the iud- gement seat,

Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the Law.

And as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the lewes, If it were a matter of wrong, or an euil dede, oye lewes, I wolde according to reason main- teine you.

But if it be a question of wordes, and na- mes, and of your Law, loke ye to it your selues: for I wil be no iudge of those things.

And he draue them from the iudgement seat.

Then toke all the Grecians Sosthenes the chief ruler of the Synagogue, and bet him before the iudgement seat: but Gallio cared nothing for those things.

But when Paul had taried there yet a good while, he toke leaue of the brethren, and sailed into Syria (and with him Prif- cilla and Aquila) after that he had: short- ne his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vowe.

Then he came to Ephefus, and left them there: but he entred into the Synagogue and disputed with the lewes.

Who desired him to tary a longer time with them: but he wolde not consent,

But badachem fare wel, saying, I must nedes kepe this feast that commeth, in Ie- rusale: but I wil returne againe vnto you, if God wil. So he sailed from Ephefus.

And whe he came downe to 9 Cefares, he went vp to terafalem: & when he had fa- luted the Church, he wet downe vnto An- ciochia.

Now when he had taried there a while, he departed, and went through the countrey of Galacia & Phrygia by order, strengthening all the disciples.

And a certeine lewe named 10 Apollos, boine at Alexandria, came to Ephefus, an e- loquent ma, & 11 mightie in the Scriptures.

The same was 12 instructed in the way of the Lord, & he spake fervently in the Spi- rit, and taught diligently the things of the Lord, & knew but the 13 baptisme of John onely.

And he began to speake boldly in the Synagogue. Whome when Aquila & Prif- cilla had heard, they toke him vnto them, and 14 expounded vnto him the 15 way of God more perfectly.

And when he was minded to go into A- chaia, the brethren exhorting him, wrote to the disciples to receaue him: and after he was come thither, he holpe the muche which had beleued through grace.

For mightely he contured publicly the lewes with great vehemencie, shewing by the Scriptures, that Iefus was the Christ.

And it came to paffe, while Apollos was at Corinthus, that Paul whe he passed through the vpper coastes, came to Ephefus, and founde certeine disciples,

And said vnto the, Haue ye receued the holie Gost fence ye beleued? And they said vnto him, We haue not so muche as heard whether there be an holie Gost.

And he said vnto them, 1 Vnto what we- re ye then baptized? And they said, Vnto Johns baptisme.

Then said Paul, 2 John verely baptized with the baptisme of repentance, saying vnto the people, that they shulde beleue in him, which shulde come after him, that is, in Christ Iefus.

So when they heard it, they were 3 bapti- z ed in the Name of the Lord Iefus.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 ¶ Moreover he went into the Synagogue, & spake boldly for the space of the moneths, disputing & exhorting to the things that apperteine to the king dome of God.

9 But when certeine were hardened, and disobeyed, speaking euil of the way of God, before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, and disputed daily in the schole of one ¶ Tyrannus.

10 And this was done by the space of two yeres, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the worde of the Lord Iefus, both Iewes and Grecians.

11 And God wrought no smale miracles by the hands of Paul,

12 So that from his bodie were broght vnto the sicke, 'kerchefts' or handkerchefts, and the discases departed from them, and the euil spirits went out of them.

13 Then certeine of the vagabonde Iewes, 'exorcistes, toke in hand to name ouer the which had euil spirits, the Name of the Lord Iefus, saying, We 'adiure you by Iefus, whome Paul preacheth.

14 (And there were certeine sonnes of Secua a Iewe, the Priest, abous seuen which did this)

15 And the euil spirit answered, and said, Iefus I acknowledge, and Paul I knowe: but who are ye?

16 And the man in whome y euil spirit was, ran on them, & ouercame them, & preuated against them, so that they fled out of that house, naked, and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Iewes & Grecians also, which dwelt at Ephefus, & feare came on them all, and the Name of the Lord Iefus was magnified.

18 And many that beleued, came and cofessed, and a shewed their works.

19 Many also of them which vfwd curious artes, broght their bokes, and burned them before all men, and they counted the price of them, & founde it h fiftie thousand pieces of siluer.

20 So the worde of God grew mighty, and preuated.

21 ¶ Now when these things were accomplished, Paul purposed by the Spirit to pass through Macedonia and Achaia, and to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I haue bene there, I must also se Rome.

22 So sent he into Macedonia two of them that ministered vnto him, Timotheus and Erastus, but he remained in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no smale trouble about that vway.

24 For a certeine man named Demetrius a siluersmith, which made siluer temples of Diana, broght great gainers vnto the craftes men:

25 Whome he called together, with the workmen of like things, and said, Sirs, ye knowe that by this crafte we haue our goods.

26 Moreover ye se and heare, that not alone at Ephefus, but almoft through out all Asia this Paul hath persuaded, & turned away much people, saying, That they be not gods which are made with hands,

27 So that not onely this thing is dangerous vnto vs, that the state shulde be reprobued, but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana shulde be nothing esteemed, and that it wolde come to pass that her magnificence, which all Asia and the world worfspimeth, shulde be destroyed.

28 Now when they heard it, they were full of wrath, and cryed out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephefians.

29 And the whole citie was full of cofusion, and they rushed into the commune place with one assent, and caught Gaius, and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, & Paul's companions of his journey.

30 And whe Paul wolde haue enred in vnto the people, the disciples fufred him nor. 31 Certeine also of the chief of Asia which were his friends, sent vnto him, desirig him that he wolde not present him self in the commune place.

32 Some therefore cryed one thing, and some another: for the assemble was out of order, and the more parte knewe not wherefore they were come together.

33 And some of the companie strewe forthe Alexander, the Iewes thrusting him forwardes. Alexander then beckened with the hand, and wolde haue excused the matter to the people.

34 But when they knewe that he was a Iewe, there arose a froute almoſte for the ſpace of two houres, of all men crying, Great is Diana of the Epheſians.

35 Then the towne clarke when he had ſtayed the people, ſaid, Ye me of Epheſus, what man is it that knoweth not how that the citie of the Epheſians is a worſhipper of the great goddeſſe Diana, and of the image, which came downe from Iupiters

Paul goeth into Macedonia and into Grecia. 7 He celebrated the Lords supper and preacheth. 8 At Troas he raised up Eutychus. 17 At Ephesus he called the Elders of the Church together, committed the keeping of Gods flocke vnto them, warneth them of false teachers, maketh his prayer with them, and departeth by ship towards Ierusalem.

2 Now after the tumult was ceased, Paul called the disciples vnto him, and embraced them, and departed to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone through those parties, and had exhorted them with manie wordes, he came into Grecia.

3 And hauling tarred there three moneths, because the Iewes laid waite for him, as he was about to saile into Syria, he purposed to returne through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea, and of them of Thefalonica, Aristarchus, and Secundus, & Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus, & of them of Asia Tychicus, and Trophimus.

5 These were before, & tarred vs at Troas.

6 And we sailed for the from Philippi, after the daies of unleavened bread, & came vnto them to Troas in siue daies, where we abode seuen daies.

7 And the first day of the weke, the disciples being come together to break bread, Paul preached vnto the, readie to departe on the morowe, and continued the preaching vnto midnight.

8 And there were manie lightes in an vpper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there fate in a windowe a certeine yong man, named Eutychus, fallen into a depe slepe: & as Paul was long preaching, he ouercome with slepe, fell downe from the third lofte, and was taken vp dead.

10 But Paul went downe, and laid him self vpon him, & embraced him, saying, Trouble not your selues: for his life is in him.

11 So when Paul was come vp againe, and had broken bread, & eaten, he commoned a long while til the dawning of the daye, and so he departed.

12 And they broght the boie aliue, and thei were not a little comforted.

13 Then we went for the to ship, & sailed vnto the cine 4 Assos, that we might receiue Paul there: for so had he appointed, and wolde him self go a fote.

14 Now when he was come vnto vs to Assos, and we had receiued him, we came to Mitylenes.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day ouer against Chios, and the next daye we arriued at Samos, and tarred at Trogylium: the next daye we came to Miletum.

16 For Paul had determined to saile by Ephesus, because he wolde not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted to be, if he colde possible, at Ierusalem, at the day of Pentecoste.

17 ¶ Wherefore from Miletum he sent to Ephesus, & called the Elders of Church.

18 Who when they were come to him, he said vnto them, Ye knowe fro the first day that I came into Asia, after what maner I haue bene with you at all seasons,

19 ¶ Seruing the Lord with all modestie, and with manie teares, and tentacions, which came vnto me by the layings awaite of the Iewes,

Yea, ye knowe, that these hands haue ministred vnto my necefsities, & to them that were with me.

I haue shewed you all things, how that so laboring, ye oght to supporte the weak, & to remeber the wordes of the Lord Iesus, how that he said, 'It is a blessed thing to giue, rather then to receiue.

And when he had thus spoken, he kneled downe, and prated with them all.

Then they wept all abundantly, and fel on Pauls necke, and kissed him,

Being chiefly sorie for the wordes which he spake, That they shulde se his face no more. And thei accompanied him vnto the ship.

CHAP. XXI.

The commune prayers of the faithful 8 Philipps froze daughters prophetesses 23 Pauls constancie to heare the ertes, as Agabus & others forepoke, although he was otherwise consisted by the brethren. 24 The great danger that he was on, and how he escaped.

And as we lashed forth, and were departed from them, we came with a straight course vnto Coos, and the daye following vnto the Rhodes, & from thence vnto Patara.

And we founde a ship that went ouer vnto Phenice, and went abarde, & set forth.

And when we had discouered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and failed toward Syria, and arriued at Tyros: for there the ship vniaded the burden.

And when we had founde disciples, we taryed there seuen dayes. And they tolde Paul through the Spirit, that he shulde not go vp to Ierusalem.

But when the daies were ended, we departed, and went our way, and thei all accompanied vs with their wiues and children, euen out of the citie: & we kneling downe on the shore, prayed.

Then when we had embraced one ano- ther, we toke ship, & thei returned home.

And when we had ended the course from Tyrus, we arriued at Ptolemais, and lalu- ted the brethren, and abode with them one daye.

And the next day, Paul & thei that were with him, departed, and came vnto Cefa- rea: and we entred vnto the house of Philip- pe the Euangelist, which was one of the seuen Deacons, and abode with him.

Now he had foure daughters virgines, which did prophecie.

And as we taryed there manie dayes, there came a certcine Prophet fro Iudea, named Agabus.

And when he was come vnto vs, he toke Pauls girdle, and bounde his owne hands and fete, and said, 'Thus saith the holie Gost, So shal the Iewes at Ierusalem binde the man that oweth this girdle, and shal deliuer him into the hands of Gentiles.

And when we had heard these things, bothe we and other of the same place be- sght him that he wolde not go vp to Ierusalem.

Then Paul answered, and said, What do ye weping and breaking mine heart? For I am readie not to be bounde onely, but al- so to dye at Ierusalem for the Name of the Lord Iefus.

So when he wolde not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The wil of the Lord be done.

And after those dayes we trusted vp our fardees, and went vp to Ierusalem.

There went with vs also certcine of the disciples of Cefarea, & broght with them one Mnasion of Cyprus, an olde disciple, with whome we shulde lodge.

And when we were come to Ierusalem, the brethren receiued vs gladly.

And the next daye Paul went in with vs vnto James: and all the Elders were the- re assembled.

And when he had embraced them, he tolde by ordre all things, that God had wroght among the Gentiles by his mini- ftracion.

So when thei heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said vnto him, Thou seest, bro- ther, how manie thousand Iewes there are which beleue, and they are all zealous of the Law.

Now they are informed of thee, that thou reacheft all the Iewes, which are a mong the Gentiles, to forfake Moses, and faift, that they ought not to circumcife their children, nether to liue after the scu- ftomes.

them, and entered in- to the Temple, declaring the acceptifi-ment of the cases of the purification, vn- til that an offering shulde be offered for e- uerie one of them.

27 And when the seuen dayes were almoste ended, the Iewes which were of Asia (whê they sawe him in the Temple) moued all the people, and laid hands on him,

28 Crying, Men of Israel, helpe: this is the man that teacheth all men euery where a- gainst the people, and the Law, and this place: moreover, he hathe broght Grecias into the Temple, and hathe polluted this holie place.

29 For they had sene before Trophimus an Ephesia with him in the citie, whome they supposed that Paul had broght into the Temple.

30 Then all the citie was moued, & the people ran together:
and they toke Paul, and drewe him out of the Teple, & forthwith the doores were shut.

31 But a, they went about to kill him, tydings came vnto the chief Captaine of the bade, that all Ierusalem was on an uproare.

32 Who immediately toke souldiers and Centurions, and ran downe vnto them: and when they sawe the chief Captaine & the souldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chief Captaine came nere and toke him, & commanded him to be bounde with two chaines, and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And one cryed this, another that, among the people. So when he colde not knowe the cerceinetic for the tumultue, he comanded him to be led into the cattle.

35 And whê he came vnto the grieces, it was so that he was Canst thou speake Greke?

39 Then Paul said, Douteles I am a man which am a Iewe, & citizen of * Tarsus, a famous citie in Cilicia, & I beseeche thee, suffre me to speake vnto the people.

7 So I fel vnto the earth, and heard a voy- ce, saying vnto me, Saul, Saul, why perse- cutest thou me?

8 Then I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said to me, I am Iesus of Nazaire, whome thou persecutest.

9 Moreover they that were with me, sawe in dede a light and were afraid: but they heard not the voyce of him that spake vnto me.

10 Then I said, What shal I do, Lord? And the Lord said vnto me, Arise, and go into Damascus: and there it shalbe tolde thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to do.

f This declareth that God hath so many means to deliver his children out of anger as there are creatures in the world, so that the other series can not obtain so creatively against them, but he hath no more means to defeat their wicked practices.

16 But when Pauls sisters f some heard of their laying await, he went, and entred into the castle, and to the Paul,

17 And Paul called one of f Céturions vnto him, & said, Bring this yong man vnto the chief captaine: for he hath a certeine thing to shewe him.

18 So he toke him, and broght him to the chief captaine, and said, Paul the prisoner called me vnto him, and prayed me to bring this yong ma vnto thee, which hath he some thing to say vnto thee.

19 Then the chief captaine toke him by the hand, and went aparte with him alone, and asked him, What hast thou to shewe me?

20 And he said, The Iewes haue conspired to desire thee, that thou woldest bring for the Paul to morrow unto the Council, as though they woldest inquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But let them not persuade thee: for there lie in waite for him of them, more then fourteen men, which haue bounde them selues with an othe, that they wil nether eat nor drinke, til they haue killed him: and now are they readie, and wait for thy promes.

22 The chief captaine then let the yong man depate, and charged him to speake it to no man, that he had "shewed him these things.

23 And he called vnto him two certeine Centurions, saying, Make readie two hundredth souldiers, that they may go to Cefarea, and horsmen thre score and ten, and two hundredth, with darces at the thirde houre of the night.

24 And let them make readie an horse that Paul being set on, may be broght safe vnto Felix the Gouverneur.

25 And he wrote an eepistle in this maner, Claudius Lyfias vnto the moste noble Gouvernour Felix sendeth greeting.

27 As this man was taken of the Iewes, and shulde haue bene killed of them, I came vpon them with the garison, and rescued him, b perceiving that he was a Romaine.

28 And when I wolded haue knowen the cause, wherefore they accused him, I broght him for the into their council.

29 There I perceived that he was accused of questions of their Law, but had no crime worthie of death, or of bondes.

30 And whe it was shewed me, how that the Iewes laid wait for the man, I sent him straight way to thee, and commanded his accusers to speake before thee the things that they had against him. Fare wel.

31 Then the souldiers as it was commanded them, toke Paul, and broght him by night to Antipatris.

32 And the next day, they left the horsmen to go with him, and returned vnto the eastel.

33 Now when they came to Cefarea, they delivered the epistle to the Gouvernour, & presented Paul also vnto him.

34 So when the Gouvernour had red it, he asked of what 1
prouince he was: and whe he vnderstode that he was of Cilicia, 35 I wil heare thee, said he, when thine accusers also are come, & commanded him to be kept in Herodes iudgement hall.

9 And the Iewes likewise affirmed, saying that it was so.

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cefars iudgemet seat, where I oght to be judged: to the Lewes I haue done no wrong, as thou verie wel knowest.

11 For if I haue done wrong, or committed anie thing worthie of death, I refuse not to diet but if there be none of these things, whereof they accuse me, no man can deliver me to them: I appeale vnto Cefar.

12 Then when Festus had spoken with the Council, he answered, Hast thou appealed vnto Cefar vnto Cefar shalt thou go.

13 And after certeine dayes, King Agrippa and Bernice came downe to Cefarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had remained there manie dayes, Festus proposed Pauls cause vn to the King, saying, There is a certeine man left in prison by Felix.

15 Of whome when I came to Jerusalem, the high Priests & Elders of the Lewes informed me, and desired to haue iudgemet against him.

16 To whome I answered, that it is not the maner of the Romaines for favour to deliver anie man to the death before that he which is accused, haue the accusers before him, and haue place to defend him self, concerning the crime.

17 And the third day after, Paul called the chief of the Iewes together: & when thei were come, he said vnto them, Men o brethren, though I haue committed nothing agaist the people, or Lawes of the fathers, yet was I deliuered prisoner from Ierusalé into the hands of the Romaines.

28 Be it knowen therefore vnto you, that this saluacion of God is sent to the Gentiles, and they shal heare it.

THE EPISTLE OF
the Apostle Paul to the Romaines.

THE ARGUMENT.

The great mercy of God is declared towards man in Christ Iesus, whose righteousness is made our through faith. For when man by reason of his own corruption could not fulfil the Law, yet, committed more abominably, both against the Law of God and nature, the infinite bountie of God, mindful of his promise made to his servant Abraham, the father of all believers, and ended that man's salvation should only stand in the perfect obedience of his Sonne Iesus Christ: so that not only the circumcised Iewes, but also the uncircumcised Gentiles should be saved by faith in him: even as Abraham before he was circumcised, was counted more than through faith, and yet afterwards received circumcision, as a scale or badge of the same righteousness by faith. And to the intent, that none should think that the covenant which God made to him, and his posteritie, was not performed either because the Iewes received not Christ (which was the blessed side) or else believed not that he was the true redeemer, because he did not only, or at least more notably preserve the Iewes, the examples of Israel and Esau declare, that all are not Abraham's posteritie, which come of Abraham according to the flesh: but also the verie strangers and Gentiles grafted in by faith, are made heaves of the promise. The cause whereof is the onelie wil of God: forasmuch as of his free mercy he electeth some to be saved, and of his quite judgement relecteth others to be damned, as appeareth by the testimonies of the Scriptures. Yet to the intent that the Iewes should not be to much be beaten down, nor the Gentiles to much be passed up, the example of Elias proust, that God bathe yet his elect even of the natural posteritie of Abraham, though it appeareth not so to man's eye: and for that preferment that the Gentiles have, it proceed of the liberal mercy of God, which be at length wil stretch towards the Iewes again, and so gather the whole Israel (which is his Church) of them both. Thus ground work of faith and doctrine layed, instructions of Christian maners follow: teaching curie man to walk in roundness of conscience in his vocation, with all patience and humbleness, reverencing, and obeying the magistrate, exercising charity, putting of the old man, and putting on Christ, bearing with the weake, and losing one another according to Christ's example. Finally S. Paul after his commendations to the brethren exhorteth them to vniue, and to see false preachers and flatterers, and so concludeth with a prayer.

God, called to be Saints: h Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and go. 1. 2. from the Lord Iesus Christ.

8 First I thanke my God through Iesus Christ for you all, because your faith is published throughout the whole world.

9 For God is my witness (whome I serue in my spirit in G Gospel of his Sone) that without ceasing I make mecion of you

10 Always in my prayers, beseeching, that by some meanes one time or other I might have a prosperous iouscy by the wil of God, to come vnto you.

11 For I long to se you, that I might be stowe among you some spiritual gifts, to strengthen you,

12 That is, that I might be comforted to- gether with you, through our mutual faith, bothe yours and mine.

13 Now my brethren, I woldeth that ye shul- denot be ignorant, how that I have often times purposed to come vnto you (but ha- ue bene let hitherto) that I might have some s frute also among you, as I have a- mong the other Gentiles.

14 I am detter both to the Grecians, and to the Barbarians, both to the wisemen & vnto the vnsise.

15 Therefore, as much as in me is, I am ready SS. ii.

For I am not a ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the * power of God vnto saluatio to euerie one that beleueth, to the Iewe first, and also to the 'Grecian.

17 For by it the *righteousnes of * God is reueiled, from faith to faith: as it is writte*, The iuste shal liue by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is reueiled from heauen against all vngodlines, and vn- righteousnes of men, which with holde the trueth in vnrighteousnes, 19 Forasmuche as y, which may be known of God, is manifest in them: for God ha- the shewod it vnto them.

20 For the inufsible things of him, that is, his eternal power and Godhead, are fe- ne by the creation of the worlde, being cō sidered in his workes, to the ineft that they shulde be without excufe:

21 * Because that when they knewe God, they glorified him not as God, nether were thankful, but became vaine in their imaginations, and their fowlish heart was full of darkness.

22 When they professed them selues to be wise, they became fooles.

23 For they turned the glorie of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, & of birds, and foure footed beastes, & of creeping things.

24 Wherefore also God they gaue them vp to their hearts lustes, vnto uncleannes, to defile their owne bodies betwene the selues:

25 Which turned the trueth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, "forfaking the Creator, which is blessed for euer, Amen.

26 For this cause God gaue them vp vnto vile affection: for euen their women did change the natural vse into that which is against nature.

27 And likewise also the men left the natural vse of the woman, and burned in their luste one toward another, and man with man wrought filthines, & receiued in them selues such recompense of their error, as was mete.

28 For as they regarded not to knowe God, euen so God deliuered them vp vnto a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not conuenient,

29 Being ful of all vnrighteousnes, fornica- tion, wickednes, coueteousnes, malicious- nes, full of enuie, of murther, of debate, of difceice, taking all things in the euil parte, whisperers,

30 Backebiters, haters of God, doers of wrog, proude, boasters, inuenters of euil things, difobedient to parents, without vnder-standing, couenant breakers, without na- tural affection, fuche

6 God forbid: els how fhall God iudge the worldle?

7 For if † veritie of God hathe more abū- ded through my lie vnto his glorie, why am I yet condemned as a finner?

8 And (as we are blamed, and as fome af- firme that we fay) why do we not euil, that good may come thereof? whose damnation is iuft.

9 What then d are we more excellens? No, in no wife: for we haue already proued, that all, bothe Iewes and Gentiles are vnder finne.

10 As it is writte, *There is none righteous, no not one.

11 There is none that vnderftandeth: there is none that feketh God.

k Or fidelisie in performing his promes.

l The Law of faith is the Gospel which offreeth faliation with condition (it thou believe) & condition alio Christ feely gueth to vs. & the condition alio of the Law is (if thou do- oft all these things) the &c onely Christ hashe inflicted for vs.

m Meaning, that they are all justified by our means, & if they will be the able dif- reance, it only fluideth to wonder (or in effect there is none.

n The doctri- ne of faith is the death hashe fati- fied the Law:

of our own corruption, is now made effectual to vs by Christ Iefus.

conciliation through faith in his blood to declare his & righteousness, by the forgi- uenes of the sinnes that are passed through the patience of God,

6 To shewe at this time his righteousness, that he might be iuste, and a justifier of him which is of the faith of Iefus.

7 Where is then the renouncing? It is exclu- ded. By what Law of workers? Nay: but by the Law of faith.

8 Therefore we conclude that a man is iustified by faith without the works of the Law.

9 God, is he the God of the Iewes only, & not of the Gentiles also? Yes, euen of the Gentiles also.

10 For it is one God who shall iustifie circumcision of faith, and vncircumcision through faith.

11 Do we then make the Law of none effect through faith? God forbid: yea we establish the Law.

12 The ornament of the Law: for it embrace Christ, who by his death hath iustified the Law: so that the Law which could not bring vs to salvation by reason of our own corruption, is now made effectual to vs by Christ Iesus.

CHAP. III.

1. 17 He declareth that iustification is a free gift euen by them them sinners, of whom the Iewes must be reckoned as of Abraham and of David, '15 And also by the office of the Law & faith.

n That is, by workers.

Gen. 17, 11.

1 What shal we fay then, that Abra- ham our father hashe foode & co- cerning the flesh?

2 For if Abraham were iustified by workers, he hashe wherein to breioyce, but not with God.

3 For what faith the Scripture? Abraham beleued God, and it was counted to him for righteousness.

4 Now to him that & worketh, the wages is not counted by fauour, but by dette,

5 But to him that & worketh not, but bele- ueth in him that & iustifieth the vngodlie, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Euen as Dauid declareth the bleffed- nes of the ma, vnto whome God imputeth righteousness without workers, faying,

7 Bleffed are thei, whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sinnes are couered.

8 Bleffed u the ma, to whome the Lord imputeth not sinne.

9 Came this bleffednes then vpon the circumcision onely, or vpon the vncircumcision also? For we say, that faith was imputed vnto Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then imputed? when he was circumcised, or vncircumcised? not when he was circumcised, but when he was vncircumcised.

11 *After he receiued the signe of circumcision, as y feale of the righteousness of the faith which he had, when he was vncircumcised, that he shoulde be the father of all them that beleue, not being circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed to them also,

12 And the father of circumcision, not vnto them onely which are of the circumcision, but vnto them also that walke in the steppes of the faith of our father Abraham, which he had when he was vncircumcised.

13 For the promises that he shoulde be the heire of the worlde, was not given to Abraham, or to his feed, through the Law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For if they which are of the Law, he heires, faith is made voyde, & the promes is made of none effect.

15 For the Law causeth wrath: for where no Law is, there u no transgression.

16 Therefore it is by faith, that it might co- me by grace, and the promes might be si- re to all the fede, not to that onely which is of the Law: but alfo to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all,

17 (As it is written, "I haue made thee a fa- ther of many nacions) euen before God whome he beleued, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth thofe things which be not, as thogh they were.

18 Which Abraham aboue hope, beleued vnder hope, that he fluulde be the father of many naciós: according to that which was spoken to him, "So shal thy fede be.

19 And he stnot weake in the faith, conside- red not his owne bodie, which was now dead, being almoft an hundreth yere olde, nether the deadnes of Saras wombe.

20 Nether did he doute of the promes of God through vnbeliefe, but was streng- thened in y faith, & gaue glorie to God, 21 Being fully allured that he which had promised, was also able to do it.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now it is not written for him only, that it was imputed to him for righteousness,

24 But also for vs, to whome it shall be imputed for righteousness, which beleue in him that raised vp Iesus our Lord from the dead.

25 Who was delivered to death for our sines, & is risen againe for our iustification.

for a c good ma it may be that one dare dye.

8 But God feteth out his loue towarde vs, seing y while we were yet sinners, Christ dyed for vs.

9 Muche more then, being now iustified by his blood, we shal be faued from wrath through him.

10 For if when we were f enemies, we were recociled to God by the death of his Son- ne, muche more being recociled, we shal- be faued by his life.

11 And not onely so, but we also reioyce in God through our Lord Iesus Christ, by whome we have now receiued y atonemet.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sinne entred into the worlde, and death by sinne, and so death wér ouer all men: for asmuche as all men haue sinned.

13 For vnto the t time of the Law was sin- ne in the worlde, but sinne is not imputed, while there is no Law.

14 But death reigned from Adam to Moses euen ouer them also that sinned not b after the like maner of the transgression of i A- dam, which was y figure of k him that was to come.

15 But yet the gift is not so, as is the offence: for if through the offence of one, many be dead, muche more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man Ie- sus Christ, hathe abunded vnto many.

16 Nether is the gift so, as that which entred in by one that sinned: for the faute came of one offence vnto condemnation: but the gift is of many offences to iustification.

17 For if by y offence of one, death reigned through one, muche more shal they which receiue the abundance of grace, and of the gift of m righteousness, reigne in life through one, that is Iesus Christ.

18 Likewise the as by the offence of one the fault came on all men to condemnation, so by the justifying of one the benefice abounded toward n all men to y justification of life.

19 For as by one man also obedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shal many also be made righteous.

20 Moreouer the o Law entred thereupon that the offence shulde v abunde : neuer- theles where sinne abunded, there grace abunded muche more:

21 That as sinne had reigned vnto death, so might grace also reigne by righteous vnto eternal life, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

1.7 22 The vfe of the Law, 4.24 And how Christ hath delivered us from it. 16 The infirmitie of the faithful. 23 The dangerous fight between the fleft & the Spirit.

1 K Nowe ye not, brethren, (for I fpeake to them that knowe the Lawe) that the Law hath dominion ouer a man as long as he liueh?

2 For the woman which is in fubiectiō to a man, is bounde by the law to the man, while he liueh: but if the man be dead, fhe is deliuered from the law of the man.

3 So then, if while the man liueh, fhe take another man, fhe fhall be called an adulteresse: but if the man be dead, fhe is free frō the Law, so that fhe is not an adulteresse, though fhe take another man.

4 So ye, my brethren, are dead also to the Law by the body of Christ, that ye shoulde be vnto another, euen vnto him that is raised vp frō the dead, that we shoulde bring forth the fruit vnto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of finnes, which were by the Law, had force in our members, to bring forth the fruit vnto death.

6 But now we are deliuered from the Law, being dead vnto it, wherein we were holden, that we shoulde serue in newnes of Spirit, and not in the oldenes of the letter.

7 What fhall we fay then? 11 the Law fin- ne: God forbid. Nay, I knewe not finne, but by the Law: for I had not knowen I luft, except the Law had faid, "Thou fhalt not luft.

8 But finne toke an occafion by the com- mandement, and wrogt in me all maner of cœupificence: for without the Law fin- ne is dead.

9 For I once was a liue, without the Law: but when the commandement came, finne reuiued,

10 But I dyed: and the fame cœmandement which was ordemed vnto life, was founde to be vnto me vnto death.

11 For finne toke occafion by the comman- dement, and difceued me, and thereby flew me.

12 Wherefore the Law is "holie, and the commandement is holie, and luft, & good.

13 Was that the which is good, made death vnto me? God forbid: but finne, that it might: appeare finne, wrogt death in me by that which is good, that finne might be out of meafure finful by the commande- ment.

14 For we knowe that the Lawe is fpiritual, but I am carnal, folde vnder finne.

15 For I alowe not that which I do: for what I wolde, that do I not: but what I hate, that do I.

16 If I do then that which I wolde not, I confent to the Law, that it is good.

17 Now then, it is no more I, that do it, but the finne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I knowe, that in me, that is, in my fleft, dwelleth no good thing: for to wil is prefont with me: but I finde no meanes to performe that which is good.

19 For I do not the good thing, which I wolde, but the euil, which I wolde not, that do I.

20 Now if I do that I wolde not, it is no more I that do it, but the finne that dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then by the Law, that when I wolde do good, euil is prefent with me.

22 For I deliie in the Law of God, concer- ning the inner man:

23 But I fe another "law in my membres, rebelling againft the

Now then there is no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus, which walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the Law of the Spirit of life which is in Christ Iesus, hath he freed me from the law of finne and of death.

3 For (that that was impossible to the Law, in as inuche as it was 'weak, because of the flesh.) God sending his owne Sonne, in the & similitude of sinful flesh, and 'for fane, condemned fane in the flesh,

4 That the righteousness of & Law might be fulfilled in vs, which walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh, favour the things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

6 For the wisdom of the flesh is death: but the wisdom of the Spirit is life & peace, 7 Because the wisdom of the flesh is entimite against God: for it is not subject to the Law of God, neither in dede can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh, can not please God.

9 Now ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, because the Spirit of God dwel- leth in you: but if ante man hath he not the Spirit of Christ, the fame is not his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the 'bodie is dead, because of finne: but the Spirit is li- fe for righteousness sake.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised vp Iesus from the dead, dwell in you, he that raised vp Christ from the dead, shall also quit ken your mortal bodies, because that his Spirit dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore brethren, we are deters not to the flesh, to live after the flesh:

13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall dye: but if ye mortifie the dedes of the bodie by the Spirit, ye shall live.

14 For as manie as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.

15 For ye have not received the Spirit of bondage to feare againe: but ye have received the Spirit of adopcion, whereby we teye 'Abba, Father.

16 The fame Spirit be aeth wines with our Spirit, that we are the children of God.

17 If we be children, we are also a heiter, e- uer the heires of God, & heires annexed with Christ, if so be that we suffer with him, that we maye also be glorified with him.

18 For I counte that the afflictions of this present time are not 'worthie of the glo- rie, which shall be shewed vnto vs.

19 For the seruent deure of the creature

waiteth when the sonnes of God shall be reueiled.

20 Because the creature is subject to vanity, not of its own will, but by reason of him, which hath subdued it under hope.

21 Because the creature also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the sons of God.

22 For we know that every creature groaneth with us also, and travaileth in pain together unto this present.

23 And not only the creature, but we also which have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we do sigh in our selves, waiting for the adoption, even the redemption of our bodies.

24 For we are saved by hope: but hope that is false, is not hope: for how can a man hope for that which he seeth?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, we do with patience abide for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what to pray as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh request for us with sighs, which can not be expressed.

27 But he that searcheth the hearts, knoweth what is the meaning of the Spirit: for he maketh request for the saints, according to the will of God.

28 Also we knowe that all things worke to- gether for the best vnto them that loue God, euen to them that are called of his purpose.

29 For those which he knewe before, he also predestinate to be made like to the image of his Sonne, that he might be the first borne among manie brethren.

30 Moreouer whome he predestinate, them also he called, and whome he called, them also he justified, and whome he justified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be on our side, who also be agaist vs?

32 Who spared not his owne Sonne, but gaue him for vs all to death, how shall he not with him gaue vs all things also?

33 Who shall lay ante thing to the charge of Gods chosen in is God that is justifieth, 34 Who shall condemn? is it Christ, which is dead, yea or rather, which is risen agai- ne, who is also at the right hand of God, and maketh request also for vs.

35 Who shall separate vs from the loue of Christ? shall tribulacion or anguish, or perfection, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or swords?

36 As it is writte, 'For thy sake are we kill- led all day long: we are counted as shepe for the slaughter.

5 For Moses thus describeth the righteousness which is of the Lawe, That the man which doeth these things, shall liue thereby.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, say not in thine heart, Who shal ascende into heaue? (that is to bring Christ from abone)

1 The obedience to the Rulers. 4 Why they have the swords. 5 Charitate eght to measure all our doings. 6 An exhortation to innocence & puresse of life.

7 Let euerie foule be subiect vnto the higher powers: for there is no power but of God: & the powers that be, are orde- med of God.

8 Whosoeuer therefore resisteth & power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shal receive to them selues: iud- gement.

9 For princes are not to be feared for good workes, but for euil. Wilt & then be with- out feare of the power: do wel: so shalt thou haue praise of the fame.

10 For he is the minister of God for thy wealth: but if thou do euil, feare: for he beareth not the sword for noght: for he is the minister of God to take vengeance on him that doeth euil.

11 Wherefore ye must be subiect, not becau- se of wrath onely, but also for conscience fate.

12 For, for this caule ye paye also tribute: for they are Gods ministers, applying them selues for the fame: thing.

13 *Giue to all men therefore their duetie: tribute, to whome ye owe tribute: cult- me, to whome cultome: feare, to whome feare: honour, to whome ye owe honour.

14 Owe nothing to any man, but to loue o- ne another: for he that loueth another, ha- the fulfilled the Law.

15 For this, Thou shalt not commit adul- terie, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false witties, Thou shalt not couet: and if there be any other commandement, it is briefly com- prehended in this saying, euf in this, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy self.

16 Loue doeth not euil to his neighbour: therefore is loue & fulfilling of the Law. 17 And that, considering the season, that it is now time that we shulde atise from slepe:

for now is our saluation cnerer, then whe we beleued it.

18 The night is past, & the day is at hand: let vs therefore cast away the workes of darkness, and let vs put on the armour of light,

19 So that we walke honestly, as in the day: not in glotonie, and drunkenness, neither in chambering and wantonness, nor in stri- fe and enuying:

20 *But put ye on the Lord its vs CHRIST, and take no thought for the flesh, to fulfil the lustes of it.

4 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not: and let not him which eateth not, iudge him that eateth: for God hathe received him.

5 Who art thou that condemne another mans seruant? he standeth or falleth to his owne: master: yea, he shalbe established: for God is able to make him stande.

6 This ma estemeth one day above another day, & another man counteeth euerie daye a like: let euerie man be fully persuaded in his minde.

7 He that observeth the day, observeth it to the Lord: and he that observeth not the day, observeth it not to the Lord. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord: for he giueth God thakes: and he & eateth not, be eateth not to the Lord, and giueth God thanks.

8 For none of vs liueth to him self, neither doeth ante dye to him self.

9 For whether we liue, we liue vnto the Lord: or whether we dye, we dye vnto the Lord: whether we liue therefore, or dye, we are the Lords.

10 For Christ therefore dyed and rose agai- ne, and reuiued, that he might be Lord bo- the of the dead and the quicke.

THE FIRST EPISTLE

of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that S. Paul had preached at Corinthus a yere and an halfe, he was compelled by the wickedness of the Jewes to saile into Syria. In whose absence false Apostles entred into the Church, who being puffed vp with vaine glorie, and afflict al eloquence, sought to bring into contépt the simplicitie which Paul vfcd in preaching the Gospel. By whose ambition fache fœtions & schiffmespræg vp in the Church, that frô opinions in pollicies & ceremonies they fel to false doctrine and heretics, calling into doute the resurrection frô the dead, one of the chieft points of Christian religio. Against these euils the Apostle procedeth, preparing the Corinthians hearts, & eares with genie salutations; but some after he reproveeth their contentions and debates, their arrogance & pride, and exhorteth the to concorde & hamlet tre, setting before their eyes the spiritual vertue, & heauelie wisdom of the Gospel, which cd not be persuaded by worldlie wit and eloquent reasons, but is reueiled by Gods Spirit, and so sealed in mens hearts. Therefore this salutation may not be attribute to the ministers, but onely to God, whose servants they are, and have received charge to edifie his Church wherein S. Paul behaued him self skilfully, buyldng according to the foundation (which is Christ) and exhorteth others to make the end proportionable to the beginning, taking diligent hede that they be not polluted with vaine doctrine, seeing they are the Temple of God. And as for those which doubted of his Apostleship, he sheweth them that he dependeth not on mans iudgement, albert he had declared by manifest figures that he never sight his owne glorie, neither yet how he might liue, but onely the glorie of Christ: which thing as his comming he wode declare more amply, to the shame of those vaine glorious braggers, who sight them selves onely, & therefore saffred most horrible vices unreproved & vnpunished, as incest, contentions, pleadings before infideles, fornication, & fache like, to the great sclander of the Gospel. This done, he answereth to certeme points of the Corinthians letter, as touching single life, duette of mariage, of discorde & dissension among the married, of virginite, & seconde mariage. And because some thought is nothing to be present at idde service, seeing in their heart they worshiped the true God, he warneth them to haue respect to their weak brethren, whose faith by that dissimbling was hundred, & their consciences wounded, which thing rather thie he wode do, he wode never vfe that libertic which God had given him. But forasmuch as pride, & self wil was the cause of those great euils, he admonisheth them by the example of the Jews not to glorie in those outwarde giftes, whose horrible punishment for the abuse of Gods creatures, ought to be a warning to all men to followe Christ uprightly, without all pollution and offence of others. Then he correcteth diuers abuses in their Church, as touching the behaviour of men, and women in the assemblies of the Lords Supper, the abuse of the spiritual giftes, which God hath given to mainteine loue and edifie the Church: as concerning the resurrection from the dead, without the which the Gospel ferueth to no vfe. Last of all he exhorteth the Corinthians to relice the poore brethren at Jerusalem, to perscuere in the loue of Christ, and wel doing, sending his commendations, and wishing them peace.

He fpeaketh in the prefone of the wicked, who conftarie to their obfci- ence rather at- tribute thefe things to God, then acknow- ledge their owne foillie & weakness. According as the worldie are noth wife me, 10 Now I befeche you, brethre, by the Na- me of our Lord Iefus Chrif, that ye all h. fpeake one thing, and that there be no diffentions among you: but be ye knit to- gether in one minde, and in one iudge- ment.

11 For it hathe bene declared vnto me, my brethren, of you by them that are of the houfe of 1 Cloe, that there are cōtentions among you.

12 Now this I fay, that euerie one of you faith, I am Paules, and I am Apollos, and I am Cephas, and I am Chrif.

13 Is Chrif deuied was Paul crucified for you; & ether were ye baptized h. into the name of Paul?

14 I thanke God, that I baptized none of you, but Ciofpus, and Gaius, 15 Left anie fhulde fay, that I had baptized into mine owne name.

16 I baptized alfo the houfholde of Ste- phanai: furthermore knowe I not, whether I baptized anie other.

17 For Chrif fent me not to m. baptize, but to preache the Gofpel, not with n. wilde- me of words, a. left the croffe of Chrif fhulde be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the croffe is to the that perifh, foollifines: but vnto vs, which are faued, it is the power of God.

19 For it is written, I wil destroye the wif- dome of the wife, and wil caſt away the vnderſtanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the wife; where is the Scribe? where is the d. diſputer of this worlde? ha- the not God made the wiſdome of this worlde foollifines?

21 For feing the worlde by wiſdome knowe not God in the wiſdome of God, it plea- fed God by the foollifines of preaching to ſaue them that beſeeues:

22 Seing alſo that the Iewes require a. fig- ne, and the Grecians ſeke after wiſdome.

23 But we preache Chriſt crucified: vnto the Iewes, euen a ſtombling blocke, & vn- to the Grecians, foollifines:

24 But vnto them which are called, bothe of the Iewes & Greciâs we preache Chriſt, the power of o. o. o., and the wiſdome of God.

25 For the foollifines of God is wiſer the men, and the weakenes of God is ſtronger then men.

26 For brethren, you ſe your calling, how that not manie wife men after the fleſh, not manie mightie, not manie noble are called.

27 But God hathe chofen the foollifh thigs of the worlde to confounde the wife, and God hathe chofen the weake things of the worlde, to confounde the mightie things.

28 And vile things of the worlde & things which are delpfied, hathe God chofen, & things t. which are not, to bring to noght things u. that are,

29 That no t. flefh fhulde reioyce in his prefence.

30 But ye are of him in Chrift Iefus, who of God is made vnto vs wifdome and righteoufnes, and fanctificacion, and redemption, 31 That, according as it is written, "He that reioyceth," let him reioyce in the Lord.

CHAP. II.

1 He puteth for example his maner of preaching, which was according to the tenor of the Gofpel. 2 Which Gofpel was contemptible & had to the carnal, so And a game honorable and manift to the fpiritual.

3 And I, brethren, when I came to you, A. came not with excellence of wordes, or of wifdome, fhewing vnto you the testimonie of God.

4 For I eftemed not to "knowe anie thing among you, faue Iefus Chrift, and him crucified.

5 And I was among you in b. weakenes, and in fcare, & in muche trembling.

6 Nether ftode my worde, & my preaching in the c. entifing fpeache of mans wifdo- me, but in plaine euidence of c. the Spirit and of power,

7 That your faith fhulde not be in the wif- dome of men, but in the power of God.

8 And we fpeake wifdome among them that are c. perfite: not the wifdome of this worlde, nether of the d. princes of this worlde, which come to noght.

9 But we fpeake the wifdome of God in a myfterie, euen the hid wifdome, which God had determined before the worlde, vnto our glorie.

10 Which e. none of the princes of this worlde hathe known: for had they knowe is, they wolde not haue crucified & Lord of glorie.

11 But as it is written, "The things which eye hathe not fene, nether care hathe he- ard, nether fcame into mafs heart, are, which God hathe prepared for them that loue him.

12 But God hathe reueiled them vnto vs by his Spirit: for the Spirit b. searcheth all things, yea, the deeper things of God.

13 For what man knoweth the things of a man, saue the spirit of a man, which is in him? euen so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

14 Now we haue h. receiued not the Spirit of the worlde, but the Spirit, which is of God, that we might knowe the things that are giuen to vs of God.

but which the holie Gofte teacheth, com- paring a spiritual things with spiritual things.

14 But the a natural man perceiueh not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishnes vnto him: nether can he knowe them, becaufe they are spiritually difcerned.

15 But he that is a spiritual, difcerneth all things: yet he him self is a iudged of no man.

16 For who hathe knowen the minde of the Lord, that he might instruct him? But we haue the a minde of Christ.

CHAP. III.

Paul rebuketh the fellies and autours thereof. No man oghe to attribute his faluacem to the ministers, but to God. 16 That they beware erroneous dufferous. 17 Christ is the fundacion of his Church. 18 The dign- tee and office bathe of the ministers and also of all the faithful.

And I colde not speake vnto you, brethre, as vnto spiritual me, but as vnto carnal, euen as vnto a babes in Christ. I gaue you milke to drinke, & not meat: for ye were not yet able to beare it, nether yet now are ye able.

For ye are yet carnal: for where as there is among you enuying, and strife, and diui- fious, are ye not carnal, and walke as men? For when one faith, I am Pauls, and ano- ther, I am Apollos, are ye not carnal?

5 Who is Paul then? and who is Apollos, but the ministers by whome ye beleued, & as the Lord gaue to euerie man?

6 I haue planted, Apollos watred, but God gaue the encrease.

7 So then, nether is he that planteth, anie thing, nether he that watreth, but God that giueh the encrease.

8 And he that planteth, & he that watreth, are b one, and euerie man that receiue his wages, according to his labour.

9 For we together are Gods c laborers: ye are Gods hous bandrie, and Gods buyl- ding.

10 According to the grace of God giuen to me, as a skilful master buylder, I haue laid the fundacion, and another buyldeeth thereon: but let euerie man d take hede how he buyldeeth vpon it.

11 For other fundacion can no man lay, then that which is laid, which is Iefus Christ.

12 And if anie man buylde on this fundaci- on, golde, filuer, precious stones, tymber, haye, or stubble,

13 Euerie mans worke shalbe made mani- feft: for the a daye shal declare it, becaufe it shalbe receiiled by the f fyre: & the fy- re shal trye euerie mans worke of what forte it is.

14 If anie mans worke, that he hathe buyit vpon, abide, he shal receiue wages.

15 If anie mans worke burne, he shal a lofe, but he h shalbe: safe him self: neuertheles yet as it were by the fyre.

16 Know ye not that ye are the Temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwel- leth in you?

17 If anie man deftroy the Teple of God, him shal God deftroy: for the Temple of God is holie, which ye are.

18 Let no man deceiue him self. If anie man among you feme to be wife in this worlde, let him be a foole, that he may be wife.

19 For f wifdome of this worlde is foolish- nes with God: for it is written, He cat- cheth the wife h in their owne craftines.

20 And againe, The Lord knoweth that the thoghts of the wife be vaine.

21 Therefore let no man i reoyce in men: for all things are yours.

22 Whether it be Paul, or Apollos, or Ce- phas, or the worlde, or life, or death: whether they be things prefent, or things to come, euen all are yours, 23 And ye Christs, and Christ Gods.

CHAP. III.

1 Et a man fo thinke of vs, as of the ministers of Christ, and difpofers of the secrets of God.

2 And as for the reft, it is required of the difpofers, f euerie ma be founde faithful.

3 A touching me, I paffe verie litle, to be iudged of you, or of "mans iudgement: no, I iudge not b mine owne self.

4 For I c knowe nothing by d my self, yet am I not thereby iuftified: but he that iud- geth me, is the Lord.

5 Therefore e iudge nothing before the ti- ne, vntil the Lord come, who wil lighten things that are hid in darkenes, and make the counfels of the hearts manifest: and then shal euerie man haue praise of God.

6 Now thefe things, brethren, I haue figu- ratuelly applied vnto mine owne self & Apollos, for your fakes, that ye might le-

For we are subject to the fe things which we can not want. They ab- sed meats, both in that they offended others there- by, & also pro- posed their owns left to vulcense. Term. 6.1. God will be Lord both of the soul and bodie. Whereby he signified, that bottle we shall be the glorie of the re- urrection of the wife, and also that dig- nite, and pri- tilage where by we be ma- de the members of Christ. 9 Knowe ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdoms of God? Be not deceived: * nether fornicator, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor watchers, nor bouggers, 10 Nor theues, nor couetous, nor drunkards, nor railers, nor extortioners shall inherit the kingdoms of God.

11 And fuche were * some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are iu- stified in the Name of the Lord

Iesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 * All things are lawful vnto me: but all things are not profitable. I may do all things, but I will not be brought vnder the power of anie thing.

13 Meates are ordained for the bellie, and the bellie for ye meates: but God shall destroue bothe it, and them. Now the bodie is not for fornication, but for the Lord, & the Lord for the bodie.

14 And God hath also raised vp y Lord, and * shall raise vs vp by his power.

15 Knowe ye not, that your bodies are the members of Christ: shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot: God forbid.

16 Do ye not knowe, that he which coupleth him self with an harlot, is one bodie: * for two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

17 But he that is ioyned vnto the Lord, is one spirit.

18 Flee fornication: euerie finne that a man doeth, is without the bodie: but he y comite teth fornicatio, sinneth against his owne bodie.

19 Know ye not, that your bodie is y teple of the holie God, which in you, whome ye have of God: and ye are not your owne.

20 * For ye are bought for a price: therefore glorifie God in your bodie, and in your spirit: for they are Gods.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Apostle answereth to certain questions, which the Corinthians desired to knowe. 2 As of single life, 3 Of the duette of marriage, 4 Of discordes & dissension in marriage, 5 Of marriage between the faithful & vn- fasthful. 6 Of vncircumcising the circumcised. 7 Of servitude. 8 Of virginitis, 9 And sicende ma- riage.

1 Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote vnto me, It were good for a man not to touche a woman.

2 Neuertheles, to auide fornication, let euerie man have his wife, and let euerie woman have her owne housband.

3 * Let the housband giue vnto the wife: due beneuolence, and likewise also the wife vn- to the housband.

4 The wife hath not y power of her owne bodie, but the housband: and likewise al- so the housband hath not the power of his owne bodie, but the wife.

5 Defraude not one another, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may giue your selues to fasting and prayer, & againe co- me together that Satan tempt you not for your incontinence.

6 But I speake this by permission, not by commandement.

7 For I wolde that all men were euen as I my self am: but euen man hath his pro- per gift of God, one after this maner, and another after that.

8 Therefore I say vnto the vnmarried, and vnto the widowes, it is good for them if they abide euen as I do.

9 But if they can not abstine, let the ma- rie: for it is better to marie the to burne.

10 And vnto the married I comande, not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife * departe from her housband.

11 But and if she * departe, let her remaine vnmarried, or be recociled vnto her hous- band, and let not the housband put a a- way his wife.

12 But to the remnant I speake, & not the Lord, If anie brother haue a wife, that be leueh not, if she be content to dwell with him, let him not forsake her.

13 And the woma which hath an housband that beleueh not, if he be content to dwell with her, let her not forsake him.

14 For the vnbeleuing housband is sancti- fied by the wife, & the vnbeleuing wife is sanctified by the housband, els were your child re vncleane: but now are they * holie.

15 But if the vnbeleuing departe, let him departe: a brother or a sister is not in sub- jectiō in such things: but God hath called vs in peace.

16 For what knowest thou, o wife, whither thou shalt faue thine housband? Or what knowest thou, o ma, whither thou shalt fa- ue thy wife?

17 But as God hath distribute to euerie ma, as the Lord hath called euerie one, so let him walk: and so ordene I, in all Churches.

18 Is anie man called being circumcised? let him not gather his vncircumcision: as anie called vncircumcised? let him not be cir- cumcised.

19 * Circumcision is nothing, & vncircum- cision is nothing, but the keeping of the co- mandements of God.

20 * Let euerie man abide in the same voca- tion wherein he was called.

21 * Art thou called being a seruant? care not for it: but if yet thou maist be fre, vse it rather.

What is my rewarde then? verely that whe I preache the Gofpel, I make the Gof- pel of Christ m fre that I abufe not mine autoritie in the Gofpel.

For thogh I be fre frd all men, yet haue I made my felf feruant vnto all men, that I might winne the mo.

- And vnto y Iewes I become as a Iewe, that I may winne the Iewes: to them that are vnder the Lawe, as thogh I were vnder the Law, that I may winne the that are vnder the Law:

To them that are without lawe, as thogh I were without law (whe Lam not without Law as perteming to God, but am in the Law through Christ) that I may winne them that are without Law.

To the weake I become as weake, that I may winne y weake: I am made all thigs to all men, that I might by all meanes fa- ue fome.

And this I do for the Gofpels fake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

Knowe ye not, that they which runne in a race, runne all, yet one receueth the pri- cefto runne, that ye may obtaine.

And euerie man that proueth maftries, abfteineth from all things: and they do it to obtaine a corruptible crowne: but we for an vncotruptible.

I therefore fo runne, not as vncotrein- ly: fo fight I, not as one that beateth the ayre.

But I beat downe my s bodie, & bring it into fubiection, left by any meanes after that I haue preached to other, I my felf shulde be reprobued.

CHAP. X.

He feareth them with the examples of the Iewes, that they put not their truſt carnally in the graces of God, 24 Exhorting them to flee all idolatrie, 25 And of- fence of their neghbour.

10 Nether murmure ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the b destroyer. 11 Now all these things came vnto them for ensamples, and were written to admonish vs, vpo whome y bends of the worlde are come. 12 Wherefore, let him y thinketh he standeth, take hede lest he fall. 13 There tempted above that you be able, but I wil euen giue the yssue with the tetration, that ye may be able to beare it. 14

Wherefore my beloued, flee from idolatrice. 15 I speake as vnto them which haue vnderstanding: iudge ye what I say. 16 The cuppe of blefating which we mblefse, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we breake, is it not the communion of the bodie of 17 For we that are many, are one bread & one bodie, because we all are partakers of one bread. 18 Beholde Israel which is after the r flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices, partakers of the altar? 19 What say I then? that the idole is any thing? or that that which is sacrificed to idoles, is any thing? 20 May, but that these things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to deuils, and not vnto God: and I wolde not that ye shulde haue s fellow shippe with the deuils. 21 Ye can not drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of the deuils. Ye can not be partakers of the Lords table and of the table of deuils. 22 Do we provoke the Lord to anger? are we stronger then he? 23 All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edifie not. 24 Let no man feke his owne, but euerie ma anotners wealth. 25 Whatfocuer is folde in the r shambles, eat ye, & r aske no queftion for conscience fake. 26 *For the earth u the Lords, and all that therein is. 27 If any of them which beleue not, call you to a feaft, and if ye wil go, whatfocuer is fet before you, eat, asking no queftion for conscience fake. 28 But if any man say vnto you, This is sacrificed vnto idoles, eat it not, because of him that shewed it, and for the conscience (for the earth is the Lords, and all that therein is)

29 And the conscience I say, not thine, but of that other: for why shulde my hiberite be condoned of another mans conscience? 30 For if I through Gods benefite be partaker, why am I euil spoken of, for that wherefore I giue thanks? 31 Whether therefore ye eat or drinke, or whatfocuer ye do, do all to the glorie of God. 32 Giue none offence, nether to the Iewes, nor to the Grecians, nor to the Church of God: 33 Euen as I please all men in all things, not feking mine owne profite, but the profite of many, that they might be faued.

when ye come together in the Church, I heare that there are dif- fenfions among you: and I beleue it to be true in some parte. 19 For there mult be heresies euen among you, that they which are approued amog you, might be known. 20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the keth his owne supper afore, and one is hun- grie, and another is drunken. 22 Haue ye not houfes to eat & to drinke indspife ye f Church of God, and shame the that haue not: what fhall I fay to you? fhall I praife you in this: I praife you not. 23 For I haue receiued of the Lord that which I alfo haue deliuered vnto you, to wit, That the Lord Iesus in the night that he was betrayed, toke bread. 24 And when he had giuen thakes, he bra- ke it, and faid, Take, eat: this is my bodie, which is broken for you: this do ye in re- membrance of me. 25 After the fame maner alfo he toke the cup, when he had fupped, faying, This cup is the Newe reftament in my blood: this do as oft as ye drinke it, in refelchance of me. 26 For as often as ye fhall eat this bread, & drinke this cup, ye fhewe the Lords death til he come. 27 Wherefore, whofoeuet fhall eat this bread, and drinke the cup of the Lord s vnuorthely, fhallbe giltie of the bodie & blood of the Lord. 28 Let a man therefore examine him felf, and fo let him eat of this bread, & drinke of this cup. 29 For he that eateth and drinketh vnwor- thely, eateth and drinketh his owne dam- nation, becaufe he difcermeth not: J Lords bodie. 30 For this caufe many are weake, and ficke among you, and many f flepe. 31 For if we wolde iudge our felues, we fhul- de not be iudged. 32 But when we are iudged, we are chafte- ned of the Lord, becaufe we fhulde not be condemned with the worlde. 33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, carry one for another. 34 And if any man be hungrie, let him eat at home, that ye come not together vnto condemnation. Other things wil I fet in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

The diuerfitie of the gifts of the holic Gost ofch to be vsed to the offying of Christ Church. 12. As the me- bers of man's bidie serue to the vse one of another,

1 Now concerning spiritual gifts, bre- then, I wolde not haue you ignorant. 2 Ye knowe that ye were Gentiles, and we- re caryed away vnto the domme idoles, as ye were led. 3 Wherefore, I declare vnto you, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God, cal- leth Iesus execrable: also no man can say that Iesus is the Lord, but by the ho- lie Gost. 4 Now there are diuerfities of gifts, but the same Spirit. 5 And there are diuerfities of adminiftra- tions, but the same Lord. 6 And there are diuerfities of operatifs, but God is the same, which worketh all in all. 7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is gi- uen to euerie man, to profit withall. 8 For to one is giuen by the Spirit the wor- de of wifdome: and to another the worde of knowledge, by the same Spirit: 9 And to another is giuen a faith, by the fa- me Spirit: and to another the gifts of hea- ling, by the same Spirit: 10 And to another f operations of great workes: and to another, prophecie: and to another, the difcerning of Spirits: and to another, diuerfities of tongues: & to ano- ther the interpretation of tongues. 11 And all these things worketh euen the self same Spirit, diftributing to euerie ma feuerally as he wil. 12 For as the bodie is one, and hath many membres, and all the membres of the bo- die, which is one, though they be many, yet are but one bodie: euen fo is Christ. 13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized in- to one bodie, whether we be lewes or Grecians, whether we be bonde, or fre, and haue bene all made to drinke into o- ne Spirit. 14 For the bodie alfo is not one member, but many. 15 If the fote wolde fay, Becaufe I am not the hand, I am not of the bodie, is it the refore not of the bodie? 16 And if the care wolde fay, Becaufe I am not the eye, I am not of the bodie, is it the refore not of the bodie? 17 If the whole bodie were an eye, where were the hearing: If the whole were hea- ring, where were the fmelling? 18 But now hathe God difpofed the mem- bres euerie one of them in the bodie at his owne pleafure.

26 Therefore if one member feffer, all suf- fer with it: if one member be had in ho- nour, all the membres reioyce with it.

27 Now ye are the bodie of Christ, & mem- bres 9 for your parte.

28 And God hathe ordeined fome in the Church: as firft, Apofties, fecondly Pro- phetes, thirdly teachers, then them that do miracles: after that, the giftes of hea- ling, helpers, gouernours, diuerfite of tongues.

29 Are all Apofties? are all Prophetes? are all teachers?

30 Are all doers of miracles? haue all the giftes of healing? do all fpeake with ton- gues? do all interpretes?

31 But "desire you the beft gifts, and I wil yet shewe you a more excellent way.

CHAP. XIII.

Because loue is the fountaine and rule of edifying the Church, be feteth forth the nature, office and praife thereof.

1 Hogh I fpeake with the tongues of men and 2 Angels, and haue not loue, I am as founding braife, or a tinkling cymbal.

3 And thogh I had the gift of prophecie, and knewe all fecretes and all knowledge, yea, if I had 4 all faith, fo that I colde reme a mountaine and had not loue, I were nothing.

And thogh I fede the poore with all my goods, and thogh I giue my bodie, that I be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Loue fuffreth long: it is bountiful: loue enuieth not: loue doeth not boast it feff: it is not puffed vp:

5 It diflaineeth not: it fekeeth not her owne things: it is not prouoked to anger: it thin keth not euil:

6 It reioyceth not in iniquitie, but reioyceth in the trueth:

7 It fuffreth all things: it beleueth all things: it hopeth all things: it endureth all things.

8 Loue doeth neuer fall away, thogh that prophecyng be abolifhed, or the rogues ceafe, or knowledge van: sh away.

9 For we knowe in parte, and we prophe- cie in parte.

10 But when that which is perfite, is come, then that which is in parte, fhaibe aboli- fhed.

11 When I was a childe, I fpake as a childe, I vnderftode as a childe, I thought as a childe: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we fe a through a glaffe darke- ly: but then fhall we fe face to face. Now I knowe in parte: but then fhall I knowe e- uen as I am 'knownen.

13 And now abideth faith, hope & loue, e- uen thefe thre: but the chiefs of thefe u loue.

10 There are so manie kindes of voyces, (as it cometh to paffe) in the worlde, and none of them is is domine.

11 Except I knowe then the power of the voyce, I Shalbe vnto him that speaketh, b barbarian, and he that speaketh, Shalbe a barbarian vnto me.

12 Euen so, for a fmuche as ye couet spiritu- al gifts, feke that ye maye excel vnto the edifying of the Church.

13 Wherefore, let him that speaketh a frange tongue, prate, that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in a frange tongue, my spirit 1 praieth: but mine vnderstanding is without k frute.

15 What is it then? I wil praye with the spiri- t, but I wil pray with the vnderstanding also: I wil 2 sing with the spirit, but I wil sing with the vnderstanding also.

16 Els, when thou bleffeth with the spirit, how Shal he that occupieth the rounge of the vnlearned, say m Amen, at thy guing of thanks, feing he knoweth not what thou faift?

17 For thou verely giueft thanks wel, but the other is not edified.

18 I thanke my God, I speake languages more then ye all.

19 Yet had I rather in the Church to speake 20 fine wordes with mine vnderstanding that I might also instruct others, then ten thousand wordes in a frange tongue.

20 Brethren, be not* children in vnderstanding, but as concerning maliciousnes be children, but in vnderstanding be of a ripe age.

21 In the Law it is written, 22 By men of other tongues, & by other languages wil I speake vnto this people: yet so Shal they not heare me, faith the Lord.

23 Wherefore frange tongues are for a signe, not to them that beleue, but to the that beleue not: but prophesying fermeth not for the that beleue not, but for the which beleue.

24 If therefore, when the whole Church is come together in one, and all speake frange tongues, there come in they that are vnlearned, or they which beleue not, wil thei not say, that ye are out of your wittes?

25 But if all prophecie, and there come in one that beleueh not, or one vnlearned, the is rebuked of all men, and is judged of all.

26 And so are the secretes of his heart made manifest, & so he wil fall downe on his face and worship God, and say plainely that God is in you in dede.

27 What is to be done then, brethren? when ye come together, according as euerie one of you hathe a pfalme, or hathe doctrine, or hathe a tongue, or hathe reuelacion, or hathe interpretacion, let all things be do- ne vnto edifying.

27 If anie man speake a frange tongue, let it be by two, or at the smolt, by thre, and that by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him kepe silence in the Church, which speaketh languages, and let him speake to him self, and to God.

29 Let the Prophetes speake two, or thre, and let the other judge.

30 And if anie thig be reueiled to another y fitteth by, let the first holde his peace.

31 For ye may all prophecie one by one, y all may learne, & all may haue comfort.

32 And the 1 spirits of the Prophetes are * fubiect to the Prophetes.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as we se in all the Churches of the Saintes.

34 * Let your women kepe 2 silence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto the to speake: but they oght to be fubiect, as also * the Law faith.

35 And if thei wil learne anie thing, let the after their houf bands at home: for it is a shame for women to speake in y Church.

36 1 Came the worde of God out from you? other came it vnto you onely?

37 If anie man thinke him self to be a Pro- pher, or 2 spiritual, let him acknowledge, that the things, that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lord.

38 2 And if anie man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethre, couet to prophecie, & forbid not to speake languages.

40 Let all things be done honestly and by order.

it he mentioned that abuse afore, yet he referred it to this place to be repro- ved because there be brought in for another purpose. 7 Are ye the first or the last Christians, that ye neither labour your felure to the Churches of whome you have received the Gofpelion have respect to the others to who- me the Gofpelion doeth likewise appertenent? 2 To how vnderstanding of spiri- tual things. 3 If anie man haue

12 Now if it be preached, that Christ is rifen from the dead, how fay fome among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 Por if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not rifen.

14 And if Christ be not rifen, then is our preaching vaine, and your faith is alfo vaine.

15 And we are founde alfo falfe wimeffes of God: for we haue teftified of God, that he hathe raifed vp Christ: whome he hath not raifed vp, if fo be the dead be not raifed.

16 For if f dead be not raifed, the is Christ not raifed.

17 And if Christ be not raifed, your faith is svaine: ye are yet in your finnes.

35 But fome man wil fay, How are the dead raifed vp? and with what bodie come they forthe?

36 O foole, that which thou foweft, is not quickened, except it dye.

37 And f which thou foweft, thou foweft not that bodie that fhall be, but bare corne, as it falleth, of wheat, or of fome other.

38 But God giueh it a bodie at his pleafu- re, euen to euerie fede his owne bodie.

39 All flesh u not the fame flesh, but the- re is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beaftes, and another of fishes, and another of birdes.

40 There are alfo heauenlie bodies, and earthlie bodies: but the glorie of the hea- uenlie is one, and the glorie of the earthlie is another.

41 There is another glorie of the funne, and another glorie of the moone, and another glorie of f flarres: for one flarre differeth from another flarre in glorie.

42 So alfo u the resurrection of the dead. The bodie is fowen in corruption, and is rai- fed in incorruption.

43 It is fowen in "difhonour, and is raifed in glorie: it is fowen in weaknes, & is rai- fed in power.

44 It is fowen a natural bodie, & is raifed a "spiritual bodie: there is a natural bodie, & there is a spiritual bodie.

45 As it is also written, The first man "A- dam was made a

THE ARGUMENT.

A S nothing can be written, either so perfectly, or with so great affection and exile, which is not unprofitable to many, and resisted by some: so the first epistle written by S. Paul to the Corinthians, besides the puritie and perfection of the doctrine, sheweth a love towards them farce passing all natural affections: which did not only not profit all, but hardened the hearts of many to remain in their stubbornness, and contemne the Apostles autoritie. By reason whereof S. Paul, being let with iustic occasions to come vnto them, wrote this epistle from Macedonia, minding to accomplish the work which he had begonne among them. First therefore he wifeth them wel in the Lord, declaring that albeit certeine wicked persones abused his afflictions to condemne thereby his autoritie, yet they were necessarie schoolings, and sent to him by God for their bestering. And where as they blame his long absence, it came of no inconstancie, but to beare with their inhabititie and imperfection, lest contrary to his fatherlie affection, he shulde haue bene compelled to vse rigour and foweritie. And as touching his sharpe writing in the former epistle, it came through their fante, as is now evident bothe in that, that he pardoneth the trespasser, seing he doth repent: and also in that he was vnquiet in his minde, til he was certified by Titus of their estate. But forasmuch as the false Apostles went about to vndermine his autoritie, he consuteth their arrogant bragges, and commendeth his office, and the diligent executing of the fame: so that Satan must haue greatly blinded their eyes, which se not the brightness of the Gospel in his preaching: the effect whereof is newnes of life, forsaking of our selues, cleaning to God, seeing from idolatie, embracing the true doctrine, and that sorrows which engendreth true repentance: to the which is ioyned mercie and compassion towards our brethren: also wisdom to put difference betwixt the simplicitie of the Gospel, and the arrogancie of the false preachers, who vnder pretence of preaching the trueth, sight onely to sil their bellies, where as he contrariwise, sight them, and not their goods, as those ambitious persones sclandered him: wherefore at his comming he menaceth suche as rebell against his autoritie, that he wil declare by liuelie example, that he is the faithful ambassadour of Iesus Christ.

CHAP. I.

4 He declareth the great presire that cometh to the faithful by their afflictions. 15.17 And because they shulde not impute to lightness, that he differred his comming contrarie to his prones, he proueh his constancie, bothe by the syncretis of his preaching, and also by the immutable trueth of the Gospel. 21 Which trueth is grounded on Christ, and sealed in our hearts by the holy Gost.

b Blessed be God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comforte,

4 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comforte the which are in anie affliction by the coforte wherewith we our selues are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abunde in vs, se our consolation abundeth through Christ.

6 And whiether we be afflicted, & in for your consolation and a saluation, which e is wrought in the induring of the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and saluation.

7 And our hope is stedfast cœcerning you, in as much as we knowe that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shalye be also of the consolation.

8 For brethre, we wolde not haue you ignorant of our affliction, which came vnto vs in Asia, how we were pressed out of measure passing strength, so that we all together doutted, euen of life.

9 Yea, we received the sentence of death in our selues, because we shulde not trust in our selues, but in God, w aifeth the dead.

10 Who deliuered vs from so h great a death, and doeth deliuer vs: in whome we trust, that yet here after he wil deliuer vs,

11 So that ye labour together in prayer for vs, that for the gift bestowed vpon vs for manie, thanks may be giuen by manie per sones for vs.

12 For our teioyeing is this, the testimonie of our conscience, that in simplicitie and godlie purenes, & not in fleshne wisdom, h but by the grace of God we haue had our conuerfation in the worlde, and moste of all to you warues.

II. Corinthians, Marchands of the worc

1 Ye knowe partely my ch flamee buche by my dwelling with you, and also my writ- ing unto you: and I trust ye shal knowe me to be the time to y very end in ta that we have taught you y Gospel to Cynerey. a Because we have wine you to Christ.

o Which shal awolish all worlds like glo- rie.

p Which is re lively to pro- mes and not re performe. q How to offer me one thing, and then to do by us, which is a figure of incó- flance.

r He taketh God to witness that he prea- cheth I truch He preached nothing even them but one- ly Ieffur Christ who is the mo- fe confame and refallible truch of the Father.

s They are made, performed & we are partakers only by him, who is our Amen, in that he hath fulfilled them for us.

Eph. 4.30. n In that I say I came not because I would spare you, I mean your consciences: but And faith it not in subjection to man.

1) For we I write none other things unto you, then ye read or else that ye acknowledge, & I trust ye shall acknowledge unto the end.

14 Even as ye have acknowledged vs partly, that we are your brethren, even as ye are ours, in the day of our Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence was I minded first to come unto you, that ye might have had a double grace,

16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, & to come againe out of Macedonia unto you, and to be led for the towards Judea of you.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or minde I those things which I minde, according to y flesh, that we should be, a Yea, yea, and Nay, nay?

18 Yea, God is faithful, that our word towards you was not Yea, and Nay.

19 For the Sonne of God Iesus Christ who was preached among you by vs, that u by me, and Siluanus, and Timotheus, was not Yea, and Nay: but in him it was Yea.

20 For all the promifes of God in him are Yea, and are in him Amen, vnto the glo- rie of God through vs.

21 And it is God which stablisheth vs with you in Christ, and harhe anointed vs.

22 Who harhe also sealed vs, & harhe giue the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Now, I call God for a recorde vnto my foule, that to spare you, I came not as yet vnto Corinthus.

24 Not that we have dominion ouer your faith, but we are helpers of your ioye: for by a faith ye stande.

25 Not that I have anointed to alter true religio, or to binde your cōscences: but that I am Gods minifer to confirm and comfort you. 26 And faith it not in suburftion to man.

CHAP. II.

He sheweth his loue towarde them. 7 Requiring like wife that this wulde be fauorable to the mensfume adulterer feing he did repent. 14 He also re-epareth in God for the effuacie of his doctrine. 17 Confusing thereby such quarefpikers, as under the euer- throwe of his deftrine.

2 B Vt I determined thus in my felf, that I wulde not come again to you in heauines.

3 For if I make you forie, who is he then that fhulde make me glad, but the fame which is made a forie by me?

4 And I wrote this fame thing vnto you, left when I came, I fhulde take heauines of them, of whome I oght to reioyce: this confidence haue I in you all, that my ioye is the ieye of you all.

5 For in great affliction, and anguiff of heart I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that ye fhulde be made forie, but that ye might perceiue the loue which I haue, fpecially vnto you.

6 And if any harhe caufed forow, the fame

harhe nor made me forie, but parrely (left I fhulde d more 13 I had no reft in my fpirit, because I fou- de not Titus my brother, but toke my lea- ue of the, and went away into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be vnto God which al- wayes maketh vs a to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the fauour of his knowledge by vs in euerie place.

15 For we are vnto God the fwete fauour of Christ, in them that are faued, and in them which perifh.

16 To the one we are the I fauour of death, vnto death, and to the other the fauour of life, vnto life, and who is fufficient for thefe things?

17 For we are not as manie, which make marchandife of the worde of God: but as of fynceritie, but as of God in the fight of God fpeake we in Christ.

Chap. III. The image of God, 8/1224

5 Not that we are sufficient of our selues, to think anie thing, as of our selues: but our sufficiencie n of God.

6 Who also hathe made vs able ministers of the New testament, not of the letter but of the Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the Spirit giueh life.

If then the miniftration of death written w letters & ingraue in stones, was glorious fo y the chifore of Israel colde not beholde the face of Moes for the glorie of his countenance (which glorie is done away)

How that not the miniftration of the Spi rit be more glorious?

9 For if the minifterie of 1 co dénation was glorious, much more doeth the miniftration of a righteousnes excede in glorie.

10 For euen that which was glorified, was not glorified in this point, that n, as touching the exceeding glorie.

11 For if that which shulde be abolished, was glorious, much more shal that which remaineth, be glorious.

12 Seing then that we haue fuche truft, we vfe great boldenes of speache.

13 *And we are not as Mofet, which put a vaile vpon his face, that the children of Israel shulde not looke vnto the end of that which shulde be abolished.

14 Therefore their minies are hardened: for vntel this day remaineth the fame couering vntaken away in the reading of the Olde testament, which vaile in Christ is put away.

15 But on vnto this day, when Moes is to, the vaile is laved ouer their hearts.

16 Neuertheles when their heart shalbe turned to the Lord, the vaile shalbe raken away.

17 Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is libertie.

18 But we all beholde as in a * mirrout the glorie of the Lord with open face, and are changed into the fame image, from glorie to glorie, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. III.

He declareth his diligence, and roundener in his office. And that which his enemies try for his dislocuance, to wit, the cross and afflictions which he endured, he turned it to his great advantage, 11.27 Shwung what profit cometh thereby.

Therefore, seeing that we have this miniterie, as we have received mercie, we fainte not:

2 But haue cast from vs the clokes of shame & walke not in craftines, nether handle we the worde of God disceitfully: but in declaration of the trueth we approue our selues to euerie mans confcience in the fight of God.

3 If our Gospel be then hid, it is hid to the, that are loft.

4 In whome the god of this worlde hathe blinded the mmdes, that n, of the insidees, that the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, which is the image of God, shulde not shine vnto them.

5 For we preache not our selues, but Christ Iefus the Lord, and our selues your feruate for Iefus fake.

6 For God that *commanded the light to shine out of darkenes, who which hathe shined in our hearts, to giue the light of the knowledge of the glorie of God in the face of Iefus Christ.

7 But we haue this treasure in earthve vefels, the excellence of that power might be of God and not of vs.

8 We are afflicted on euerie fide, yet are we not in diftreffe: in pouertie, but not ouer-come of pouertie.

9 We are persecuted, but not forsaken: cast down, but we perish not.

10 Euerie where we beare about in our bodie the dying of the Lord Iefus, that the life of Iefus might also be made manifest in our bodies.

11 For we which liue, are alwayes deliue-red vnto death for Iefus sake, that the life also of Iefus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then *death worketh in vs, and life in you.

13 And because we haue the fame Spirit of faith, according as it is written, I beleued, & therefore haue I spoken, we also beleue, and therefore speake, 14 Knowing that he which hathe raised vp the Lord Iefus, shal = raise vs vp also by Iefus, and shal set vs with you.

15 For all things are for your fakes that moſte plenteous grace

Yes, when I praise my ministers, I commend the power of God, when I commend our worth his follies, I praise the mightie power of God, set forth by vs women and wretches. r Let him be regret, and renounce him self, as all the rest is nothing.

For we knowe that if a our earthlie house of this tabernacle be deftroyed, we haue a buylding ginen of God, that u, an house not made with hands, but eternal in the heauens.

2 For therefore we sigh, desiring to be clothed with our house, which is from heauen. 3 "Because that if we be clothed, we shal not be founde naked.

1. Pet. 2.19.

14 Be not vnequally yoked with the infi- deles: for what felowthip hathe righteouf nes with vntighteoufnes? and what com- munton hathe light with darkenes?

15 And what concorde hathe Christ with Belial? or what parte hathe the beleuer with the infidel?

16 And what agrement hathe the Tem- ple of God with idoles?
* for ye are the Temple of the 1 living God: at God ha- the said, * I wil dwell among them, and walke there: and I wil be their God, and they thalbe my people.

17 *Wherefore come out from among the, and separate your felues, faith the Lord: and touche none vncleane thing, & I wil receiue you.

18 * And I wil be a Father vnto you, and ye thalbe my fones and daughters, faith the Lord almightie.

CHAP. VII.

1 He exhorteth them by the promifes of God to keep them felues pure. 3. 7 Affuring them of his love. 8. 13 And doeth not exwife his feueritie towarde them, but reioy- ceth thereat, confidering what profite came thereby. 10 Of two fortes of forow.

1 S Eing then we haue thefe promifes, dearely beloued, let vs a clense our fel- ues from all filthines of the b flesh & spi- rit, and growe vp vnto ful holines in the feare of God.

2 c Receiue vs: we haue done wrong to no man: we haue confumed no man: we haue d defrauded no man.

3 I fpeake it not to your condemnacion: for I haue faid before, that ye are in our he- arts, to dye and liue together.

4 I vfe great holdenes of fpeache towarde you: I reioyce greatly in you: I am filled with comfort, and am exceeding joyous in all our tribulacion.

5 For whe we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no refte, but we were trou- bled on euerie fide, fifthings c without, & terrours withm.

6 But God, that comforteth the abiect, comforted vs at the comming of Titus:

7 And not by his comming onely, but alfo by the confolacion wherewith he was co- forced of you, whe he tolde vs your great defire, your mourning, your feruent min- de to mewarde, fo that I reioyced muche more.

8 For thogh I made you forie with a let- ter, I repent not, thogh I did repent: for I perceiue that the fame epiftle made you forie, thogh it were but for a feafon.

9 I now reioyce, not that ye were forie, but that ye forowed to repentance: for ye fo- rowed godly, fo that in nothing ye were hurt by vs.

10 *For godlie forowe causeth repentance vnto faluacion, not to be repented of: but the worldlie forowe causeth death.

11 For beholde, this thing that ye haue be- ne e godly forie, what great care it hathe wrought in you: yea, what b clearig of your felues: yea what indignacion: yea, what fea- re: yea, how great defire: yea, what a zeale: yea, what punifmēt: in all things ye haue fucwed your felues, that ye are pure in this matter.

12 Wherefore, thogh I wrote vnto you, I did not it for his caufe that had done the wróg, nether for his caufe that had the iniurie, but that our care towarde you in the fight of God might appeare vnto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted, becaufe ye were comforted: but rather we reioyced muche more for the joy of Titus, becaufe his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if y I haue boasted anie thig to him of you, I haue not bene afhamed: but as I haue fpoken vnto you all things in trueth, euen fo our bcaftig vnto Titus was true.

15 And h his inwarde affection is more abundant towarde you, when he remembreth the obedience of you all, and how with feare & trembling ye receiued him.

16 I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

1 By the example of the Macedonians, 9 And Christ he exhorteth them to continue in relieving the poor Saintes, commending their good beginning. 23 After he commendeth Titus and his ficowes vnto them.

1 WE do you alfo to wit, brethren, of the a grace of God
beftowed vp- on the Churches of Macedonia,

2 Becaufe in great tryal of affliction their ioye abunded, and their moſte extreme pouertie b abunded vnto their riche liberalitie.

3 For to their power (I beare recorde) yea, & beyonde their power, they were willing,

4 And praied vs with great inflance that we wolde receiue the c grace, & felowthip * of the munitring which is towarde the Saintes.

5 And this they did, not as we loked for: but gave their owne felues, firſt to the Lord, and after vnto vs by the wil of God,

6 That we fhoulde exhorte Titus, that as he had begonne, fo he wolde alfo accom- plifh the fame grace among you alfo.

7 Therefore, as ye abunde in euerie thing, in faith and worde, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue towards vs, euen fo fe that ye abide in this grace alfo.

8 This fay Inot by commandement, but becaufe of the diligence of others: there- fore proue I the natualnes of your loue.

9 For ye knowe the grace of our Lord Ie- fuis Christ, that he being riche, for your fa- kes became poore, that ye through his po- uertie might be made riche.

g Whofe heart Gods Spirit doeth touche, he is forie for his fones cor- mitted agnith fo merciful a Father & the- fe are the fro- tes of his repd tance, as wun- nes Dauds & Priest teatent others which are forie for their fones o- only for feare of punifmēt & Gods ven- geance, fall in- to delperacin, as Caus, Saul, Achirophil & Iudas.

h In affing God forgine- nes.

1 For in indig- ing & chaft- ting your fel- ues, you preue- ced Gods an- gre.

a This bencife of God appea- ren in two things: firſt, f the Macedoni- ant being in to great affliction were to prop to nelp e o- ther: & next f being in great pouertie, were verie liberal towards o- tners.

b To that a moſte abundi- tion of riches flowed out of their pouertie. c fo he calfeſh their lonerali- tie, ether be- ceieue the we- re the beſtow- er to Gods gra- ces or becauſe they receiued them of God frely, and fo they defired Paul to fe to g diftribution thereof.

w haue begonne not to do onely, but alfo to wil, a yere a go.

11 Now therefore performe to do it alfo, that as there was a readines to wil, eue fo ye maye performe it of that which ye haue.

12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a ma hathe, & not according to that he hathe not.

13 Nether u is that other men fshulde be ea- fed and you griued.

14 But vpon like condicion, at this time your abundance fuppleth their lacke, that alfo their abundance may be for your lac- ke, that there may be equalitie:

15 As it is written, He that gathered mucche, had nothing ouer, and he that gathered li- tle, had not the leffe.

16 And thanks be vnto God, which hathe put in the heart of Titus the fame care for you.

17 Beraufe he accepted the exhortacion, yea, he was fo careful that of his owne ac- corde he went vnto you.

18 And we haue fent alfo with him the bro- ther, whofe praife a h in y Gofpel through- out all the Churches,

19 (And not fo onely, but is alfo chofen of the Churches to be a felowe in our tour- ney concerning this grace that is mini- ftr'd by vs vnto the glorie of the fame Lord, and declaracion of your propt minde)

20 Auoy ding this, that no man fshulde bla- me vs in this abundance that is miniftred by vs,

21 Prouiding for honest things, not onely before the Lord, but alfo before men.

22 And we haue fent with the our brother, whome we haue oft times proued to be diligent in manie things, but now muche more diligent, for the great confidence, which I haue in you.

23 Whether anue do enquire of Titus, he is my felowe and helper to you warde: or of our brethren, they are meffengers of the Churches, & the glorie of Christ.

5 Wherefore, I thought it neceffarie to ex- horte the brethren to come before vnto you, and to finifh your benevolence appointed afore, that it might be readie, and come as of benevolence, and not as of fpa- ring.

6 This yet reinember, that he which fow- eth fparingly, fshal reape alfo fparingly, and he that foweth liberally, fshal reape al- fo liberally.

7 As euerie man wifheth in his heart, fo let him gue not grudgingly, or of neceffi- tie: for God loueth a chereful giuer.

8 And God is able to make all grace to a- bounde towarde you, that ye alwates ha- uing all fufficiencie in all things, may abounde in euerie good worke,

9 As it is written, He hathe fparfed a- broad and hathe giuen to the poore: his benevolence remaineth for euer.

10 Alfo he that findeth feede to the fower, wil minifter likewife bread for foode, and multiplie your fede, and increafe the fru- tes of your benevolence, your liberal diftribution to them, and to all men)

5 Casting downe the imaginations, and euerie high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captioitie euerie thought to the obedience of Christ,

6 And hauing ready the vengeance against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Loke ye on things after the appearance? If anie man trust in him self that he is Christ, let him consider this aga ne of him self, that as he u Christ, eue so are we Christ.

8 For thogh I shulde boast somewhat mo- re of our autoritie, which the Lord hathe guen vs for edificaton, and not for your destruction, I shulde haue no shame.

9 Thu I say that I may not se me as it were to feare you with letters.

10 For the letters, * faith he, are sore and strong, but his bodelie pretence is weake, and his speache is of no value.

11 Let suche one thinke this, that suche as we are in worde by letters when we are ab- sent, suche wil we be also in dede, when we are present.

12 For we dare not make our selues of the nomber, or to compare our selues to the, which praise them selues: but they under- stand not that they measure them selues with them selues, & compare them selues with them selues.

13 But we wil not reioyce of things, which are not within our measure, * but accor- ding to the measure of the line, whereof God hathe disibuted vnto vs a measure to attrine euen vnto you.

14 For we stretch not our selues beyonde our measure, as thogh we had not attrined vnto you: for euen to you also haue we co- me in preaching the Gospel of Christ,

15 Not boasting of thigs which are without our measure: that is, of other mens labours: and we hope, when your faith shal increa- se, to be magnified by you according to our line abundantly,

16 And to preache the Gospel in those re- gions which are beyode you: not to reioyce in another mans line, that is in the things that are prepared already.

17 * But let him that reioyceth, reioyce in the Lord.

18 For he that praiseth him self, is not alow- ed, but he whome the Lord praiseth.

CHAP. XI.

He declareth his affliction towards them. 5 The ex- cellence of his ministers, 9 And his diligence in the same. 12 The fetches of the false apostles. 16 The perverse judgement of the Corinthians, 20 And his ovne praises.

1 W Olde to God, ye colde suffer a li- tle my foolishnes, and in deed, 3 bye suffer me.

2 For I am ielous ouer you, with godlie ie- lousie: for I haue prepared you for one houf band, to present you as a pure virgine to Christ:

3 But I feare lest as the serpent beguiled Eue through his subtiltie, so your mindes shulde be corrupte from the simplicitie that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh, preacheth another 4 Iesus then him whome we haue prea- ched: or if ye receiue another spirit then that which ye haue receiued: ether an- other Gospel, then that ye haue receiued, ye might wel haue suffered him.

5 Vereiy I suppose that I was not inferior to the verie chief Apostles.

6 And thogh I be crude in speaking, yet I am not so in knowledge, but amog you we haue bene made maniseste to the vimoist, in all things.

7 Haue I committed an offence, because I abased my self, that ye might be exalted, & because I preached to you the Gospel of God frely?

8 I robbed other Churches, and toke wa- ges of them to do you seruice.

9 And when I was present with you, and had nede, I was not stotifull to the hinde tance of anie man: for that which was lacking vnto me, the brethren which came sto Macedonia, supplied, and in all things I kept and wil kept my self that I shulde not be grievous to you.

10 The truelth of Christ is in me, that this reioycing shal not be shut vp against me in the regions of Aclara.

11 Wherefore: because I loue you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that wil I do: that I may cut away occasion from them which desire occasion, that they might be sounde like vnto vs in that wherein they reioyce.

13 For suche false apostles are deceitful workers, and transforme them selues into the Apostles of Christ.

14 And no marucitie: for Satan him self is transformed into an Angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing, thogh his ministers transforme them selues, as thogh they were the ministers of righteousness, whose end shalbe according to their workes.

16 I say againe, let no ma thinke, that I am foolish: or els take me eue as a foole, that I also may boast my self a litle.

1 He reioyceeth in his preferment, 2. 7 But chiefly in his humbleness, 11 And layeth the cause of his beafting upon the Corinthian. 12 He faweth what good will he beareth them, 20
And propheseth to come vnto them.

1 I is not expedient for me no dout to reioyce: for I wil come to visions and seuelations of the Lord.

2 "I knowe a man in Christ abone fourte- ne yeres agone, bodie, I can not tel: God knoweth) which was taken vp into the thirde heauen.

And I knowe fuche a man (whether in the bodie, or out of y bodie, I can not tel: God knoweth.)

4 How that he was take vp into Paradise, & heard wordes which can not be spoken, which are not "possible for man to vter.

5 Of fuche a man wil I reioyce: of my self wil I not reioyce, except it be of mine in- firmities.

6 For thogh I wolde reioyce, I shulde not be a foole: for I wil fay the tructh, but I refrai ne, lest anie ma shulde thinke of me abouz that he seeth in me, or y he heareth of me.

7 And lest I shulde be exalted out of mea- sure through the abundance of reuelatios; there was giuen vnto me a pruke in the flesh, y messenger of Sata to buffet me, be- cause I shulde not be exalted out of mea- sure.

8 For this thing I besoght the Lord thrife, that it might departe from me.

9 And he said vnto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made perftie through weakenes. Verie gladly therefore wil I reioyce rather in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessities, in perfectings, in anguish for Christs sake: for who I am weake, then am I strong.

11 I was a foole to boast my self: ye haue compelled me: for I ought to haue bene commended of you: for in nothing was I inferior vnto the verie chief Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 The signes of an Apostle were wrought among you with all patience, with signes, and wonders, and great workes.

13 For what is it, wherein ye were inferiours vnto other Churches, *except that I haue not bene 'loothful to your hinderance' for- give me this wrong.

14 Beholde, the thirde time I am readie to come vnto you, and yet wil I not be loothful to your hinderance: for I foke not yours, but you: for the children ought not to laye vp for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I wil moste gladly bestowe, and wil be bestowed for your rules: though the more I loue you, the lese I am loued.

16 But be it that I charged you not: yet forasmuche as I was craftie, I toke you with guile.

17 Did I pilly ou by anie of them whome sent vnto you?

18 I haue desired Titus, & with him I ha- ue sent a brother: did Titus pil you of anie thing? walked we not in the self same spirit? walked we not in the same steppes?

THE EPISTLE OF

the Apostle Paul to the Galatians.

THE ARGUMENT.

The Galatias after they had bene instructed by S. Paul in the trueth of the Gospel, gaue place to faife Apostles, who entring in, in his abfence corrupted the pure doctrine of Christ, & taught that the ceremonies of the Law must be necessarily obserued, which thing the Apostle so earnestly reasoneth against, that he proueth that the granting thereof is the ouerthrowe of mans saluacion purchaffid by Christ: for thereby the light of the Gospel is obscured: the conscience burdened:

the te- ftaments confounded: mans justice established. And betaufe the faife teachers did pretend, as thogh they had bene-fent of the chief Apostles, and that Paul had no autortis, but fpake of him self, he proueth bothe that he is an Apostle ordained by God, and also that he is not inferior to the rest of the Apostles: which thing established, he procedeth to his purpose, prouing that we are freely justified before God without any works or ceremonies: which notwithstanding in their time had their use and commoditie: but now they are not onely unprofitable figures, but also pernicious, becaufe Christ the trueth and the end thereof is come: wherefore men eght now to embrace that libertie, which Christ hath purchaffid by his blood, & not to haue their consciences foared in the grennes of mans traditions: finally he sheweth wherein the libertie standeth, and what exercises apperteine there- unto.

To whome be glorie for euer and euer, Amen.

I marueile that ye are so some remoued a- way vnto another 'Gospel, from him that had called you in the ^d grace of Christ,

Which is not another Gospel, saue & there be some which trouble you, and intende to ^e peruert the Gospel of Christ.

But thogh that we, or an ^e Angel from heauen preache vnto you other wise, the that which we haue preached vnto you, let him be accursed.

As we said before, so say I now againe, If an^a man preache vnto you otherwise, the & ye haue receiued, let him be accursed.

For s now preache I mans doctrine, or Gods or go I about to pleasement for if I shulde yet please men, I were not the seruant of Christ.

Now I certifie you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of me, was not after^b man.

For nether receiued I it of man, nether was I taught it, but by the ^e reuelation of Iesus Christ.

For ye haue heard of my conversation in time paste, in the Iewish religio, how that ^e I persecuted the Church of God extre- mely, and wasted it,

And profited in the Iewish religio abou- manie of my ^e companions of mine owne nacion, and was muche more zealous of & traditions of my fathers.

But when it e pleased God (which had se- parated me from my mothers wombe, and called me by his grace)

To reueile his Sonne in me, that I shul- de preache him e among the Gentiles, im- mediately I communicated not with e flesh and blood:

Nether came I againe to Ierusalem to them which were Apostles before me, but I went into Arabia, & turned againe vn- to Damascus.

18 Then after the yeres I came againe to Ierusalem to visite Peter, and abode with him fifteen dayes.

19 And none other of the Apostles saue I, saue Iames the Lords brother.

20 Now the things which I write vnto you, beholde, I witness before God, that I lie not.

21 After that, I went into the coastes of Sy- ria & Cilicia: for I was vnknown by face vnto the Churches of Iudea, which were in Christ.

22 But they had heard onely some say, He w persecuted vs in time past, now preacheth the death, which before he destroyed.

23 And they glorified God for me.

CHAP. II.

Confirming his Apostleship to be of God, & He shew-eth why Titus was not circumcised, 6 And that he is nothing inferior to other Apostles: 11 Yes, and that he hath re- proved Peter the Apostle of the Lewes. 12 After he cometh to the principal scope, which is to prove that justification only commeth of the grace of God by faith in Iesus Christ, and not by the works of the Laws.

1 Then fourtene yeres after, I went vp againe to Ierusalem with Barnabas, and toke with me Titus also.

2 And I went vp by reuelation, and communicated with the of the Gospel which I preache among the Gentiles, but particularly with them that were the chief, lest by any meanes I shulde runne, or had runne in vain:

3 But nether yet Titus which was with me, thogh he were a Grecian, was ^b compelled to be circumcised

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the Gospel over the vncircumcision was committed unto me, as the Gospel over the Circumcision was unto Peter:

but by the faith of Ie- fus Christ: euen we, I fcy, haue befeued in Iefus Christ, that we might be iustified by the faith of Christ, and not by the workes of the Law, becaufe that by the workes of the Law no fleft fhall be iustified.

CHAP. III.

He rebuketh them fearpely. 2 And preueth by di- vers reasone that iustification is by faith. 6 As ap- peareth by the example of Abraham, 10.19.24. And by the office, & the end, both of the Law, 11.25. And of faith.

O Foolish Galatias, who hathe bewit- ched you that ye fudde not obey the trueth, to whome Iesus Christ before was defcribed in your fight, & among you cru- cified?

2 This onely wolde I learne of you, Recei-ued ye the Spirit by the workes of I Law, or by the hearing of faith preached?

3 Are ye fo foolish, that after ye haue be- gonne in the Spirit, ye wolde now be ma- de perfte by the flesh?

4 Haue ye fuffred fo many things in vaine if fo be it be euen in vaine.

5 He therefore I miniftreth to you the Spi- rit, & worketh miracles among you, doth be it through the workes of the Law, or by the hearing of faith preached?

6 Tea vather as Abraham befeued God, & it was imputed to him for righteousnes.

7 Knowe ye therefore, that they which a- re of faith, the fame are the children of A- braham.

8 For the Scripture forefeing, I God wolde iustifie I Gétiles through faith, preached before I Gofpel vnto Abrahá, faying: "In thee fhall all the Gentiles be blefled.

9 So then they which be of faith, are blef- fed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the f works of the Law, are vnder the curfe: for it is written, "Cursed is euerie man that continueth not in all things, which are writte in the booke of the Law, to do them.

11 And that no man is iustified by the Law in the fight of God, it is euident: for the iust fhall liue by faith.

12 And the s Law is not of faith: but the man that fhall do thofe things, fhall liue in them.

2 He laboureth to drawe them away from Circumcision, 17
And sheweth them the battel hermes the Spirit & the flesh, and the frites of them bothe.

3 Stand fast therefore in the libertie wherewith Christ hathe made vs free, and be not intangible: againe with the yo- ke of bondage.

4 * Beholde, I Paul say vnto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shal profite you nothing.

5 For I testifie againe to euerie man, which is circumcised, that he is bounde to kepe the whole Law.

6 Ye are * abolished from Christ: wi. ofoe- uer are justified by the Law, ye are fallen from grace.

7 For we through the Spirit b waite for the hope of righteousness through faith.

8 For in Iesus Christ neither Circumcision auaieth anie thing, neither vncircumcision, but faith which worketh by loue.

9 Ye did runne wel: who did let you, that ye did not obese the
* trueth?

10 It is not the persuasion of him that d cal- leth you.

11 * A little * leauen doeth leauen the whole lompe.

12 I haue trust in you through the Lord, that ye wil be none otherwise c minded: but he that troubleth you, shal beare bu condemnation, whosoeuer he be.

13 And brethren, if I yet preache circum- cision, why do I yet suffer persecution? Then is the s slander of the crostle abo- lished.

14 Wolde to God they were euen cut of, which do disquiet you.

15 For brethren, ye haue bene called vnto libertie: onely vse not your libertie as an oc casion vnto the flesh, but by loue serue one another.

16 For h all the Law is fulfilled in one wor- de, which is this, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy self.

17 If ye byte & deuoure one another, take hede lest ye be consumed one of another.

18 Then I say, * walke in the Spirit, and ye shal not fulfil the lustes of the flesh.

19 For the b flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrarie one to the other, so that ye can not do the same things that ye wolde.

18 And if ye be led by the Spirit, ye are not vnder the Law.

19 Moreover the works of the flesh are manifest, which are adulterie, fornicacio, vncleennes, wantonnes,

20 Idolatrie, witchcraft, hatred, debate, emulation, wrath, contentions, sedicions, beresies,

21 Enuic, murthers, drunkennes, glotonie, and siche like, whereof I tell you before, as I also haue tolde you before, that they which do siche things, shal not inherite the kingdome of God.

22 But the frute of the Spirit is loue, ioye, peace, long suffering, gentlenes, goodnes, faith,

23 Mekenes, temperancie: against siche there is * no Law.

24 For they that are Christs, * haue crucified the flesh with the affections and the lustes.

25 If we liue in the Spirit, let vs also walke in the Spirit.

26 Let vs not be desirous of vaine glorie, prouoking one another, enuying one another. CHAP. VI.

1 He exhorteth them to vse gentlenes to warde the weake, 2
And to shewe these bretherlie loue and modestie, 6 Also to preude for their munifiers, 9 To perseuer, 24 To reoyce in the crostle of Christ, 15 To newnes of life, 16 And last of all wolheth to them with the rest of the faithful all proliferate.

1 B Rethren, if a man be a fallen by occasion vnto anie faute, ye which are spiritual, restore siche one with the spirit of mekenes, considering thy self, lest thou also be tempted.

2 Beare ye one anothers burden, and so b fulfil the Law of Christ.

3 For if anie man some to him self, that he is some what, when he is * nothing, he deceueth him self in his imagination.

4 But let euerie man proue his owne worke, and then shal he haue d reioycing in him self onely and not in another.

5 * For euerie man shal beare his owne burden.

6 Let him that is taught in the worde, make him that hathe taught him, partaker of all his * goods.

7 Be not deceiued: God is not mocked: for wharsoeuer a man soweth, that shal he also reape.

8 For he that soweth to his flesh, shal of the flesh reape corruptio: but he that soweth to the spirit, shal of the spirit reape life euerlasting.

9 * Let vs not therefore be wearie of wel doing: for in due season we shal s reape, if we faint not.

10 While we haue therefore time, let vs do good vnto all men, but specially vnto the, which are of the housholde of faith.

THE EPISTLE OF

Paul to the Ephesians.

THE ARGUMENT.

While Paul was prisoner at Rome, there entered in among the Ephesians false teachers, who corrupted the true doctrine which he had taught them, by reason whereof he wrote this Epi- ste to confirme them in that thing, which they had learned of him. And first after his salutation, he as- sureth them of saluacion, because they were thereunto predestinate by the free election of God, before they were borne, and sealed up to this eternal life by the holic God, given vnto them by the Gospel, the knowledge of the which mysterie he prayeth God to confirme towards them. And to the intent they shulde not glorie in them selues, he sheweth them their extreme misery, wherein they were plon- ged before they know Christ, as people without God, Gentiles to whome the promises were not made, and yet by the free mercie of God in Christ Iesus, they were saued, and he appointed to be their A- postle, as of all other Gentiles: therefore he defteth God to lighten the Ephesians hearts with the per- fite understanding of his Sonne, ex exhorteth them likewise to be minded of so great benesses, ne- ther to be moved with the false apostles, which seke to overthrow their faith, and treade under fate the Gospel, which was not preached to them, as by chance or fortune, but according to the eternal coun- sel of God: who by this means prescueth onely his Church. Therefore the Apostle commendeth his ministeries, forasmuch as God thereby vngreath among men, and causeth it to bring for the most plentiful fruces, as innocencie, holines, with all soche of fries appertaining to godlines. Last of all, he de- clared not onely in general what oghe to be the life of the Christians, but also sheweth particularly, what things concerne euerie mans vocation.

CHAP. I.

After his salutation, a He sheweth that the chief cause of their saluacion standeth in the free election of God through Christ. 10 He declareth his good wil to warde them, giving thanks and praying God for their faith. 21 The manestle of Christ.

of our Lord Iesus Christ the Father of glorie, might give vnto you the Spirit of wisdom, and reuelation through the knowledge of him, 19 That y eyes of your understanding may be lightened that ye may know what the hope is of his calling, and what the riches of his glorious inheritance is in the Saintes, 20 And what is y exceeding greatnes of his power toward vs, which beleue, * according to the working of his mightie power, 21 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and let him at his right hand in the heauenlie places, 22 Farre aboue all principalitie, and power, & might, & domination, & euerie Name, that is named, not in this worlde onely, but also in that that is to come, 23 * And hath made all things subiect vnder his fete, & hath appointed him ouer all things to be the head to the Church, 24 Which is his bodie, euen the members of him that filleth all in all things. CHAP. II. To magnifie the grace of Christ, which is the onlie cause of saluation, 15 He sheweth them what maner of people they were before their conuersion, 16 And what they are now in Christ. 1 A Now you hath been quickened, that were dead in trespasses and finnes, 2 Wherein, in time past ye walked, according to the course of this worlde, or after the * a prince that ruleth in the aire, euen the Spirit, that now worketh in the children of disobedience, 3 Among whome we also had our conversation in time past, in the lusts of our flesh, in fulfilling the wil of the flesh, & of the minde, and were by nature the children of wrath, as well as others. 4 But

God which is riche i mercie, through his great loue wherewith he loued vs, 5 Euen when we were dead by finnes, hathe quickened vs together in Christ, by whose grace ye are faued, 6 And hathe a raised vs vp together, and made vs sie together in the heauenlie places in Christ Iesus, 7 That he might shew in the ages to come the exceeding riches of his grace, through his kindness towards vs in Christ Iesus. 8 For by grace are ye faued through faith, and that not of your selues: it is the gifte of God, 9 Not of workes, lest any man shulde boaste himself. 10 For we are his workmanship created in Christ Iesus vnto good workes, which God hathe ordained, that we shulde walke in them. 11 Wherefore remember that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, or called * vncircumcision of them, which are called circumcision in the flesh, made with hands, 12 That ye were, I say, at y time without Christ, & were alienates from the comune width of Israel, & were strangers from the scouenants of promes, & had no hope, & were without God in the worlde. 13 But now in Christ Iesus, ye which once were farre of, are made nere by the blood of Christ. 14 For he is our peace, which hathe made of bothe one, & hathe broken the stoppc of the particion wali, 15 In abrogating through his flesh the hatred, that is, the Law of commandements which Handeth in ordinances, for to make of twaine one newe man in him self, so making peace, 16 And that he might reconcile bothe vnto God in one bodie by his cross, & shaye hatred thereby, 17 And came, and preached peace to you which were a farre of, & to them that were nere. 18 For through him we bothe haue an en- trance vnto the Father by one Spirit. 19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers & foreners: but citzens with the Saintes, and of the housholde of God, 20 And are buylt vp o the fundation of the Apostles and Prophetes, Iesus Christ him self being the chief corner stine, 21 In whome all the building coupled to- gether, groweth vnto an holic Temple in the Lord, 22 In whome ye also are buylt together to be the habitation of God by the Spirit. CHAP. III. He sheweth the

THE EPISTLE OF

Paul to the Philippians.

THE ARGUMENT.

Paul being warned by the holie Gofp to go to Macedonia, planted firft a Church at Philippi a critic of the fame country: but because his charge was to preache the Gospel vnuerfally to all the Gentiles, he traiailed from place to place, til at the length he was taken prifoner at Rome, whereof the Philippians, being aduerted, fent their minifter Epaphroditus with relief vnto him: who declaring him the ftate of the Church, caufed him to write this Epistle, whereon he commen- deth them that they ftode manfully againft the felfe apoffes, putting them in mande of his good wil towards them, and exhorteth them that his imprisonment make them not to strinke: for the Gospel thereby was confirmed and not dimmished: especially he defireth them to fite ambition, and to embrace embrace modestie, promising to send Timotheus vnto them, who should instruct them in matters more amply yea, and that he him self wode also come vnto them, adding likewise the cause of their ministers so long abode. And because there were no greater enemies to the cross than the false apostles, he costeth their false doctrine, by proving only Christ to be the end of all true religion, with whom we have all thing, and without whom we have nothing, so that his death is our life, and his resurrection our suffocation. After this fall we cettine admonitions both particular and general, with testification of his affliction towards them, and thankful accepting of their beneuolence.

Aul & Timotheus the servants of I E S V S C H R I S T, to all the Saintes in Christ Iesus which are at Philippi, with the 2 Bishops, and Deacons:

3 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, & from the Lord Iesus Christ. 4 I thanke my God having you in perfect memorie,

4 (Alwase in all my prayers for all you, praying with gladnes)

5 Because of the 6 fellowship which ye have in the Gospel, from the 7 first day vnto now.

6 And I am persuaded of this same thing that he that hath be begone this good worke in you, wil performe it vntil the 4 day of Iesus Christ,

7 As it becometh me so to iudge of you all because I have you in remembrance 8 that both in my bides, and in my defense, and confirmation of the Gospel you all were partakers of my 9 grace.

8 For God is my recorde, how I long after you all from the verie heart rote in Iesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your loue may abude, yet more and more in knowledge, and in all judgement,

10 That ye may discerne things that differ one from another, that ye may be pure, and without offence, vntil the day of Christ,

11 Filled with the frutes of 2 righteousness, which are by Iesus Christ vnto the glorie and praise of God.

12 ¶ I wode ye vnderstode, brethren, that the things which have come vnto me, are turned rather to the furthering of the Gospel,

13 So that my bides in 1 Christ are famous throughout all the 2 judgement hall, and in all other places,

14 In so much that manie of the brethren in the Lord are boldned through my bandes, and dare more frankly speake the 1 worde.

15 Some preache Christ eue through enuie and strife, and some also of good wil.

16 The one parte preacheth Christ of contention & not 17 purely, supposing to ad- de more affliction to my bandes.

17 But the others of loue, knowing that I 18 am set for the defense of the Gospel.

19 What then yet Christ is preached all maner wayes, whether it be vnder a pre- tence, or sincerely: and I therein ioye: yea, and wil ioye.

19 For I knowe that this shal turne to my saluation, through your prayer, & by the helpe of the Spirit of Iesus Christ,

20 As I hartely loke for, and hope, that in nothing I shalbe ashamed, but that with all confidence, as all wayes, so now Christ shal be magnified in my bodie, whether it be by life or by death.

21 For Christ is to me both in life, and in death advantage.

22 And whether to 23 liue in the flesh we 24 profitable for me, and what to chose I know not.

23 For I am greatly in doute on both fi- des, desiring to be lofed and to be with Christ, which is best of all.

24 Neuertheles, to abide in the flesh is mo- re nedeful for you.

25 And this am I sure of, that I shal abide, and with you all continue, for your surthe- rance and ioye of your faith,

26 That ye may more abundantly reioyce in Iesus Christ for me, by my comming to you againe.

27 28 Only let your cowerfation be, as it be- cometh 29 Gospel of Christ, that whether I come and se you, or els be absent, I may heare of your matters that ye continue in one Spirit, & in one minde fighting toge- ther through the faith of the Gospel.

28 And in nothing feare your aduersaries, which is to them a 30 token of perdition, & to you of saluation, and 31 that of God.

29 For vnto you it is giuen 30 for Christ, that not onely ye shulde beleue in him, but al- so suffer for his sake,

30 Hauing the same sight, which ye sawe in me, and now heare to be in me.

CHAP. II.

3 He exhorteth them above all things to humilitie, whereby pure doctrine is chiefly maintained, 19 Tra- mising that he and Timotheus will speedy come vn- to them, 27 And excuseth the long varying of Epa- phreditus.

that for whofe fake alfo I am h comprehended of Christ Iesus.

13 Brethren, I counte not my self, that I ha- ue attained to it, but one thing I do: I forget that which is behinde, and endeuoure my self vnto that which is before,

14 And followe hard toward the i marke, for the prife of the hie calling of God in Christ Iesus.

15 Let vs therefore as manie as k be l per- fect, be thus minded: and if ye be other- wife minded, God shal reueile eue the n sa- me vnto you.

16 Neuertheles, in that whereunto we are come, let vs procede by one rule, * that we may minde one thing.

17 Brethren, be folowers of me, and loke on them, which walke fo, as ye haue vs for an enfample.

18 *For manie walke, of whome I haue tol- de you often, & now tell you weping, that they are the enemies of the a Croffe of Christ,

19 Whofe "end is damnacion, whofe God is their belie, and whoft a glorie is to their shame, which minde earthlie things.

20 But our e conuerfacion is in heauen, fro whence alfo we loke for the *Sauiour, euen the Lord Iesus Christ,

21 Who shal change our vile bodie, that it may be facioned like vnto his glorious bodie, according to the working, whereby he is able euen to subdue all things vnto him self.

CHAP. III.

1 He exhortheth them to be of benefit conuerfacion, 11. And thanketh them, because of the provision that they made for him being in prison, 21. And fo concludeth with salutacions.

2 Therefore, my brethren, beloued and longed for, my joy and my crowne, fo continue in the Lord, ye beloued.

3 I pray Euodias, & befeche Syntyche, that they be of one accorde in the Lord,

4 Yea, and I befeche thee, faithful yokefelowe, helpe thofe women, which laboured with me in the Gospel, with Clemente also, and with other my felowe laborers, whose names are in the * a booke of life.

4 Reioyce in the Lord alway, againe I say, reioyce.

5 Let your patient minde be knowen vnto all men. The Lord is with you at hand.

6 * Be nothing careful, but in all things let your requestes be shewed vnto God in prayer, and supplication with giuing of thankes.

7 And the peace of God which passeth all vnderstanding, shal preferue your hearts and mindes in Christ Iesus.

8 Furthermore, brethré, whatfoeuer things are true, whatfoeuer things are honest, whatfoeuer things are iust, whatfoeuer things are pure, whatfoeuer things percie- ne to loue, whatfoeuer things are of good reporte, if there be anie vertue, or if there be anie praife, thinke on thefe things,

9 Which ye haue bothe learned and recei- ued, and heard, and fene in me: thofe thigs do, and the God of peace shalbe with you.

10 Now I reioyce alfo in the Lord greatly, that now at the last ye are d reuiued agai- ne to care for me, wherein notwithstanding ye were careful, but ye lacked opportu- nitie.

11 I fpeake not because of e want: for I ha- ue learned in whatfoeuer state I am, the- rewith to be content.

12 And I can be abased, and I can abunde: euerie where in all things I am instructed bothe to be ful, and to be hongrie, and to abunde, and to haue want.

13 I am able to do all things through the helpe of f Christ, which ftrêgtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding ye haue wel done, that ye did communicate to mine affliction.

15 And ye Philippians knowe also that in the beginning of the Gospell, when I departed from Macedonia, no Church communicated with me concerning the matter of giuing and receiuing, but ye onely.

16 For euen when I was in Theffalonica, ye sent once, and afterwards againe for my necessitye,

17 Not that I desire a gifte but I desire the frute which may further your reckening.

18 Now I haue receiued all, and haue plenty: I was euen filled, after that I had received of Epaphroditus that which came from you, an odour that smelleth sweetly, a sacrifice acceptable and pleasant to God.

19 And my God shal fulfil all your necessities through his riches with glorie in Iesus Christ.

20 Vnto God euen our Father be praise for euermore, Amen.

are with me, greet you.

THE EPISTLE OF

Paul to the Colofſians.

THE ARGUMENT.

In this Epistle 3. Paul putteth difference between the liuelie, effectual and true Chriſt, and the ſul- ne, contrefait and imagined Chriſt, whome the false apoſtles taught. And firſt, he conformeth the doctrine which Epaphras had preached, wiſhing them increaſe of faith, to eſtem the excuſe of God benefite towards them, teaching them alſo that ſaluacion, and whatſoever good thing can be deſired, ſtandeth onely in Chriſt, whome onely we embrace by the Goſpel. But foremuſe as the false brethren welde haue mixed the Law with the Goſpel, he toucheth thoſe flatterers vehemently, and exhorteth the Colofsians to flaye onely on Christ, without whome all things are but mere vanitie. And as for circumcision, abstinence from meates, external holines, worshiping of Angels as means whe- reby to come to Christ, he utterly condemneth, shewing what was the office and nature of ceremonies, which by Christ are abrogate: so that now the exercises of the Christians Stande in mortification of the flesh, newenes of life, with other like offices appertaining lethe generally or particularly to all the faithful.

CHAP. 1.

3 He giueth thanks vnto God for their faith, 7 Con- fermeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 Praise for the increase of their faith. 13 He flarmeth vnto them the true Christ, and disconcerteth the contrefaith Christ of the false apostles. 25 He appreneth his austeritie & charge, 26 And of his faithful executing of the same.

THE FIRST EPISTLE

of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that the Thessalonians had bene well instructed in the faith, persecution, which perpetually followeth the preaching of the Gospel, arose, against the which although they did constantly stand, yet S. Paul (as most careful for them) sent Timothe to strengthen them, who soon after admonishing him of their estate, gave occasion to the Apostle to conferre them by divers arguments to be constant in faith, & to suffer whatsoever God calleth them vnto for the testimony of the Gospel, exhorting them to declare by their godly living the purity of their religion. And as the Church can neuer be so purged, that some cockle remain not among the wheat, so there were among them wicked men, which by mowing waine and curious questions to overthrowe their faith, taught falsely, as touching the point of the resurrection from the dead: whereof he briefly instructeth them what to think, earnestly forbidding them to feke curiously to know the times, willing them rather to wathe loft the fudden comming of Christ come vpon them at vnware: and fo after certeine exhortations, and his commendations to the brethren, he endeth.

CHAP. I.

2 He thanketh God for them, that they are fo stedfast in faith & good workes. 6 And receiue the Gospel with such earnestnes. 7 That they are an example to all others.

6 Nether foght we praise of men, nether of you, nor of others,

7 When we might haue bene chargeable, as the Apostles of Christ: but we were gen- tle among you, euen as a d nource cheri- seth her children.

8 Thus being affectioned towarde you, our good wil was to haue dealt vnto you, not the Gospel of God onely, but also our owne foules, because ye were dere vnto vs.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour & trauailfor we laboured day & night, be- cause we wolle not be chargeable vnto a- nie of you, & preached vnto you the Gos- pel of God.

10 Ye are witneffes, and God also, how ho- lily, & iustly, & vnb lameably we behaued our felues among you that beleue.

11 As ye knowe how that we exhorted you, and comforted, and befoght euerie one of you (as a father his children)

12 That ye wolle walke worthie of God, who hathe called you vnto his king dome and glorie.

13 For this cause also thanke we God with- out ceasing, that whe ye receiued of vs the worde of the preaching of God, ye recei- ued it not as the worde of men, but as it is in dede the worde of God, which also wor- keth in you that beleue.

14 For brethren, ye are become followers of the Churches of God, which in Iudea are in f Christ Iefus, because ye haue also suffred y fame things of your owne coun- trey men, euen as they haue of the Iewes,

15 Who bothe killed the Lord Iefus and their owne Prophetes, & haue persecuted vs, and God they please not, and are contraries to all men,

16 And forbid vs to preache vnto the Gen- tiles, that they might be faued, to b fulfil their finnes alwaist: for the wrath of God is come on them, to the vtmoſte.

17 Forafmuch brethren, as we were kept from you for a feafon, c cerning fight, but not in the heart, we enforced the more to fe your face with great desire.

18 Therefore we wolke haue come vnto you (I Paul, at ieaft once or twife) but Safa hindered vs.

19 For what is our hope or ioye, or crowne of reioy cigs are not eue you it in y preen ce of our Lord Iefus Christ at his comig?

20 Yes, ye are our glorie and ioye.

CHAP. III.

2 He, sheweth here greatly he was affeitioned towarde them bathe in that he sent Timotheus to them, to And also prayed for them.

1 W Herefore since we colde no lon- ger forbear, we thoght it good to remaine at Athens alone,

2 And haue sent Timotheus one brother & minister of God, and our labour felow in the Gospel of Christ, to stabliffh you, and to comfort you touching your faith,

3 That no man shulde be moued with thefe afflictions. for ye your felues knowe, that we are appointed thereunto.

4 For verely when we were with you, we tolde you before that we shulde suffre tri- bulations, euen as it came to paffe, and ye knowe it.

5 Euen for this cause, when b I colde no lon- ger forbear, I sent him y I might knowe of your faith, left the ceptter had tempted you in any forte, and that our labour had bene in vaine.

6 But now lately when Timotheus came from you vnto vs, and broght vs good ti- dings of your faith & loue, and that ye ha- ue good remembrance of vs alwayes, defi- ring to fe vs, as we also do you,

7 Therefore, brethren, we had confolation in you, in all our affliction and necefite through your faith.

8 For now are we a alue, if ye c stand faft in the Lord.

9 For what thakes can we recopenfe to God againe for you for all the ioye wherewith we reioyce for your fakes before our God,

10 Night and day praying exceedingly y we might fe your face, & might accomplifh that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God him self, euen our Father, and our Lord Iefus Christ, guide our sorney vnto you,

12 And the Lord increafe you & make you abunde in loue one toward another, and toward all me, eue as we do toward
you:

that, day shulde come on you, as it were a thefe.

5 Yere all the children of light, and the children of the day, we are not of the night nether of darkenes.

6 Therefore let vs not flepe as do other, but let vs watch and be sober.

7 For they that flepe, flepe in the night, & they that be dronken, are dronken in the night.

8 But let vs which are of the *day, be sober, putting on y breft plate of faith & loue, & of the hope of faluation for an helmet.

9 For God hathe not appointed vs vnto wrath, but to obtaine faluatíó by the mea- nes of our Lord Iefus Christ,

10 Which dyed for vs, that whether we wa- ke or flepe, we shulde liue together with him.

11 Wherefore exhorte one another, & edi- fie one another, euen as ye do.

12 Now we beseche you, brethren, that ye knowe them, which labour among you, & are ouer you in the Lord, and admonish

you,

THE SECONDE EPI-

file to the Theſſalonians.

THE ARGUMENT.

Lest the Theffalonians shulde thunke that Paul neglected them, because he went to other places, rather then came to the, he writeth vnto them and exhorteth the to patience and other frutes of faith, nether to be moued with that vaine opinion of fuche as taught that the comming of Christ was at hand, for afmuche as before that day there shulde be a falling away from true religion, even by a great parte of the worlds, and that Antichrist shulde reign in the Temple of God finally commending him self to their prayers, ex-encouraging them to cofiance, he wilfeth the to correct fuche sharply, as line idelly of other mens labours, whome, if they do not obey his admonitions, he commandeth to excommunicate.

CHAP. I.

He thanketh God for their faith, love and patience. He prateeth for the encrofe of the fame. And sheweth what frute shal come thereof.

1. Aul and Siluanus, and Timotheus vnto the Church of the Theffalonians, which is in God our Father, and in the Lord Iefus Christ:
2. Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iefus Christ.

3. We ought to thabe God alwayes for you, brethren, as it is mete, becaufe that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the loue of euerie one of you towarde another abundeth,
4. So that we our felues reioyce of you in the Churches of God, becaufe of your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye suffre,
5. Which is a token of the righteous iudgement of God, that ye may be counted worthie of the kingdoms of God, for which ye also suffre.
6. For it is a righteous thing with God, to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you,
7. And to you which are troubled, rest with us when the Lord Iesus shal shewe him self from heauen with his mightie Angels,
8. In flaming fyre, rendring vengeance vnto them, that do not knowe God, & which obey not vnto the Gospel of our Lord Iesus Christ,
9. Which shalbe punished with euerlasting perdition, from the prefence of the Lord, and from the glorie of his power,
10. When he shal come to be glorified in his Saintes, and to be made matueillous in all the that beleue (becaufe outrestimonie towarde you was beleued) in that day.

11. Wherefore, we also praye alwayes for you, that our God may make you worthie of his calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, & the worke of faith with power,

12. That Name of our Lord Iesus Christ may be glorified in you, & ye in him, according to the grace of our God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ.

13. I am and all these he worketh of his mere grace through Christ, & God's wonderful worke to us. As the head with the departing from the faith come firft. And the kingdoms of Antichrist. And therefore he exhorteth them not to be deceived, but to stand standfast in the things that he hath taught them.

1. Now we beseeche you, brethren, by y comming of our Lord
Iesus Christ, and by our assembling vnto him,

2. That ye be not suddenly moued frō your minde, nor troubled nether by spirit, nor by worde, nor by letter, as it were from vs, as though the daye of Christ were at hand.
3. Let no man deceive you by any meanes: for that day shal not come, except there come a departing first, and that that man of sinne be disclosed, even sonne of perdition,
4. Which is an aduerfarie, and exalteeth him self against all that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that he doeth sit as God in the Temple of God, shewing him self that he is God.
5. Reméber ye not, that whē I was yet with you, I tolde you these things?

vnfteth them all wealth.

1 Furthermore, brethren, pray for vs, y the worde of the Lord may haue fre- passage, and be glorified, euen as it is with you,

2 And that we may be deliuered from vn- reasonable and euil ment for all men haue not faith.

3 But the Lord is faithful, which wil sta- blish you, and kepe you from euil.

4 And we are persuaded of you through the Lord, that ye bothe do, and wil do the things which we commande you.

5 And the Lord guide your hearts to the loue of God, & the weating for of Christ.

6 We commande you, brethren, in the Na- me of our Lord Iesus Christ, that ye with- drawe your selues fro euerie brother that walketh inordinately, and not after the instruction, which he receiued of vs.

7 For ye your selues knowe how ye ought to folowe vs: for we behaued not our sel- ues inordinately among you,

8 Nether toke we bread of anie man for noght: but we wrought with labour & tra- uaile night & day, because we wolde not be chargeable to anie of you.

9 Not but that we had autoritie, but that we might make our selues an cniample vnto you to folowe vs.

10 For euen when we were with you, this we warned you of, that if there were anie, which wolde not worke, that he shulde not eat.

11 For we heard, that there are some which walke among you inordinately, and wor- ke not at all, but are busie bodies.

12 Therefore them that are suche, we com- mande and exhorte by our Lord Iesus Christ, that they worke with quietnes, and eat their owne bread.

13 And ye, brethren, be not wearie in wel doing.

14 If anie man obey not our sayings, note him by a lettre, and haue no companie with him, that he maie be ashamed.

15 Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

ftle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGUMENT.

In writing this Epistle Paul semed not only to haue respect to teache Timotheus, but chiefly to kepe other in awe, which wolde haue rebelled against him, because of his youth. And therefore he doth arme him against those ambitious questionities, which under pretence of zeale to the Bdb.1.

The end of the Law.

I. Timotheus.

Why Christ came.

Law, disquieted the godlie with foolish and unprofitable questions, whereby they declared, that professing the Law they know not what was the chief end of the Law. And as for him self he so confesseth his unworthiness, that he sheweth to what worthiness the grace of God has he preferred him: and therefore he willed praises to be made for all degrees and sortes of men, because that God by offering his Gospel and Christ his Sonne to them all, is indifferent to enerte sorte of men, as his Apostleship, which is peculiar to the Gentiles, with self. And for a sinue as God has the left ministers as ordinarice meanet in his Church to bring men to saluacion, he desirdoth what manner of men they ogle to be, to whome the mysteries of the Sonne of God manifest in flesh is committed to be preached. After this he sheweth him what troubles the Church at all times shall be. He, but specially in the latter day, when an under pretence of religion men shall teach things contrarie to the words of God. Thus done, he teacheth what widdowes should be received or refused to minister to the siche: also what Elders ogle to be chosen into office, exhorting him neither to be hastie on admitting, nor in indging ante: also what is the datue of servants, the nature of false teachers, of vaine speculations, of contonsnes, of triche men, and above all things he thurgeth him to beware false doctrine.

4 Nether that they giue hede to "fables and genealogies," which are endles, which brede questiones rather then godlie edifying which is by faith.

5 For "the b end of the c commandement is loue out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith vntained.

6 From the which things some haue erred, and haue turned vnto vaine langling.

7 They wolde be doctours of the Law, and yet vnderstand not what they speake, neither whereof they affirme.

8 "And we knowe, that the Law is good, if a man vse it lawfully,

9 Knowing this, that the Law is not giuen vnto a c righteous man, but vnto the lawles and disobedient, to the vngodlie, and to defliners, to the vnholie, and to the profane, to murderers of fathers and mothers, to manslayers,

10 To whoremongers, to buggers, to thieves, to liars, to the perjured, & if there be any other thing, that is contrarie to wholesome doctrine,

11 Which is according to the glorious Gof- pel of the b bleffed God, which is com- mited vnto me.

12 Therefore I thank him, which harhe made me ftrong, that is, Christ Iesus our Lord: for he counted me faithful, and put me in his feruice:

13 When before I was a blafphemer, and a perfecuter, and an oppreffer: but I was re- ceiued to mercie: for I did it a ignorantly through vnbeliefe.

14 But the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with b faith and loue, which is in Christ Iesus.

15 This is a true faying, and by all meanes worthie to be receiued, that "Christ Iesus came into the worlde to faue finners, of whome I am chief.

16 Notwithstanding, for this caufe was I re- ceiued to mercie, that Iesus Christ ftulde firft fhewe on me all llog fuffring vnto the enfample of them, which ftall in time to come beleue in him vnto eternal life.

17 b Now vnto the King euerlafting, im- mortal, inuifible, vnto God onely wife, be honour and glorie for euer, and euer, A- men.

18 This commandement commit I vnto thee, fonne Timotheus, according to the I prophecies, which went before vpo thee, that thou by them stuldeft b fight a good fight, widowes which being justly divorced from their first boy hands marled again to the islander of the Church: for else he

4 But if any widowe haue children or nephewes, let b the learne first to shewe godlines towarde their owne house, and to recompise their kinred: for that is an honest thing and acceptable before God.

5 And she y is a widowe in dede and left alone, trusteth in God, & continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that liueeth in pleasure, is d dead, while she liueeth.

7 These things therefore commande, that they may be blameles.

8 If there be any that prouideth not for his owne, & namely for them of his housholde, he denieth the faith, and is worfe then an infidel.

9 Let not a widowe be taken into the nobler vnder thre score yere olde, that hathe be-ne the wise of one housband,

11 But refuse the yonger widowes: for whe they haue begone to waxe f waton against Christ, they wil marie,

12 Hauingdamnation, because they haue broken the first faith.

13 And likewise also being ydle they learne to go about from house to house: yea, they are not onely ydle, but also prattelers and busibodies, speaking things which are not comelie.

14 I wil therefore that the yonger women marie, and heare children, & gouerne the house, and giue none occasion to the aduersarie to speake euil.

15 For certeine are already turned backe asier Satan.

16 If any faithful man, or faithful woman haue widowes, let them minister vnto them, and let not the Church be charged, that there may be sufficient for them that are widowes in dede.

17 The Elders that rule wel, are worthie of double honour, specially they which labour in the worde and doctrine.

THE SECONDE EPI-

ftle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGUMENT.

THE Apftle being now ready to confirme that doctrine with his blood, which he had proffed and taught, encourageth Timotheus, (or in him all the faithful) in the faith of the Gofpel, & in the co- ftant & fynere conf ftio of the fame:
willing him not to ftrike for fcare of afflictio, but patiently to at- tende the yffe, as do hoft band men, which at length re-ue the ftutes of their labours, & to caft of all fear & care, as foulders do which fide: onely to pleafe their capteine fhewing him brief; the fumme of the Gofpel, which he preached, comanding him to preache the fame to others, diligently taking hede of contentio, curious difputatio, & v ainequeftio, to the intent that his doctrine may all toger her: d fie. C fidering that the exafples of Hymeneus & Philetus, which fubuerted the true doctrine of the refurr. Clio, were fo horrible: & yet to the intent that no maffhulde be off-nded at their fall, being men of auroric and in oftimatio, he fheweth that all that proffe Christ, are not his, & that the Church is subiect to this calumnie: that the euill must dwell among the godly Gods trial conce: yet he reserveth them whome he hathe obteined, euen to the end. And that Timotheus shulde not be discouraged by the wicked, he declared what abominable men, & dangerous times shal followe, willing him to arme him self with the hope of the good yssue that God wil giue vnto his, and to exercise him self diligently in the Scriptures, booke against the aduersaries, and for the vitiitie of the Church, directing him to come to him for exteigne necessarie affaires, and so with his and others salutations ended.

a Being sent of God copies the that life which he had promised in Christ Iesus.

Aul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the wil of God, according to the promes of life, which is in CHRIST IESVS, To Timotheus my beloued sonne: Grace, mercie, or peace from God the Father, & from Iesus Christ our Lord.

Alt. 22.3. b Following suppes of mine ancestres, as Abraham, I- face, Jacob, & others of who me I am come and of who- me I received the true reli- gion by success son.

I thank God, * whome I setue fro mine belders with pure conscience, that without ceasing I haue remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day,

4 Desiring to se thee, mindful of thy teares, that I may be filled with ioye:

5 When I call to remembrance the vnfained faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, & am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.

6 Wherefore, I put thee in remembrance that thou 'stire vp the gifte of God which is in thee, by the putting on of mine hands.

7 For God hathe not giuen to vs the Spirit of feare, but of power, and of loue, and of a founde minde.

8 Be not therefore ashamed of the tefimo nie of our Lord, nether of me his prisoner: but be partaker of the afflictio of the Gospel, according to the power of God,

9 Who hathe faued vs, & called vs with an holic calling, not according to our works, but according to his owne purpofe & grace, which was giuen to vs through Christ Iesus before the *worlde was,

10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Sauour Iesus Christ, who hathe abolished death, and hathe broght life and immortalitie vnto light through the Gospel.

11 *Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, & Apostle, & a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffre these things, but I am not ashamed: for I knowe whome I haue beleued, & I am persuaded that he is able to kepe that which I haue scommitted to him against that day.

13 Kepe the true paterne of the wholome wordes, which y hast heard of me in faith and loue which is in Christ Iesus.

14 That *worthie thing, which was committed to thee, kepe through the holic Goft, which dwelleth in vs.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia, be turned from me: of which forte are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord giue mercie vnto the houfe of Onepiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chaine.

17 But when he was at Rome, he foght me out verie diligently, and founde me.

18 The Lord grant vnto him, that he may finde mercie with the Lord at that day, & in how manie things he hathe ministred vnto me at Ephesus, y knowest verie wel.

CHAP. II.

2 He exhorteth him to be constant in trouble, to suffer manly, and to abyde fastie in the wholome doctrine of our Lord Iesus Christ. 11 Showing him the fidelity of Gods counsel touching the saluation of his, 12 And the marks thereof.

1 THou therefore, my sonne, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Iesus.

2 And what things thou hast heard of me, by manie witnesses, the same deliuer to faithful men, which shalbe able to *teache other also.

3 Thou therefore suffer afflictio as a good souldier of Iesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth, entangleth him self with b the affaires of this life, because he wolde please him that hathe chosen him to be a souldier.

5 And if anie ma also striue for a masterie, he is not crowned, except he striue as he oght to do.

6 The housband man c must labour before he receiue the frutes.

7 Consider what I say: and the Lord giue thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Iesus Christ made of the sede of Daudid, was raised againe from the dead according to my Gospel.

9 Wherein I suffer trouble as an euil doer, euen vnto bondes:
but the worde of God is not a bounde.

10 Therefore I suffer all things, for the *e elects sake, that they might also obcei- ne the saluation which is in Christ Iesus, with eternal glorie.

11 It is a true saying, For if we be*dead with him, we also shal

Paul to Titus.

THE ARGUMENT.

WHen Titus was left in Creta to finifh that doctrine which Paul had there begonne, & atan ftrred vp certeine which went about not onely to ouerthrowe the gouernemet of the Church, but alfo to corrupt the doctrine: for fent by ambition wolde haue thruft in them fclues to be pafstoun: others, vnder pretext of Moses Law broght in manie trifles. Against thefe two fortes of men Paul armeth Titus: firft teaching him what maner of minifters he ought to chofe, chiefly requiring that they be men of founde doctrine to the intent they might refift the aduersaries, and amongs other things he noteth the Ierues which put a certeine holines in meates or fuche outwarde ceremonies, teaching them which are the true exercifis of a Christian life, or what things apperteine to euerie mans vocation. Against the which if anie man rebelle or els doeth not obey, he wilfeth him to be auyded.

A Lwit the excellencie of Pauls spirit wonderfully appeareth in other his Epistles, yet this E- pistle is a great witness, and a declaration of the same. For furre passing the basines of his mater, he steeth as it were vp to heauen, and speaketh with a divine grace and maifitie. Onesimus ser- uant to Philemon buthe robbed his maiter, and fted away, whome Paul hauing wonne to Chrif, sent againe to his maiter, earnestly begging his pardane, with molte waighlie arguments prouing the duetic of one Chrifian to another, & fo with subcacious endeth.

1 He refoyeth to heare of the faith and loue of Philemon. 2 Whome he defireth to firgiue his seruant Onesimus, and inuingly to receiue him againe.

1 Aul a prifoner of Iesus Chrif, and our brother Timotheus, vnto Phi- lemon our dere friend, & fellow helper, 2 And to our dere sifter Apphia, and to Archip- pus our felowe fouldier, & to the Church that is in thine houle:

3 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, & from the Lord Iesus Chrif.

4 I *giue thanks to my God, making men- cion alwaies of thee in my praiers,

5 (When I heare of thy loue & faith, which thou haft toward the Lord Iesus, & tow- arde all Saintes)

6 That the a felowship of thy faith may be made frureful, and that whaffoeur good thig is in you b through Chrif Iesus, may be known.

7 For we haue great ioye and confolacion in thy loue, because by thee, brother, the Saintes c hearts are comforted.

8 Wherefore, thogh I be verie bolde in Chrif to commande thee that which is conuenient, 9 Te for loues fake I rather befeche thee, thogh I be as I am, euen Paul aged, and euen now a prifoner for Iesus Chrif.

14 But without thy minde wolde I do no- thing, that thy benefite fhulde not be as it were of neceffitie, but willingly.

15 It may be that he therefore d departed for a ceafon, that thou fhuldeft receiue him for euer, 17 If therefore thou counte our things commune, receiue him as my felf.

18 If he hathe hurt thee, or oweeth thee oght, that put on mine accountes.

19 I Paul haue written this with mine owne hand: I wil recompense it, albeit I do not fay to thee, that thou oweft vnto me euen thine owne felf.

20 Yea, brother, let me obtaine this pleafu- re of thee in the Lord: coforte my bow- els in the Lord.

THE EPISTLE TO

the Ebrewes.

THE ARGUMENT.

For a fœnuche as divers, but of the Greke writers and Latines witneffe, that the writer of this E- pistle for these causes wode not have his name known, it were our fœtle of our parte to labour muche therein. For fœng the Spirit of God is the autor thereof, it diminisheth nothing the autorite, al- thigh we knowe not with what penne he wrote it. Whether it were Paul (as it is not like) or Luke, or Barnabas, or Clement, or fœme other, his chief purpofe is to perfuade vnto the Ebrewes (whereby he principally meaneth them that abode at Ierusalem, and vnder them all the rest of the Iewes) that Christ I fœt was not one by the redemer, but also that at his comming all ceremonies muft have an end: fœrœnuche as his doctrine was the conclusion of all the prophecies, and therefore not one by Moses was inferior to him, but also the Angels: for they all were seruants, and he the Lord, but fo Lord, that he hathe also taken our fœth, and is made our brother to affure us of our fœluation through him self: for he is that eternal Priest, whereof all the Lnæssical Priests were but fœadowes, and the- refore at his comming they oght to re fœt, and all fœcrifices for fœme to be abobstred, as he prouth from the fœnuth chap. verse 11. vnto the 12. chap. verse 18. Also he was that Prophet of whome all the Prophecies in time paft witneffed, as is declared from the 12. chapter, verse 18. to the twentie and fœe verse of the fame chapter: yea, and is the King to whome all things are fœnct, as ap- peareth from that verse 24. to the beginning of the last chapter. Wherefore acceding to the exam- ples of the alde fathers we muft constantly beleue in him, that being fœnct fœd by his justice, taught by his wifdome, and governed by his power, we may fœdfaftly, and to wageoufy perseure enen to the end in hope of that eye that is fœt before our eyes, occupying our fœlus in Christian exercifes that we may bothe be thank-fœd to God, and duetifœd to our neighbour.

heard, lest at anie a time we shulde let the slippe.

For if the b worde spoken by Angels was stedfaffe, and euerie transgression, and disobedience receiued a iuste recompense of rewarde,

How shal we escape, if we neglect so great saluation, which at the first began to be preached by the Lord, and afterwar- de was confirmed vnto vs by d them that heard him,

God bearing witness thereto, both with signes and wonders, & with diuers mira- cles, and giftes of the holie Goat, accor- ding to his owne wil

For he hath not put in subiection vnto the Angels the worlde to come, whereof we speake.

But one in a certeine place witnessed, saying, What is man, that thou shuldeest be mindesul of him! or the sonne of man that thou woldeest consider him!

Thou madeest him a little inferior to the Angels: thou crownedest him with a glorie and honour, and hast set him above the workes of thine hands.

Thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his sete. And in that he hath put all things in subiection vnder him, he left nothing that shulde not be subiect vnto him. But we yet se not all things subdued vnto him.

But we se Iesus crowned with glorie & honour, which was made a little inferior to the Angels, through the suffering of death, that by Gods grace he might taste death for all men.

For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, seing that he brought manie children vnto glorie, that he shulde consecrate the Prince of their saluation through afflictions.

For he that sanctifieth, & they which are sanctified, are all n of one: wherefore he is not ashamed to call them brethren, Saying, I wil declare thy Name vnto my brethre: in the middes of the Church wil I sing pra: ses to thee.

And againe, I wil put my trust in him. And againe, Beholde, hege am I, and the children which God hath gien me.

For a sinuche then as the children were partakers of sleshe and bloode, he also him self likewise toke parte with them, that he might destroy e through death, him that had the power of death, that is the deuil,

And that he might deliuer all the, which for seare of death were all their life time subiect to bondage.

m Therefore we by afflictions are made like to the Sine of God. n The head & the mothers are of one nature; to Christ is fanciedeth vs. & we y are fancied- ed, are all not by the union of our flesh. o This prouesh Christ's humanitie. p Meaning, that Christ touching his hump, is true for truth in God. q Ifel speaketh this of him self, & his disciples, but properly it is applied to Christ y head of all mindless. r And Gods angre.

For he in no sorte toke the Angels, but f Not the na- ture of Angels but of man

Wherefore in all things it became him to be made like vnto his brethre, that he might be merciful, and a faithful high Priest in things concerning God, that he might make reconciliation for the sinnes of the people.

For in that he suffered, and was temp- ted, he is able to sucker them that are tempted.

CHAP. III.

He requireth them to be obedient vnto the worde of Christ, who is more worthy than Moses. The punishment of such as wil harden their hearts, and not believe, that they might have eternal rest.

Therefore, holie brethren, partakers of the heauenlie vocatio, consider the Apostle and high Priest of our profesiiio Christ Iesus:

Who was faithful to him that hath appointed him, euen as Moses was in all his house.

For this man is counted worthie of more glorie then Moses, inasmuch as he which hath buylded the house, hath the more honour then the house.

For euery house is buylded of some man, & he that hath buylt all things, in God. Now Moses verely was faithful in all his house, as a seruant, for a witness of y things which shulde be spoken after.

But Christ was the Sonne, ouer his owne house, whose house we are, if we holde fast the confidence and the cryeing of the hope vnto the end.

Wherefore, as the holie Ghost saith, To day if ye shal heare his voys,

Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, according to the day of the temptation in the wilderness,

Where your fathers tempted me, proued me, and sawe my workes for the yeres long.

Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They erre euer in their heart, neither haue they knowen my wayes.

Therefore I sware in my wrath, If they shal enter into my rest.

Take hede, brethren, lest at anie time there be in anie of you an euil heart, and vnfaithful, to departe away from the li- uing God.

But exhorte one another daily, while it is called To day, lest anie of you be har- dened through the deceitfulness of sinne.

For we are made partakers of Christ, if we kepe sure vnto the lend the beginning, wherewith we are vpholden,

So long as it is said, To day if ye heare his voye, hardé not your hearts, as in the prouocation.

For some when they heard, prouoked him to angre: howbeit, not all that came

1 Or euerie hie Prieft is taken from a- mong men, and is a ordeined for men, in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both the gifts & sacrifices for finnes.

2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, & laying on of hands, and of the resurrection from the dead, and of eternal judgement.

3 And this will we do if God permit.

4 For it is impossible that they, which were once lightened, and haue tasted of the heauenlie gift, and were made partakers of 10 For God is not vnrighteous, that he shulde forget your worke, and labour of loue, which ye shewed toward his Name, in that ye haue ministered vnto the Saintes, & yet minister.

11 And we desire that euery one of you shewe the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope vnto the end,

12 That ye be not stouffed, but followers of them, which through faith and patience, inherite the promises.

13 For whē God made the promises to Abraham, because he had no greater to sweare by, he sweare by himself,

14 Saying, "Surely I will abundantly bless thee and multiply thee marvellously.

15 And so after that he had taried patiently, he enjoyed the promises.

16 For men verily sweare by him that is greater than themselves, and another for confirmation is among them an end of all strife.

17 So God willing more abundantly to shewe vnto the heirs of promises the stability of his counsel, bound himself by another,

18 That by two immutable things, wherein it is vnpossible that God shulde lye, we might haue strong consolation, which haue our refuge to holde fast the hope that is set before vs,

CHAP. VII.

1 He compafeth the Priffthode of Chrift vnto Melchi-fedec. 11
Affi Christs Priffthode vnto the Leuites.

2 For this Melchi-fedec was Kig of Salem, the Prift of the moft hie God, who met Abraham, as he returned fro the flaughter of the Kings, and bleffed him:

3 To whome afo Abraham gaue the tithe of all things: who firft is by interpretation King of righthreoufnes: after that, he is afo King of Salem, that is, King of peace,

4 Without a father, without mother, without kinred, and hathenether beginning of his dayes, nether end of life: but is likened vnto the Sonne of God, and continueth a Prift for euer.

5 Now confider how great this man was, vnto whome euen the b Patriarke Abrahā gaue the tithe of the fpoiles.

6 For verely they which are the children of Leui, which receiue the office of the Prieffthode, haue a commandement to take, according to the Law, tithes of the people (that is, of their brethren) though they came out of the loynes of Abraham.

7 But he whose kinred is not counted among them, c receiued tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

8 And without all contradiction the Iesse is blessed of the greater.

9 And here me that dye, receiue eithes: but there he receiueth them, of whome it is witnessed, that he f liueh.

10 And to say as the thing is, Leui also which receiueth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

11 For he was yet in the loines of his father Abraham, when Melchi-fedec met him.

12 If therefore perfection haibene by the Prieffthode of the Leuites (for vnder it the Law was established to the people) what needed it furthermore, that another Priefft shulde rise after the order of Melchi-fedec, & not to be called after the order of Aaron?

13 For if the Prieffthode be changed, then of necessitie must there be a change of the s Law.

14 For he of whome theſe things are ſpoke, perteineh vnto an other tribe, whereof no man ſerued at the altar.

15 And it is yet a more euident thing, be- cause that after the similitude of Melchi- fedec, there is risen vp another Priest, 16 Which is not made Priest after the Law of the carnal commandement, but after the power of the endles life.

17 For hezeftifieth thus, v Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchi-fedec.

18 For the commandement that went afore, is disanulled, because of y weakenes the- reof, and vnprofitablenes.

19 For the Law made nothing perfite, but the bringing in of a better hope made per- fite, whereby we drawe nere vnto God.

20 And forafmuche as it is not without an othe (for these are made Priests without an othe:

25 Wherefore, he is able also perfiteley to faue them that come vnto God by him, feing he euer liueth, to make intercefion for them.

26 For fuche an hie Priest it became vs to haue, which is holte, harmeles, vndefiled, separate from finners, and made hier then that did he m once, when he offred vp him self.

28 For the Law maketh men hie Priests, which haue infirmitie:
but y worde of the othe that was s fince the Law, maketh the Sonne, who is confecrated for euermore.

CHAP. VIII.

He proueth the abolishing afuel of the Leuivical Priest- hode, bothe giftes and sacrifices: wherefore it was of necefuitie, that this man shulde ha- ue fomewhat also to offer.

4 For he were not a Priest, if he were on the earth, feing there

6 But now our hie Priest hathe obtained a more excellent office, in afmuch as he is the Mediatour of a better Testament, which is eftablifhed vpo better promifes.

the tables of the Testament.

5 And ouer the Arke were the glorious Cherubims, shadowing the mercie feat: of which things we wil not now speake particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordei- ned, the Priests went alwayes into the first Tabernacle, & accomplished the seruice.

7 But into the second went the his Priest alone, once euerie yere, not without blood which he offered for him self, and for the signorances of the people.

8 Whereby the holie Gott this signified, that the way into the Holiest of all was, not yet opened, while as yet the first Tabernacle was standing,

9 Which was a figure for the time present, wherein were offered gifts and sacrifices that colde not make holie, concerning the conscience, him that did the seruice,

10 Which only Rode in meats and drin- kes, and diurs washings, and carnal rites, vntil the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an his Priest of good things to come, by a greater and a more perfect Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is, not of this buyldng,

12 Nether by the blood of goates and cal- ues: but by his owne blood entred he in once vnto the holie place, and obtained eternal redemption for vs.

13 For if the blood of bulles & of goates & the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling the that are vncleane, sanctifieth as touching the purifying of the flesh,

14 How much more shal y blood of Christ which through the eternal Spirit offered him self without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works, to ferue the living God?

15 And for this cause is he the Mediator of the new Testament, that through death which was for the redemption of the transgressions that were in the former Testament, they which were called, might recei ue the promises of eternal enheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must be the death of him that made the testament.

17 For the testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no force as long as he that made it, is a liue.

18 Wherefore nether was the first ordeined without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken euerie pre- cept to the people, according to the Law, he toke the blood of calues and of goates, with water and purple wolle and hysto- pe, and sprinkled bothe the boke, and all the people,

20 Saying, This is the blood of the Te- Exo 24.8. 9. Statement, which God hath appointed vn- to you.

21 Moreover, he sprinkled likewise the Ta- bernacle with blood also, and all the mini- string vessels.

22 And almost all things are by the Law purged with blood, and without sheading of blood is no remission.

23 It was then necessarie, that the similitudes of heauelie things should be purified with suche things: but the heauenie things the selues are purified with better sacrifices then are these.

24 For Christ is not entred into the holie places that are made with hands, which a- re similitudes of the true Sanchariae: but is entred into very heauen, to appeare now in the fight of God for vs,

25 Not that he shulde offer him self soften, as the his Priest entred into the Holie pla ce euerie yere with other blood, 26 (For then must he haue often suffered fin- ce the fundacion of the worlde) but now in the end of the worlde hath he appeared once to put away sinne, by the sacrifice of him self.

27 And as it is appointed vnto men that they shal once dye, and after that commeth the iudgement,

28 So Christ was once offered to take away the sinnes of many, and vnto them that loke for him, shal he appeare the seconde time without sinne vnto saluation.

CHAP. X.

1 The olds have had no power to cluse away sinne. 20 But Christ did it with offering of his bodie once for all. 22 An exhortation to receive the goodness of God thankfully with patience and sledsoft faith.

1 For the Lawe hauing the shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can neuer with those sacrifices, which they offer yere by yere continually, sanctifie the commets thereunto.

2 For wolde they not then haue ceased to haue bene offered, because that the offerers once purged, shulde haue had no more co- science of sinnes?

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remobran- ce againe of sinnes euerie yere.

4 For it is vnpossible that the blood of bul- les & goates shulde take away sinnes.

5 Wherefore when he commeth into the worlde, he faith, Sacrifice & offering thou woldeft not: but a bodie hast thou ordei- ned me.

6 In burnt offerings, & sinne offerings thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Albeit there is but one fac- rifice, which is Christ him selfe once offi- red, yet beca- re this true & eternal sacrifi- ce is cōfīared with all those which were fi- guarame, & so many suffocate thou all they, therefore he calleth it in the plural obunde: for God had taken him away: for before he was taken away, he was reported of, that he had pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to plea- se him: for he that cometh to God, must be- lieve that God is, and that he is a rewarder of them that feke him.

7 By faith * Noe being warned of God of the things which were as yet not fene, mo- ued with reuerence, prepared the Arke to the fauing of his housholde, through the which Arke he condemned the world, & was made heure of the righteousness, which is by faith.

8 By faith * Abraham, when he was called, obeyed God, to go out into a place, which he shulde afterwards receive for inheritance, and he went out, not knowing whether he went.

9 By faith he abode in the land of promises, as in a strange country, as one that dwelt in tentes with Isaac and Jacob heires with him of the same promises.

10 For he looked for a citie hauing a foundation, whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith * Sarra also received strength to conceive children, and was delivered of a child: when she was past age, because she judged him faithful which had promised.

12 And therefore sprang there of one, even of one which was dead, so many as the starres of the skie in multitude, and as the sand of y^e sea shore which is innumerable.

13 All these dyed in faith, and received not the promises, but sawe them afarre off, and beleued them, and received them thankfully, and confessed that they were in strangers and pilgrimes on the earth.

14 For they that say suche things, declare plainly that they feke a country.

15 And if they had bene mindedful of that country, from whence they came out, they had leasure to haue returned.

16 But now they desire a better, that is an heauenlie: wherefore God is not ashamed of them to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a citie.

17 By faith * Abraham offered vp Isaac, when he was tryed, & he that had received the promises, offered his onely begottene.

18 (To whome it was said, * In Isaac shal chy fede be called).

19 For he considered that God was able to raise him vp euen from the dead: from whence he received him also after a force.

20 By faith * Isaac blessed Jacob and E- sau, concerning things to come.

21 By faith * Jacob when he was a dying, blessed bothe the sonnes of Joseph, and * leaning on the end of his staffe, worshi- ped God.

22 By faith * Joseph when he dyed, made mention of the departing of y childre of Israel, & gaue comandemet of his bones.

23 * By faith Moses when he was borne, was had thre moneths of his parentes, becau- se they sawe he was a proper childe, nether feared they the Kings * commandement.

24 By faith * Moses when he was come to age, refused to be called the sonne of Pha- raos daughter,

25 And chofe rather to suffer aduersitie with the people of God, then to enjoy the pleasures of sinnes for a ceafon, 26 Esteming the rebuke of Christ greater riches then the treasures of Egypt: for he had respect vnto the recompense of the reward.

27 By faith he forfoke Egypt, and feared not the fiercenes of the King: for he endured, as he that sawe him which is inuisible.

28 Through faith he ordeined the *Passeo- uer and the effusion of blood, lest he that destroyed the first borne, shulde touche them.

29 By faith they passed through the red sea as by drye land, which whe the Egyp- tians had assaied to do, they were drowned.

30 By faith the *walles of Jericho fell dow- ne after they were compassed about seuen dayes.

31 By faith the harlot * Rahab perished not with them which obeied not, whe she had received the spies peaceably.

32 And what shal I more say: for the time wolde be to short for me to tell of * Geo- on, of * Barac & of * Sampson, & of * Jeph- te, also of * David, and Samuel, and of the Prophetes:

33 Which through faith subdued kingdo- mes, wrought righteousness, obre ned the promises, stopped the mouths of lyons,

34 Quenched the violence of fyre, escaped the edge of the swords, of weake were ma- de strong, waxed valiant in barrel, turned to fright the armies of the aliens.

35 The womn received their dead ra- sed to life: other also were racked, and wolde not be deliuered, that they might receive a better resurrection.

36 And others haue bene tryed by mockigs and scourgings, yea, moreover by bondes and prisonment.

37 They were stoned, they were hewen a sunder, they were tempted, they were slay- ne with the swords, they wandered vp and downe in shepes skinnes, and in goates skinnes, being destitute, asslied, or tor- mented:

38 Whome the worlde was not worthie of: they wandered in wildernesses and moun- taines, & donnes, & causes of the earth.

40 God providing a better thing for vs, that they without vs sfulde not be made perfite. CHAP. XII. 1 An exhortation to be patient and sledfall in trouble & aduersite, up hope of everlasting rewards. 21 A commendation of the new Testament above the old. 1 Wherefore, let vs also, seeing that we are compassed with so great a "cloude of wrinkles, cast away euers: this that a preffeth downe, and the finne that "langeth so fast on: let vs runne with pa-cience the race that is set before vs, 2 Loking vnto Iesus the autor and finisher of our faith, who for the ioye that was set before him, endured the cross, and despised the shame, and is set at the right hand of the throne of God. 3 Consider therefore him that endured such things for us against sinners, lest ye should be wearied and faint in your minds. 4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin. 5 And ye have forgotten the consolation, which speaketh unto you as unto children, "My son, despise not the chastening of the Lord, neither faint when thou art rebuked of him. 6 For whom the Lord loveth, he chasteneth: and he scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. 7 If ye endure chastening, God treateth you as unto sons: for what son is it whom the father chasteneth not? 8 If therefore ye be without correction, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons. 9 Moreover we have had the fathers of our bodies which exercised us, and we gave them reverence: should we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, that we might live? 10 For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure: but he chasteneth us for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness. 11 Now no chastising for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: but afterwards, it bringeth the quiet fruit of righteousness, unto them which are thereby exercised. 12 Wherefore lift up your hands which hang down, and your weak knees, 13 And make straight steps unto your set, lest that which is halting, be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed. 14 "Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without the which no man shall see the Lord. 15 Take heed, that no man fall away from the grace of God: let no roote of bitternes spring vp and trouble you, lest thereby many be defiled. 16 Let there be no fornicator, or prophane persone as Esau, which for a portion of great solde his byrth right. 17 "For ye knowe how that afterwards also when he wolde haue inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he sounde no place to repentance, though he foght the blessing with teares. 18 For ye are not come vnto the mounte that might be touched, nor vnto burning fyre, nor to blackenes and darkenes, and tempest, 19 Nether vnto the sounde of a trumpet, and the voyce of wordes, which they that heard it, excused them selues, that the worde sfulde not be spoken to them any more. 20 (For they were not able to abyde that was commanded, Yea, though a beast touche the mountains, it shalbe stoned, or thrust thorowe with a darte: 21 And so terrible was the fight which appeared, that Moses said, I scare & quake.) 22 But ye are come vnto the mounte Sió, and to the citie of the liuing God, the occ lest: al lenu: lem, and to the companie of innumerable Angels, 23 And to the cогregation of the first borne, which are writen in heauen, & to God the iudge of all, and to the spirits of iust and perfite men, 24 And to Iesus the Mediator of the newe Testament, & to the blood of sprinkeling that speaketh better things then that of Abel. 25 Se that ye despise not him that speaketh: for if they escaped not which refused hi, that spake on earth: muche more shal we not escape, if we turne away from him, that speaketh from heauen. 26 Whose voyce then shouke the earth, and now hathe declared, saying, Yet once more wil I shake, not the earth onely, but also heauen. 27 And this worde, Yet once more, signi-fieth the remouing of those things, which are shaken, as of things which are made with hands, that the things which are not shaken, may remaine. 28 Wherefore seing we receiue a kingdome, which can not be shaken, let vs haue grace, whereby we may so serue God, that we may please him with reuerce and seare. 29 For euen our God a a eosuming fyre. THE GENERAL

Epistle of James.

THE ARGUMENT.

I Ames the Apostle and some of Alpheus wrote the Epistle to the Jews which were converted to Christ, but dispersed throughout diuers countries, and therefore he exhorteth them to patience and prayer, to embrace the true worde of God, & not to be partial, nether to boast of an yalle faith, but to declare a true faith by linelie frutes, to auide ambition, to bridet the tongue, to rule the affections, to be humble & toue their neighbours, to be ware of swearing, to utter their fautes when they have offended, to praye one for another, and to bring him which is out of the way, to the knowled- ge of Christ.

To endure tentacions.

CHAP. I.

2 He exhorteth to reioyce in trouble, 6 To be seruent in prayer with the fact belief. 17 To loke for all good things from above. 21 To forsake all vice, and thankfully to receive the worde of God, 22 Not only hearing it, & speaking of it, but to do thereafter in dede. 27 What true religion is.

a Knowing that the a trying of your faith bringeth for the pacience.

And let pacience haue her a perfite worke, that ye may be perfite and entier, lacking nothing.

If any of you lacke & wifdome, let him as- ke of God, which giueth to all men libe- rally, and reprocheth no man, and it shal- be giuen him.

But let him aske in faith, and wauer not: for he that wauereth, is like a waue of the sea, toft of the winde, and caryed away.

7 Nether let that man thinke that he shal receiue any thing of the Lord.

8 A d wauering minded man is vnftable in all his wayes.

Let the brother of lowe degree reioyce in that he is exalted:

Againe he that is riche, in that he is ma- de f lowe: for as the flower of the graffe, shal he & vanish away.

11 For as when the sunne rifeth with heat, then the graffe withereth, and his flower, falleth away, & the beautie of the facion of it perifheth: euen fo shal the riche man fade away in all his wayes.

13 Bleffed is the man, that endureth tenta- tion: for when he is tryed, he shal receiue the crowne of life, which the Lord hathe promifed to them that loue him.

Let no man fav whê he is & tepted, I am tepted of God: for God can not be tepted with euil, nether tempieth he any man.

14 But euerie man is tempted, when he is drawne away by his owne concupifcence, and is entified.

15 Then when luft hathe coceiued, it bring- eth for the sinne, and sinne when it is fini- fhed, bringeth for the death.

16 Erre not, my deare brethren.

17 Euerie good b giuing, and euerie perfite gift is from aboue, and cometh downe fro the Father of lights, with whome is no va- riablenes, 1 nether shadowing by turning.

18 Of his owne wil begate he vs with the worde of trueth, that we shulde be as the firft frutes of his creatures.

19 Wherefore my deare brethren, & let eue- rie man be a fwit to heare, flowe to fpea- ke, & f flowe to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man doeth not accom- plish the m righteous of God.

21 Wherefore lay aparte all filthines, & fi- perfluitie of maliciousnes, & receiue with mekenes y worde that is a grafted in you, which is able to faue your foules.

22 And be ye doers of the worde, and not hearers onely, deceiuing your owne felues.

23 For if anie heare the worde, & do it not, he is like vnto a man, that beholdeth his natural face in a o glaffe.

24 For when he hathe confidered him self, he goeth his way, & forgetteth immediat- ly what maner of one he was.

25 But who fo loketh in the perfit Law of libertie, and continueth therein, he not be- ing a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the worke, shalbe bleffed & in his dede.

26 If anie man among you femeth religi- ous, and refraineth not his tongue, but de- ceiueeth his owne heare, this mans reli- gion is vaine.

27 Pure religion & vndefiled before God, euen the Father, is this, to vifite the fa- therles, and widdowes in their aduerfi- tie, and to kepe him self vnfpotted of the worlde.

ftle general of Peter.

THE ARGUMENT.

HE exhorteth the faithful to denie them selues, and to contemne the worlde, that being deliuered from all carnal affections and impediments, they may more speedy atseine to the heauenlie kingdome of Christ, whereunto we are called by the grace of God reueiled to us in his Sonne, and haue already receiued it by faith, poss fied it by hope, and are therein conferred by holines of life. And to the intent the faith shulde not faint, sing Christ contemned and ricted almost of the whole worlde, he declareth that this is nothing els but the accomplishing of the Scriptures which testifie that he shulde be the stumbling stone to the reprobate and the sure fundation of saluation to the faithful: therefore he exhorteth them courageously to go forward, considering what they were, and to what dignitie God hathe called them. After, he entreasteth particular points, teaching subiects how to obey their governours, and seruants their masters, and how married folkes ought to be-haue them selues. And because it is appointed for all that are godlie, to suffre persecution, he sheweth them what good yfue their affections shal haue, and contrarie wise what punishment God referueth for the wicked. Last of all he teacheth how the ministers ought to be-haue them selues, forbidding them to vsupe autoritie ouer the Church: also that young men ought to be modest, and apt to learne, and so endeth with an exhortation.

CHAP. I.

2 He sheweth that through the abundant mercie of God we are elect and regenerate to a liuelie hope. 7 And how faith must be tried. 10 That the saluation in Christ is no newes, but a thing prophesied of elde. 13 He exhorteth them to a godlie conuersation, foreasmuch as they are now borne anew by the worde of God.

6 For vnto this purpofe was the Gofpel preached alfs vnto the b dead, that they might be condemned, according to men, in the flefh, but might live according to God in the spirit.

7 Now the end of all things is at hand. Be ye therefore sober,

8 But about all things have fervent love among you: for love covereth the multitude of sinnes.

9 Be ye therefore one to another, without grudging.

10 *Let every man as he hath received the gift, minister the stle general of Peter.

THE ARGUMENT.

The effect of the Apostle here is to exhort the which have once professed the true faith of Christ, to stand to the same even to the last breath: also that God by his effectual grace towards me moath them to holiness of life, in punishing the hypocrites which abuse his Name, & in increasing his gifts in the godlie:
wherefore by godlie life he being now almost at death: dare, exhorteth the to approve their vocation, not setting their affections on worldlie things (as he had oft writ vnto them) but lifting their eyes to warde heaven, as they he taught by the Gospel, whereof he is a deare witness, chiefly in that he heard with his own eares that Christ was proclaimed from heaven to be the Sonne of God, as likewise the Prophetes testified... And lest they shulde promise to them selues quietnes by professing the Gospel, he warneth the bother of troubles which they shulde susterne by the false teachers, and also by the mockers & contemners of religion, whose manners and trade he luey fetteth forth as in a table: adverting the faithful not onely to warte diligently for Christ, but also to beholde presently the day of his comming, and to preserve them selues vnspotted against the same.

CHAP. I.

4 Forasmuch as the power of God hath the given them all things pertaining vnto life, he exhorteth them to flee the corruption of worldlie lusts. 10 To make their calling sure with good works, and fruits of faith. 11 He maketh mention of his own death. 12 Declaring the Lord Iesus to be the true Sonne of God, as he hath self had sent upon the mounts.

1 MON Peter a seruant and an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to you which have obtained like precious faith with vs by the righteousness of our God and Sauour

Iesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you, by the knowledge of God and of Iesus our Lord,

3 According as his godlie power hath the given vnto vs all things that perenne vnto life and godlines, through the knowledge of him that hath the called vs vnto glorie and vertue.

4 Whereby mofte great, and precious promises are given vnto vs, that by them ye shulde be partakers of the godlie nature, in that ye flee the corruption, which is in the worlde through lust.

5 Therefore giue euen all diligence thereunto: ioyne moreover vertue with your faith: and with vertue, knowledge:

6 And with knowledge, temperance: and with temperance, patience: and with pacific, godlines:

7 And with godlines, brotherlie kindenes: and with brotherlie kindenes, loue.

8 For if these things be among you, and abunde, they wil make you that ye nether shalbe ydle, nor vntruteful in y knowledge of our Lord Iesus Christ.

9 For he that hath not these things, is blinde, & scan not se farre of, & hath the forgotté that he was purged from his olde sinnes.

10 Wherefore, brethren, giue rather diligence to make your calling & election s sure: for if ye do these things, ye shal neuer fall.

11 For by this meapes an entring shalbe minstred vnto you abidantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord & Sauour

Iesus Christ.

12 Wherefore, I wil not be negligét to put you alwaies in remembrance of these things, thogh that ye haue knowledge, and be stablished in the present trueth.

13 For I thinke it mete as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stirre you vp by putting you in remembrance.

14 Seing I knowe that the time is at hand that I must lay downe this my tabernacle, euen as our Lord Iesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 I wil endeavour therefore alwaies, that ye also may be able to haue remembrance of these things after my departing.

16 For we folowed not deceiveable fables when we opened vnto you the power, and coming of our Lord Iesus Christ, but with our eyes we saw his maiestie:

17 For he receiued of God the Father honour and glorie, when there came such a voyce to him from the excellent glorie, "This is my beloued Sonne, in whome I am wel pleased.

18 And this voyce we heard when it came from heaven, being with him in the holie mounts.

19 We haue also a moste sure word of the Prophetes, to y which ye do wel that ye take hede, as vnto a light that shineth in a darke place, vntil the day dawne, and the daye starre arise in your hearts.

20 So that ye first know this, that no prophecie in the Scripture is of r anie pruate motion.

9 The Lord knoweth to deliuer the god-lie out of tentation, and to referue the vniust vnto the day of iudgement to be punished:

10 And chiefly them that walke after the flesh, in the lust of vncleannes, and despise the gouernement, which are presumptuous, and stand in their owne conceite, and feare not to speake euil of the that are in dignitie.

7 Brethren, I write no newe "commandement vnto you: but an olde commandement, which ye haue had from the beginning: the f olde commandement is the worde, which ye haue heard from the beginning.

8 Againe, a newe commandement I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and also in you: for the darkenes is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that faith that he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkenes vntil this time.

10 "He that loueeth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of evil in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darkenes, and walkeeth in darkenes, & knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkenes hath blinded his eyes.

12 b Little children, I write vnto you, because your sinnes are sorqued for his Names sake.

13 I write vnto you, fathers, because ye haue knowen him that is from the beginning. I write vnto you, yong men, because ye haue overcome the wicked.

14 I write vnto you, babes, because ye haue knowe the Father. I haue write vnto you, fathers, because ye haue knowen him, that is from the beginning. I haue written vnto you, yong men, because ye are strong, and the worde of God abideth in you, and ye haue overcome the wicked.

15 Loue not the worlde, nether the things that are in the worlde. If any man loue the worlde, he loueth not the Father, for he that loueth the worlde, the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the worlde (as the luste of the flesh, the luste of the eyes, & the pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of the worlde.

17 And the worlde passeth awaye, and the luste thereof: but he that fulfileth the wil of God, abideth euer.

18 Babes, it is the last time, and as ye haue heard that Antichrift shal come, eue now are there many Antichrifts: whereby we knowe that it is the last time.

19 "They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, they wolde haue continued with vs. But this cometh to pass, that it might appeare, that they are not all of vs.

20 But ye haue an ointment fro him, that is r Holie, & ye haue knowen all things.

21 I shau not written vnto you, because ye knowe not y trueth: but because ye knowe it, and that no lye is of the trueth.

22 Who is a lyer, but he that denyeth that Iesus is Christ the same is the Antichrift that denyeth the Father and the Sonne.

23 Who souer denyeth the Sonne, the same hathe not the Father.

24 Let therefore abide in you that same which ye haue heard from the beginning. If that which ye haue heard from the beginning, shal remaine in you, ye also shal continue we in the Sonne, & in the Father.

25 And this is y promes that he hathe promised vs, euen eternal life.

26 These things haue I written vnto you, concerning them that deceive you.

27 But the anointing which ye receined of him, dwelleth in you: and ye nede not that any man teache you: but as the same a Anointing teacheth you of all things, & it is true, & is not lying, & as it taught you, ye shal abide in him.

28 And now, b little children, abide in him, that when he shal appeare, we may be bode, and not be ashamed before him at his comming.

29 If ye knowe that he is righteous, knowe ye that he which doeth righteously, is borne of him.

CHAP. III.

1 The singular loue of God to worde vs. 7 And how we againe right to loue one another

2 B bode, what loue the Father hathe shewed on vs, that we shulde be a called the sonnes of God: for this cause the worlde knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

3 Dearly beloued, now are we the sonnes of God, but yet it doeth not appeare what we shalbe: and we knowe that when b he shal appeare, we shalbe c like him: for we shal se him as he is.

4 And euerie man that hathe this hope in him, purgeth him self, euen as he is pure.

9 He that teheth may or diminisheth either of the nature unchrist, or he that confoundeth or he parateeth them, als he that parateeth not difference between the persons of the Sonne, & also he that beloneth not to haue remission of Sonne by his only fa critic, deneth Christ to be y true de Sias. f These the infideles worship not the true God.

10 But he that confesseth the Sonne, hathe also the Father.

righteousnes, is righteous, as he is righteous.

8 He that committeth sinne, is of the de- uil: for the deuil finneth from the begin- ning: for this purpofe appeared the Son- ne of God, that he might lofe the wor- kes of the deuil.

9 Whofoeuer is borne of God, finneth not: for his feede remaineth in him, nether can he s sinne, becaufe he is borne of God.

10 In this are the childre of God known, and the children of the deuil: whofoeuer doeth not righteousnes, is not of God, nether he that h loueth not his brother.

11 For this is the meflage, that ye heard fro the beginning, that *we shulde loue one another,

12 Not as *Cain which was of the wicked, and flewe his brother: & wherefore flewe he him? becaufe his owne workes were e- uil, and his brothers good.

13 Marueile not, my brethren, thogh y worl- de hate you.

14 We knowe that we are tranflated from death vnto life, becaufe we loue the bre- thren: *he that loueth not his brother, abi- deth in death.

15 Whofoeuer hateth his brother, is a man- flayer: & ye knowe that no maillayer hathe eternal life abiding in him.

16 *Hereby haue we perceiued loue, that he laid downe his life for vs: therefore we oght also to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

17 *And whofoeuer hathe this worldes good and feeth his brother haue nede, and thu- teth vp his copafion from him, how dwel leth the loue of God in him?

18 My little children, let vs not loue in wor- de, nether in tongue onely, but in h dede & in trueth.

19 For thereby we knowe that we are of the trueth & fnal before him affure our hearts.

20 For if our heart condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue we boldenes toward God.

22 *And wharfoeuer we afke, we receiue of him, becaufe we kepe his comandements, and do thofe things which are pleafing in his fight.

23 *This is then his commandement, That we beleue in the Name of his Sonne Ie- fus Christ, and loue one another, as he ga- ue commandement.

24 *For he that kepeth his comandements, dwelleth in him, and he in him: & hereby we knowe that he abydeth in vs, euen by the Spirit which he hath giuen vs.

CHAP. III.

1 Difference of spirits. 2 How the Spirit of God may be known from the spirit of error. 7 Of the loue of God and of our neighbours.

1 D Erely beloued, beleue not euerie spirit, but trye the spirits whether they are of God: for many false Prophe- tes are gone out into the worlde.

2 Hereby final ye knowe the Spirit of God, Euerie spirit that confesseth that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And euerie spirit which confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: but this is the spirit of Antichrist, of whome ye haue heard, how y he shulde come & now already he is in the worlde.

4 Little children, ye are of God, and haue ouercome them: for greater is he that is in you, then he that is in the worlde.

5 They are of the worlde, therefore speake they of the worlde, and the worlde heareth them.

6 We are of God, *he that knoweth God, heareth vs: he that is not of God, heareth vs not. Hereby knowe we the Spirit of trueth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue cometh of God, & euerie one that loueth, is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loueth not, knoweth not God: for God is loue.

9 *In this appeared y loue of God toward vs, because God sent his onely begotren Sonne into the worlde, that we might liue through him.

10 Herein is loue, not that we loued God, but that he loued vs, and sent his sonne to be a reconciliation for our sinnes.

11 Beloued, if God so loued vs, we ought al- so to loue one another.

12 *No man hathe fene God at any time If we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfite in vs.

13 Hereby knowe we, that we dwell in him, and he in vs: becaufe he hathe giuen vs of his Spirit.

14 And we haue fene, and do teftifie, that the Father fent the Sone to be the Sauour of the worlde.

15 Whofoeuer confesseth that Iefus is the Sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God.

16 And we haue known, and beleued the loue that God hathe in vs. God is loue, & he that dwelleth in loue, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is the loue perfite in vs, that we shulde haue boldenes in the day of indge- ment: for as he is, euen so are we in this worlde.

3 For this is the loue of God that we kepe his commandements: and his a comman- dements are not c grievous.

4 For all that is borne of God, ouercometh the worlde: and this is the vifcorie that o- uercometh the worlde, quen our faith.

5 Who is it that ouercometh the worlde, but he which beleueth that Iefus is the Sô- ne of God?

6 This is that Iefus Chrift that came by d water a & blood, not by water onely, but by water and blood: and it is the f spirit, y heareth witnes: for the Spirit is a trueth.

7 For there are thre, which beare recorde in heauen, the Father, the Worde, and the holie Goft: and thefe thre are one.

8 And there are thre, which beare recorde in the earth, the spirit and the water and the blood: and thefe thre agre in one.

9 If we receiue the witnes of men, the wit- nes of God is greater: for this is the witnes of God, which he testified of his Sone.

10 He that beleueth in the Sone of God, Ioh 3, 37. hathe the witnes y in him self: he that bele- ueth not God, hathe made him a lyer, be- cause he beleued not the recorde, y God witneffed of his Sonne.

11 And this is the recorde, that God hathe giuen vnto vs eternal life, and this life is in his Sonne.

12 He that hathe the Sonne, hathe life: and he that hathe not the Sonne of God, hathe not life.

13 These things haue I written vnto you, that beleue in the Name of the Sonne of God, that ye may knowe that ye haue eter nal life, and that ye may beleue in the Na me of the Sonne of God.

14 And this is the affurance, that we haue in him, that if we afte anie thing accor- ding to his wil, he heareth vs.

15 And if we knowe that he heareth vs whatoeuer: we afte, we knowe that we ha- ue the petitions that we haue desired of him.

16 If anie man se his brother finne a finne, that is not vnto death, let him afte, and he shal giue him life for them that finne not b vnto death. 1 There is a finne vnto death: I fay not that thou shuldest praye for it.

17 All vnrighteousnes is finne, but there is a finne not vnto death.

18 We knowe that whosoeuer is borne of God, b finneth not:
but he that is begot- ten of God, 1 kepeth him self, & the wicked a toucheth him not.

19 We knowe that we are of God, and the whole worlde a lyeth in wickednes.

20 But we knowe that the Sonne of God is come, & hathe giue vs a mindeto knowe him, which is true: and we are in him that is true, that w, in his Sonne Iefus Chrif, this fame is verne b God, and eternal life.

THE GENERAL

Epistle of Iude.

THE ARGUMENT.

Saint Iude admonisheth all Churches generally to take hede of detriures which go about to drawe away the hearts of the simple people from the trueth of God, and willed them to haue no soci-tie with fuche, whome he setteth forthe in their livid colours, shewing by diners exples of the Scrip-tures what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally he comforteth the faithful and exhor-teth them to persuere in the doctrine of the Apostles of Iesus Christ.

Vde a seruant of I A- VS CHRIST, and brother of James, to them which are called & sanctified of God the Father, and refer- ued to Iesus Christ:

2 Mercie vnto you, and peace and loue be multiplied.

3 Belied, when I gaue all diligence to write vnto you of the comune saluation, it was nedeful for me to write vnto you to exhore you, that ye shulde earnestly co- tende for the maintenance of y faith, which was once giuen vnto the Saintes.

4 For there are certeine me crept in which were before of olde ordained to this co- demnation: vngodlie men they are which turn the grace of our God into wanton- nes, and denye God the onelie Lord, and our Lord Iesus Christ.

I wil therefore put you in remembrance, forasmuche as ye once knewe this, how that the Lord, after that he had deliuered the people out of Egypt, destroyed them afterwarde which belcued not.

6 The Angels also which kept not their first estate, but left their owne habitation, he hath referred in everlasting chains vnder darkenes vnto y iudgement of the great daye.

7 As Sodom and Gomorhe, and the ci- ties about the, which in like maner as they did, committed, and followed strage flesh, are set forth for an enfample, and suffre the vengeance of eternal fyte.

Likewise notwithstanding these dreamers also defile the flesh, and despise gouernement, and speake evil of them that are in autoritie.

Yet Michael the Archangel, when he strove against the deuill, and disputed about the bodie of Moses, durst not blame him with cursed speaking, but faith, The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these speake evil of those things, which they knowe not: and whatsoever things they knowe naturally, as beaftes, which are without reason, in those things they corrupt themselves.

12 These are spottes in your feasts of cha-ritie when they feast with you, without all feare, feeding them selues: cloudes they are without water, caryed about of win-des, corrupt trees without frute, twife dead, plucked vp by the rootes.

13 They are the raging waues of the sea, fo-ming out their owne shame: they are wan-dring starres, to whome is referued the blackenes of darkenes for euer.

14 And Enoch also the feueth from Adam, prophecied of fuche, faying, Beholde, the Lord cometh with thoufands of his Saunes,

15 To giue iudgement against all men, and to rebuke all yvngodlie among the of all their wicked dedes, which they haue vn-godly comitted, & of all their cruel spea-kings, which wicked sinners haue spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, wal-king after their owne lutes: whose mouths speake proude things, hauing mens persones in admiration, because of a vantage.

17 But, ye beloued, remember the wordes which were spoke before of the Apostles of our Lord Iesus Christ, 18 How that they tolde you that there shul- de be mockers in the last time, which shulde walke after their owne vngodlie lustes.

19 These are makers of sectes, fleshlie, ha- uing not the Spirit.

20 But, ye beloued, edifie your selues in your most holie faith, praying in the ho- lie God, 21 And kepe your selues in y loue of God, loking for the mercie of our Lord Iesus Christ, vnto eternal life.

22 And haue compassion of some, in put- ting difference:

23 And other faue with feare, pulling the out of the fyte, and hate euen the gar- ment spotted by the flesh.

24 Now vnto him that is able to kepe you, that ye fall not, and to present you sauiles before the presence of his glorie with ioie,

THE REVELATION

of John the Divine.

Or declared a like.

THE ARGUMENT.

IT is manifest, that the holie God wode as it were gather into this moore excellent book a summe of those prophecies, which were written before, but should be fussed after the coming of Christ, adding also fuch things as should be expedient, as well to forewarne us of the dangers to come, as to admonish us to be we are some, and encourage us against others. Herein therefore is likely set forth the Discourse of Christ, & the testimonies of our redemption: what things the Spirit of God alloweth in the ministers, and what things he reproach: the providence of God for his elect, and of their glorie and consolation in the day of vengeance: how that the hypocrites which sting like scorpions the members of Christ, shall be destroyed, but the Lambe Christ shall defende them, which beare witness to the truth, who in dispute of the beast and Satan will reign our all. The libel description of Antichrist is set forth, whose time and power notwithstanding is limited, and albeit that he is permitted to rage against the elect, yet his power stretcheth no further then to the hurt of their bodies: and at length he shall be destroyed by the wrath of God, when as the elect shall give praise to God for the victories: nevertheless for a reason God will permit this Antichrist, and Strompet under colour of faire speache and pleasant doctrine to deceive the words: wherefore he advertiest the godlie (which are but a smale portion) to auide this harlots flaternes, and bragges, whose ruine without mercy they shall be, and with the beaunlie companies sing continual praises: for the Lambe is married: the words of God hath gotten the victorie: Satd that a long time was united, is now cast with his ministers into the pit of fyre to be tormented for ever, where as clearwise the faithful (which are the holie Cune of Ierusalem, & wife of the Lambe) shall enioye perpetual glorie. Read diligently:udge soberly, and call earnestly to God for the true understanding hereof.

A Fter this I loked, and beholde, a dore was open in heauen, and the first voyce which I heard, was as it were of a trupet talking with me, faying, Come vp hither, and I wil fhewe thee things which mufte be done hereafter.

And immediately I was raufhed in the spirit, & beholde, a throne was fet in hea-uen, and one fate vpon the throne.

And b he that fate, was to loke vpon, like vnto a laffer ftone, and a fardine, & there was a raine bowe rounde about the throne in fight like to an emeraude.

And rounde about the throne were foure and twentie feates, and vpon the feates I fawe c foure and twentie Elders fitting, clothed in white raimét, and had on their heads crownet of golde.

And out of the throne d proceded e light-nings, and thundrings, and voyces, & the-re were feuen lampes of fyre, burning be-fore the throne, which are the feuen fpirits of God.

And before the throne there was a f sea of glaffe like vnto s criftal: and in the mid-des of the throne, & rounde about y thro-ne were foure b beaftes full of eyes before and behinde.

And the first beaft was like a lion, & the feconde beaft like a calfe, and the thirde beaft had a face as a man, and the fourthe beaft was like a flying egle.

And the foure beafts had eche one of the fix wings about him, and they were ful of eyes within, and they ceafed not day nor night, faying, e Holie, holie, holie Lord God, almightie, which Was, & Which is and Which is to come.

And when thofe beafts gaue glorie, and honour, and thanks to him that fate on the throne, which liuech for euer and euer,

The foure and twentie elders fell dow-ne before him that fate on the throne, and worfhipped him, that liuech for euer mo-re, & caft their crownes before the thro-ne, faying,

Thou art e worthie, o Lord, to receiue glorie and honour, & power: for thou haft created all things, and for thy willes sake they are, and hane bene created.

And I fawe in the right hand of him that fate vpon the throne, a Boke written within, and on the backefide, fealed with b feuen feales.

2 And I fawe a ftrong Angel which prea-ched with a lowde voyce, Who is worthie to open the boke, and to lofe the feales thereof

3 And no man in heaué, nor in earth, nether vnder the earth, was able to open the Boke nether to loke thereon.

4 Then I wept muche, becaufe no ma was founde worthie to open, and to reade the Boke, nether to loke thereon.

5 And one of the elders faid vnto me, Wepe not: beholde, the e lion which is of the tri-be of Juda, the rote of Daud, hath obtained to open the Boke, and to lofe the feue feales thereof.

6 Then I behelde, and lo, in the middes of the throne, and of the foure beafts, & in the middes of the elders, ftode e a Lambe as thogh he had bene killed, which had a feue horne, & efeuen eyes, which are the feuen fpirits of God, fent into all the worfde.

7 And he came, and toke the Boke out of the right hand of him that fate vpon the throne.

8 And when he had raken the Boke, the fou-re beafts and the foure and twinte elders fell downe before the Lambe, hauing eue rite one harpes and golden viales fud odours, w are the prayers of the Sames,

10 And haft made vs vnto our God Kigs and Priests, and we fhall reigne on the earth.

11 Then I behelde, and I heard the voyce of manie Angels rounde about the throne and about the beafts and the elders, & there were thoufand thoufands, 13 Saying with a loude voyce, Worthie is the Labe that was killed to receiue power and riches, and wifdome, and ftrengh, & honour, and glorie, and praife.

15 And all y creatures which are in heaué, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the fea, & all that are in them,

CHAP. VI.

The Lambe openeth the fax feales, and manie things follow the ipeving thereof fo that this contemeth a general prophesie in the end of the woride

A Fter, I behelde when y Lambe had opened one of the feales, & I heard one of the foure beafts fay, as it were the boyce of thunder, Come and fe.

Therefore I behelde, and lo, there was a white horfe, and he that fate on him, had a bowe, and a crowne was giuen vnto him, and he went for the coquering that he might ouercome.

And when he had opened the feconde feale, I heard the feconde beaft fay, Come and fe.

And there went out another horfe that was red, & power was giuen to him that fate thereon, to take peace from the earth and that they fshulde kil one another, and there was giuen vnto him a great fworde.

And whe he had opened the thirde feale, I heard the thirde beaft fay, Come and fe. Then I behelde, & lo, s a blacke horfe, & he that fate on him, had balances in his hand.

And I heard a voyce in the middes of the foure beafts fay, A b meafure of wheat for a penie, and thre meafures of barlie for a penie, and oyle, and wine hurt thou not.

And when he had opened the fourth feale, I heard the voyce of the fourth beaft fay, Come and fe.

And I loked, & beholde, a p pale horfe, & hisname that fate on him was Death, and 'Hel followed after him, and power was giuen vnto them ouer the fourth parte of the earth, to kill with fworde, and with ho ger, and with death, and with the beafts of the earth.

And when he had opened the fift feale, I fawe vnder the altar in the foules of them, that were killed for the worde of God, & for y teftimonie which they maintemed.

And they cryed with a lowde voyce, faying, How long, Lord, holie and true! doeft not thou iudge & auenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

And long white robes were giuen vnto euerie one, and it was faid vnto them, that they fshulde reft for a litel ceaſon vntil their felowe ſeruants, and their brethren that fshulde be killed euen as they were, were fulfilled.

And I behelde when he had opened the fixt feale, and lo, there was a great earth quake, & the funne was as blacke as y

And after that, I fawe foure Angels ftad on y foure corners of the earth, holding the foure windes of the eaz, ty, y the windes fhulde not blowe on the earth, nether on the fea, nether on anie tre.

And I faw another Angel come vp from the Eaft, which had the feale of the liuing God, and he cryed with a loude voyce to the foure Angels to whome power was giuen to hurt the earth, and the fea, faying, Hurt ye not the earth, nether the fea, nether the trees, til we haue fealed y feruants of our God in their foreheads.

And he said to me, These are they, which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes & have made their robes white in the blood of the Lamb. 25 Therefore are they in the presence of the throne of God, and serve him day & night in his Temple, and he that sitteth on the throne, will dwell among them. 6 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the sun light on them, neither any heat. 7 For the Lamb, which is in the midst of the throne, shall govern them, and shall lead them unto the living fountains of waters, and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes. 8 There is no sorrow nor pain, but by the blood of Christ one, forgive sins, & to make them white. 9 That is, of the

CHAP. VIII.

The seventh stole is opened: there is silence in heauen. The four Angels blew their trumpettes, and great plagues followe vpon the earth.

And when he had opened the feueth seal, there was silence in heauen about halfe an ooure. And I sawe the feuen Angels, which stode before God, and to them were giuen feuen trumpettes. Then another Angel came and stode before the altar having a golden cenfer, and muche odours was giuen vnto him, that he shulde offie with the prayers of all Saintes vpon the golden altar, which is before the throne. And the smoke of the odours with the prayers of the Saintes, went vp before And the smoke of the odours with the prayers of the Saintes, went vp before

God, out of the Angels hand.

5 And the Angel toke the cenfer, and filled it with fyre of the altar, and cast it into the earth, and there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, and earth-quake.

6 Then the feuen Angels, which had the feuen trumpettes, prepared them selues to blow the trumpettes.

7 So the first Angel blewe the trumpet, and there was halle & fyre, mingled with blood, and they were cast into the earth, and the third parte of trees was burnt, & all grene graffe was burnt.

8 And the seconde Angel blewe the trumpet, and as it were a great mountaine, burning with fyre, was cast into the sea, & the third parte of the sea became blood.

9 And the third parte of the creatures, which were in the sea, and had life, dyed, & third parte of shipes were destroyed.

10 Then the third Angel blewe the trumpet, & there fell a great starre from heauen burning like a torche, and it fell into the third parte of the rivers, and into the fountaines of waters.

11 And the name of the starre is called wormewood: therefore the third parte of the waters became wormewood, and manie men dyed of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the four the Angel blewe the trumpet, and the third parte of the sunne was smitten, & the third parte of the moon, and the third parte of the starres, so that the third parte of them was darkened: and the day was smitten, that the third parte of it colde not shine, and likewise the night.

13 And I behelde, & heard one Angel flying through the middes of heaué, saying with a lowde voyce, 'Wo, wo, wo to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the sundes to come of the trumpet of the thre Angels, which were yet to blow the trumpettes.

Which deela- reth & Christ fades will buy! de his Church and not have it destroyed: for he meas- ureth out his Spiritual Temple.

6 The Jewish temple was de- ruled into the part of the body of the temple which is called the court, where- into court and crueld: & holic- pletes where & lears were: & the holies of all, where- into the high Priest once a year entered: in respect there- fore of these two later, the first is said to be cast out, be- cast as a ship prophetess it is neglected whf the temple is measured, and yet the adver- tance of Christ beast that they are in the Te- ple, and & none are of the Te- ple, but they. 6 That is, the Church of

God. 4 Meaning, a certain time: for God has he limited the time of Anti- christ's typhoon. 5 By two witnesses he means all the preachers & shulde be able up God's Church, alluding to Zirishbacha! and Ishulhua which were chiefly appointed for that thing, and also to this saying, in the mouth of two witnesses shedeeth encirc words. 6 Signifying a certain time: for whf God giveth through to his ministers, their persecution time, but as it were for a day or two. 7 In power and simple apparel. 8 Whereby are fig- min'd the excellent graces of them which bearer warns to the Gospel. 9 Who have dominion over the whole earth. 10 By God's words whereby his mi- nities discondit the enemies. 11 They denounce God's judgement against the wicked, that they can not enter into heaven. 12 Which is to declare & pro- ence God's vengeance. 13 That is, the Pope which has he has power out of her and cometh thence. 14 He sheweth how the Pope giveth the victories, not by God's words, but by cruel wares.

1 Then was given me a rede, like unto a rodde, & the Angel stode by, saying, Rise and a metre the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But the court which is without the tem- ple cast out, and metre it not: for it is gi- uen unto the Gentiles, and the holic ci- tie shall they treade under fote two & for- tie moneths.

3 But I will give power unto my two wit- nesses, & they shall prophecie a thousand, two hundred, & therefore dayes, clothed in a sacke cloth.

4 These are two: olive trees, & two cadel stickes, standing before God of earth.

5 And if ante ma will hurte them, lyre pro- cedeth out of their mouthes, and deuou- reth their enemies: for if ante man wode hurt them, thus must he be killed.

6 These have power to shur' heauen, that it raine not in the dayes of their prophe- cying, & have power over waters to turne them into blood, and to smite the earth with all maner plagues, as of re as they wil.

7 And when they have finished their testi- monic, the beasts that cometh out of the bottomless pit, shall make warre aga- inst them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their corpses shall lie in the streets of the great citie, which spiritually is cal- led Sodom and Egypt, where our Lord al- so was crucified.

9 And they of the people and kinneds, and togues, and Gentiles shall see their corpses the dayes and an halfe, and shall not suffer their carkeises to be put in graues.

10 And they that dwell upon the earth, shall revoye ouer them and be glad, and shall send gifts one to another: for these two Prophetes vexed them that dwell on the earth.

11 But after the dayes and an halfe, the sp- rit of life comming from God, shall enter in- to them, & they shall stand up upon their feet: and great feare shall come upon them which sawe them.

12 And they shall heave a great voyce from heauen, saying unto them, Come up hither. And they shall ascende up to heauen in a cloud, and their enemies shall see them.

13 And the same houre shall there be a great earthquake, and the tenth parte of the ci- tie shall fall, and in the earthquake shall be slain in number seuen thousand: and the remnant shallse afrast, and giue glo- rie to the God of heauen.

14 The seconde wo is past, & beholde the thirde wo wil come anone.

15 And the seventh Angel blew the trum- per, and there were great voyces in heaué, saying, The kingdoms of this world are our Lords, and his Christs, and he shall rei- gne for euer more.

16 Then the foure & twétie Elders, which sate before God on their feates, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God, 17 Saying, We giue thee thanks, Lord God almightie, Which art, and Which waft, & Which art to come: for thou hast received thy great might, and hast obte- ned thy kingdoms.

18 And the Gentiles were angrie, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they shulde be judged, and that thou shuldest giue rewarde vnto thy seruants the Prophetes, and to the Saintes, and to them that feare thy Name, to smale and great, and shuldest destroye them, which destroye the earth.

1 And after these things I heard a great voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, a Hallelu-iah, salvation & glory, and honour, and power be to the Lord our God.

2 For both true & righteous are his iudgements: for he hath condemned the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath adulteried the blood of his servants shed by her hand.

3 And againe they said, Hallelu-iah: & her smoke rose up for evermore.

4 And the foure and twentie Elders, & the foure beasts fell downe, and worshiped God that sat on the throne, saying, e Amen, Hallelu-iah.

5 Then a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that feare him, both small and great.

6 And I heard like a voyce of a great multitude, and as the voyce of manie waters, and as the voyce of strong thondrings, saying, Hallelu-iah: for our Lord God almightie hath reigned.

7 Let vs be glad and reioyce, and giue glory to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made her self readie.

8 And to her was granted, that she shulde be arrayed with pure fine linen and shining, for the fine linen is the righteousness of Saints.

9 Then he said vnto me, Write, a Blessing are they which are called vnto the Lambes supper. And he said vnto me, These wordes of God are true.

10 And I fell before his feete, a to worship him: but he said vnto me, & thou do it not: I am thy fellowe seruant, and one of thy brethren, which haue the i testimonie of Iesus. Worship God: for the bestimonie of Iesus, is the spirit of prophesie.

11 And I sawe heauen open, and beholde a white horse, and he that sat vpon him, was called, a Faithful & true, & he iudgeth and fighteth righteously.

A BRIEF TABLE OF THE IN 197/1224

TERPRETATION OF THE PROPRE NAMES which are chiefly founde in the olde Testamēt, wherein the first number signifieth the chapter: the seconde the verse.

Whereas the wickedness of time, and the blindness of the former age hath been such that all things altogether have been abused and corrupted, so that the very right names of divers of the holies men named in the Scriptures have been forgotten, and now some strange unto us, and the names of infants that shudde ever have some godlie advertisements in them, and shudde be memorials and marks of the children of God received into his hoist: olde, hath been hereby also changed and made the signes and badges of idolatry and heathenish impietic, we have now set forth: this table of the names that be most vested in the olde Testament with their interpretation, as the Ebrewe importeth, partly to call back the godlie for that abuse, when they shall know the true names of the godlie fathers, or what they signifie, that their children now named after them may have testimonies by their very names, that they are within that faithful familie that in all their doings had ever God before their eyes, and that they are bounde by these their names to serve God from their infancy or have occasion to praise him for his works wrought in them or their fathers: but chiefly to restore the names to their integrity, whereby many places of the Scriptures and secret mysteries of the holies God shall better be understand. We have medied rarely with the Greeks names, because their interpretation is uncertain, or many of the are corrupted from their original, as we may also see these Ebrewe names set in the marges of this table, which have been corrupted by the Grecians. Now for the other Ebrewe names that are not here interpretate, let not the diligent reader be careful: for he shall find them in places most convenient among the annotations: at least so many as may serve to make for any edification, and understanding of the Scriptures.

A PERFITE SVPPVTATION OF THE YERES AND TIMES FROM ADAM VNTO

Chrift,proued by the Scriptures,after the collection of diuers autors.

The fomme of the yeres of the fift age

FROM Adam vnto Noes flood are yeres 1656.

For when Adam was a 130 yere olde, he begate Seth.

Seth being 105 yeres,begate Enos.

Enos being 90 yeres,begate Caiman.

Cainan being 70 yeres,begate Ma- halaleel.

Mahalaleel being 65 yeres, begate Iared.

Iared at the age of a 165 yeres,bega- te Enoch.

Enoch being 65 yeres, begate Ma- thufelah.

Mathufelah at the age of 187 yeres, begate Lamech.

Lamech beig 182 yeres,begate Noe.

Noe at the comming of the flood was 600 yeres olde,as appeareth in the feuenth of Genesis.

The whole fumme of the yeres are 1656.

FROM the faid flood of Noe vn- to Abraham departing from Chalde were 36, yeres, and ten dayes.

For the faid flood continued one whole yere and ten dayes.

Sem(which was Noes fonne) bega- te Arphaxat two yeres after that.

Arphaxat begate Salah whé he was 35 yeres olde.

Salah being 30 yeres olde, begate Heber.

Heber at his age of 34 begate Phalech.

Phalech being 30 yeres, begate Regu.

Regu being 32 yeres, begate Saruch.

Saruch being 30 yeres, begate Nahor.

Nahor being 29 yeres, begate Thare.

Thare being 70 yeres, begate Abraham.

And Abraham departed from Chaldea when he was 70 yeres olde.

These failed yeres accounted are 36, yeres, & ten dayes.

FROM Abrahams departing from Ur in Chaldea unto the departing of the children of Israel from Egypt are 430 yeres, gathered as followeth.

Abraham was in Charran full yeres, and departed in the 75 yere.

He begate Isaac when he was 100 yeres olde, and in the 25 yere of his departing.

Isaac begate Jacob when he was 60 yeres olde.

Iakob went into Egypt with all his familie,whé he was 130 yere olde.

Ifrael was in Egypt 120 yeres,which remaine from that time.

Then rebate 80 yeres from this: for fo olde was Mofes when he codu- cted the Ifraelites from Egypt.

So the refte of the yeres, that is to fay 130,are deuided betwixt Am- ram and Chath.

Then Chath begate Amram at his age of 67 yeres.

Amram being 65 yeres,begate Mo- fes, who in the 80 yere of his age departed with the Ifraelites from Egypt.

So this fuppotation is the 430 yeres mencioned in the 12.of Exod. & the 1. to the Galatians.

FROM the going of the Ifraelites from Egypt vnto the firft buyl- ding of the Temple are 480 ye- res,after this fuppotation and ac- count.

Mofes remained in y defert or wil- LLL iii.

dernes 40 yeres. Iofue & Othoniél ruled 40 yeres. Atoch 70 yeres. Debora 40 yeres. Gedeon 40 yeres. Abimelech 1 yeres. Thela 21 yeres. Iair 22 yeres. Then were they without a captaine vnto the 18 yere of Iepthe. Iepthe 6 yeres. Abiffam 7 yeres. Elom 10 yeres. Abacon 8 yeres. Sampfcñ 20 yeres. Heli Iudge and Priest 44 yeres. Samuel & Saul reigned 40 yeres. Daud was King 40 yeres. Salomon in the 4 yere of his reigne began the buylding of the Tople. Thefe are the 480 yeres mentioned in the first of the Kings, & the 6 chap. From the first buylding of the Temple vnto the captiuitie of Babylon are 419 yeres & an halfe. Salomon reigned yet 36 yeres. Roboam 17 yeres. Abia 1 yeres. Afa 41 yeres. Iofaphat 25 yeres. Ioram 8 yeres.

Ochafias one yere. Athalia the Quene 7 yeres. Ioas 40 yeres. Amafias 27 yeres. Ozias 52 yeres. Ioathan 16 yeres. Achas 16 yeres. Ezechias 29 yeres. Manaffes 55 yeres. Am-n 2 yeres. Iofias 31 yeres. Ioachas 3 moneths. Eliacim 11 yeres. Ioachim, Iechonias 3 moneths. And here beginneth the captiuitie of Babylon. The fumme of thefe yeres are 419 yeres. I Brufalem was reedified & buyl- ded againe after the captiuitie of Babylon 143 yeres. The captiuitie continued 70 yeres. The children of Ifrael were deliue- red and restored to their fredome in the first yere of Cyrus. The Temple was begonne to be buylded in the 2 yere of the faid Cyrus, & finished in the 46 yere, which was the 6 yere of Darius. After that Darius had reigned 20 yere, Nehemias was restored to libertie, and went to buyld the citie, which was finished in the yere of the faid Darius. All the yeres from the buylding of the Temple againe are 16 yeres. The whole fumme of yeres amount to 143 yeres. From the reedifying of the ci- tie vnto the coming of Christ, are 481 yeres, after this fupputatio or nomoring. It is mentioned in the 9 of Daniel that Ierufalem fhulde be buylt up againe, and that from that time vnto the comming of Christ are 67 weckes, & euerie weeke is rec- koned for feuen yeres. So 67 wee- kes amount to 481 yeres. For from the 32 yere of Darius vnto the 42 yere of Augustus, in the which yere our Sauour Christ was bor- ne, are iuft and complet fo many yeres, whereupon we reckon, that from Adam vnto Christ are 1974 yeres, fix moneths and ten dayes, and from the byrth of Christ vn- to this prefent yere, is 1560. Then the whole fumme and nom- ber of yeres from the beginning of the worlde vnto this prefent yere of our Lord God 1560 are iuft 5514, 6 moneths, and the faid odde ten dayes.

The End.

IOSHVA CHAP. I. VERS. 8.

Let not this boke of the Law departe out of thy mouth, but meditate therein daye and night, that thou mayeft obferue and do according to all that is written the- rein: fo fhalt thou make thy way propfe- rous, and then fhalt thou haue good fucceffe.
